CHAPTER 11

Tubby had finally finished dressing and now, after a hurried trip across the city to Bryn's room, they stood waiting in the big parlor of one of the old and eminently respectable hotels.

The grandfather clock in the room ticked slowly. 'You're crazy,' Bryn murmured, and took out his watch.

'There isn't Any Reason Why I Should Do It' far as to say that if Bryn, at the age of six, had not fallen upon him silently one day as they rolled off a roof together, he would not have hit the end of his tongue and so begun a flap which would enter to his dying day.

'Consequences?' Tubby still sat in the big chair and considered, his blue eyes on Bryn's gray ones.

'What about this sailor, this Graham fellow?' Tubby demanded abruptly. 'Do you think he's going to let any man crack him in the jaw and then marry his girl without doing anything about it? What about him?'

'Oh, Lord,' Tubby said prayerfully, and put his head in his hands. Bryn went over and sat down beside him. He tweaked the yellow lock.

ACTIVE SERVICE NOTES

Gen. Bill Anderson has been transferred from Toronto, B. O. to Fort Brandon, Manitoba.

Miss J. L. Lambert of Sumner is spending a week's leave at her home here.

Mr. Lloyd Neill of Barrhead, Alberta, called on at the Herald Office last Monday for Neill was formerly manager at the local Currier's Store.

Gen. David Davidson is now stationed at the basic training camp at Brampton, having been formerly in Toronto. He spent the week end at his home here.

Congratulations to Pilot Officer Bruce Kennedy on having received his commission last week. He graduated second in his class at Yorkton, Sask. On Monday he arrived home by plane and after a short leave will go out to Vancouver, B.C. where he will take an instructor's course with the RCAF.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Christian were delighted to receive a letter from their son, Sgt. David Christian, telling them that he was safe and well in England. He has been over to the Italian front on the 10th day. There is word that he is now in the front line and has been in the front line for some time.

A C. Winfield 'Curly' Wheeler is home from Victoria, B.C. for a few days.

Mr. Stephen Hynes of the C.W.A.C. has been reported from Gibe Barracks, Ottawa to Washington, D.C. U.S.A. where he will work on the British Inspection Board.

Wireless air-gunner, Leon Gustaf is to be congratulated on his promotion to the rank of Pilot-Officer. He received his commission at Macdonald, Manitoba, and after a short leave here left for Halifax, N.S. last Monday morning.

Cpl. K. W. King is home on two weeks' leave from Jasper, Alberta. He is spending a week at his home here from Camp Nainio, British Columbia.

Corporal A. Kermhead has been promoted to the rank of Acting-Sergeant. He is with the Lorne Scots at Camp Nainio, Vancouver, B.C.

Promotions are in the air these days. The 'Blue' Emmerson has been made a Lance-Corporal. There is news with the Lorne Scots.

OB Herald Meridian, who has been on Convoy duty since August 1st, writes some very interesting letters home. He likes his work very well indeed, and will have lots of exciting adventures to tell when he comes back.

On one of his trips he was fortunate enough to meet some of his relatives. He wishes to thank those who are writing him the Herald as he enjoys reading the Georgetown news.

Birthday greetings are extended to Sgt. J. W. Hamilton who has been in the Medical Corps overseas since 1941. November 11th will be the second birthday he has celebrated over there.

Some three weeks ago now, Ormie Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Carter, Naval cadet in the Active Services, and is at present stationed at Stanley Barracks, Toronto.
