TRINGS THAT MAR FAMILY LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 27:36-38. Mat. 5:21, 22. Luke 11:15-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Eph. 5:25. See also Eph. 5:22-24. Col. 3:18-19.

Home is what you make it! Oh, yes, there may be circumstances which hinder us from doing what we would like—such as poverty, illness, unemployment, etc. These are things we cannot control and certainly they do have a bearing. But man or woman when of the right spirit can triumph over such matters and make even the poorest home the gateway to heaven. It is a matter of the attitude of heart and mind. Our lesson then is very practical, for it deals with those sins which mar family life.

Whatever our circumstances may be, we can and must turn away from sin—and in this case, the sin which hinders the home from being what it ought to be. God has promised victory over sin through Christ for all who believe in Him. What then are the sins which stand as the enemies of the home? L. Deceit (Gen. 27:36-38).

Whatever the circumstances of the home may be, there can be absolute honesty and candor in the dealings between members of the family.

Our recent study of the story of Jacob and Esau showed us the sad consequences of the deceit practiced by Jacob and his mother in defrauding Esau. Many elements entered in, the favoritism of the mother toward one son, the envy that the brother had of his elder brother's birthright, the wicked scheming of mother and son to outwit the aged father—all a very distressing picture of a home shot through with deceitfulness. To build anything of permanent value on such a foundation was quite impossible.

The family in which deceitful means are used by husband or wife to gain some advantage for self or a favored child is heading for the rocks and needs to turn about and get into the channel of truth and uprightness before it is too late.

II. Divorce (Matt. 5:31, 32).

One of the most destructive elements of modern life is that of divorce. Terrifying statistics could be cited, but they are not nearly so convincing as the knowledge most of us have of broken homes, delinquent children, decadent morals, and sad fates. The victims of this deadly evil are primarily the children who are sent on into life with disordered minds and hearts.

Jesus declared that the decree of divorce allowed by Moses was not an abrogation of God's original law in this matter. Because of the "hardness of their hearts" (Mark 10:4) Moses permitted it, but the standard of God was and (note this please!) is unchanged.

Marriage, as we saw in our lesson of November 1, is God's plan for the perfect union of the man and woman whereby the two become one in the sight of God. That means that the tie is not one to be dissolved at will or on some purely legal ground; it is an inseparable union.

The only exception recognized by Scripture (v. 32) is that act of unfaithfulness which is such a breach of the holy union as to virtually destroy it. Perhaps it might be called a recognition of the breaking of the union rather than an exception. Adultery is a heinous sin, an extremely serious violation of God's law. Let us press that fact home today when it is so lightly regarded in our sinful generation.

III. Desire (Luke 12:13-15).

Money is necessary and may be a blessing, but the "love of money is the root of all evil" (I Tim. 6:10). That is not just a verse in the Bible. It is the true picture of the thing which has destroyed the happiness of millions.

Here was a quarrel over an inheritance, and in meeting it our Lord laid down a principle which would solve all the money quarrels in every home—and they are endless in number and great in bitter destructiveness.

"Man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" (v. 15). Write it large over the minds and hearts of the boys and girls in our homes! Let it control in the attitude of father and mother toward money. It will solve not only the money problems of the home, but will send the children forth into life with a foundation philosophy that will bless them to the end of their days.

Verse 14. It is the desire of money that most often makes a man a judge over his neighbor. The big eyes of envy cause him to look with bitter desire upon what his brother has and he wants. The fine principle of sharing the family's possessions would do much to knit the home into a unit—happy, strong and useful to both God and man. The point is to say "ours" rather than "mine," and to ask, "What can we do?" not, "What can I get?"

In police court in Milton, October 21st, Mrs. Mary Marshall, Milton, was fined a week on request of Crown Attorney W. I. Dick, K.C. She is charged with stealing a car owned by Paul Wall, Burlington, on October 20th. Bail was set at $200.00.

Normal Junior Institute and Junior Farmers will hold their Annual Church Service in Normal Presbyterian Church on Sunday, November 15, at 8:15 p.m. Rev. A. M. Miller of Brantford will be the guest speaker. Everyone Welcome.

We regret that we were unable last week to publish a letter signed by Mr. P. McCartney, in connection with the Poppy Day held here last Saturday, due to lack of space. The response to this worthy cause, sponsored by the Legion was indeed gratifying, with receipts from the sale of poppies amounting to $102.00.

A keenly interested group of girls, under the leadership of Mrs. J. L. Lambert, are working for their "Junior Foot Badges," after which they will be full fledged Girl Guides. This is an organization which has long been needed in town and deserves the full support and co-operation of everyone.

Mr. H. L. Matthews, formerly of Westdale Technical School, Hamilton, is replacing Mr. H. J. Heidmann on the High School staff here. He commenced teaching on Tuesday, and is an English, History and Physical Training Specialist. Another new appointment to the school staff is that of Miss Thelma Capps, A.T.C.M., of Brantford as music teacher.

The local Fire Brigade had two calls during the week. Last Wednesday noon, a truck owned by the Direct-Winters Transport, drove over to the fire hall and sounded an alarm that its carload was afire. The truck was carrying bales of cotton, which limited from combustion. The fire was extinguished and the bales stored in the warehouse at the Richmond Woolen Mills. Early Sunday morning the fire broke out again. This time destroying the small warehouse. Through the prompt action of firemen, the main building was not threatened.

We were greatly interested to hear how quickly an ad. in our classified section brought results. In this particular instance, an historical illustrated atlas of Haldon County was for sale. The week end after the paper came out a family from Toronto were visiting friends in town and happened to mention they would very much like to obtain an atlas of Haldon County. The Georgetown family had seen the ad. in The Herald and promptly contacted the advertiser for the prospective buyer. A sale was made right on the spot. It pays to advertise—Try it and see.

LIMEHOUSE

The girls' Lookout Club held their postponed October meeting at the home of Olive and Jean Given on Saturday, Doris Harding took the chair in the absence of the president. Plans were discussed for a crokinole at the same home on Friday, November 13th and a bazaar in December.

Miss Helen Swackhamer, Vivian, Marion, and Norris Hill (died), were prize winners of costumes worn at the masquerade and dance at Mr. and Mrs. S. Kirpatrick's on Friday evening under the auspices of the Limehouse W.I. Over twenty-two dollars was realized on the draw for appliqued quilt, Mrs. De Stefano of Hamilton being the winner. A good time was enjoyed by everyone in dancing to music provided by Garnet Kay, Charlie Mills, Russell Mc Donald and Earl Scott who gave their talent free. Joe Scott and Joe McDonald were capable floor managers.

Fig. J. L. Eberly is enjoying two weeks furlough from Ipperwash Camp. Miss Ruth Norton spent a recent week end with Mr. and Mrs. T. L.
