

Kathleen Chapman Weds

A pretty Autumn wedding of interest to her many Georgetown friends was solemnized on Saturday, November 7th, at St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton, when Mary Kathleen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Chapman, became the bride of Sergeant Robert William Pratt, R.C.A.F., Quisph, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pratt of Mount Forest. Rev. E. A. Brooks officiated and Mrs. Geo. Simpson played the wedding music. Tall candelabra and white tulle garlands graced the altar and sprigs of evergreen tied with white satin bows marked the guest seats.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown with bodice of ivory satin with silk net over satin forming the full floor-length skirt. Her fingertip veil was held in place by an ivory satin Juliet cap. She carried American Beauty roses and white beader.

The wedding was attended by Miss Mary Robertson of Hamilton in a floor-length dress of heavenly blue broad-cloth organza. A circlet of matching satin held her shoulder-tip veil. The bride's maid's flowers were Tallian roses and white beader.

Little Carol Anne Lantz was sweet in a Kate Greenway frock of shell pink taffeta with frilled net and baby blue bows. Her bonnet of matching taffeta and pleated net was tied with long baby blue satin streamers. Her nosegay was of pink and white baby tulle centred with a pink rosebud.

Corporal Wayne Krapf, R.O.A.F., of Quisph, was the best man and the ushers were Bill Williams, R.C.N.V., Oak, and Stuart Lantz of the Lorne Scots Reserve.

At a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother wore a burgundy street-length dress with black accessories and a corsage of tallian roses. Assisting her, was the groom's mother in a wine crepe dress, brown accessories and a tallian corsage.

For her wedding trip to Montreal the bride wore a blue wool suit, brown accessories and kolinsky fur. The couple will reside in Quisph.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goring and son Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. John Reid from Huron, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClure last Sunday.

Mrs. R. Haines Dies in 34th Year

The community was saddened last week by the untimely death of Louise Emma Bidwell beloved wife of Roland Haines, Glen Williams in her 34th year.

The late Mrs. Haines was born in Orangeville, the daughter of Mrs. E. Bidwell. She lived for eighteen years in Toronto and was employed in the Eaton Mail-Order Department for a number of years. After her marriage to Roland Haines eight years ago, she came to live in Glen Williams. A member of the Church of England, she took an active interest in Church life and was a willing worker in the community affairs.

Besides her husband, she leaves to mourn her loss a brother, Lawrence Bidwell, and a sister, Mrs. W. E. Robinson, both of Toronto.

The funeral service was held from the Alban's Church, Glen Williams, by Rev. W. O. Thompson, on Friday, November 13th at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bradley assisted in the choir. Full list of those who attended is given on page 2.

Surviving are a family of three sons and one daughter: Bernard of Georgetown, Joseph of Baldwinville, N. Y. John, of Toronto; and Jean (Mrs. George Turner) of Toronto; also among the grandchildren left to mourn her loss, are Joseph and Roy Wilcox, who made their home with their grandmother.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, November 11th, with interment in Mount Hope Cemetery. Burial services were held for three sons and one daughter, Rev. Fr. McDonald officiated. While in Georgetown Mrs. Wilcox was a member of Holy Cross R.C. Church.

Mrs. Hannah Wilcox Buried Last Week

The death occurred in Toronto last week of Mrs. Hannah Wilcox, in her 79th year. Born in England, Mrs. Wilcox came to Canada about thirty-four years ago. She lived in Toronto prior to coming to Georgetown about twelve years ago, and only during the past year had she returned to the city to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. O. Turner. Her husband predeceased her twenty-three years ago, also a son, James.
