

CARROLL'S

QUEENSLAND SWEET MIXED

PICKLES

Our Dinner TEA 32c 27-oz. Jar 23c

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------|
| Home Baby FOODS 2 lbs 7c | Chickens HADDE 2 lbs 23c |
| Highland Vegetable SOUP 2 lbs 19c | Old Brand SARDINES 2 lbs 21c |
| Pastry Wheat SPARKIES 2 lbs 7c | Breakfast CHEESE 2 lbs 69c |
| Ylimon's Quick OATS 1 lb. pkg. 15c | Cream of WHEAT 2 lbs 14c, 23c |
| For Morning Mithras F.V.V. Cereal 2 lbs 29c | Shredded WHEAT 2 lbs 23c |
| Anytime Vegetable JUICES 2 lbs 9 1/2, 17c | Cereal 2 lbs 16c, 25c |

OATS 19c

ORANGES

35c & 48c Doz.

GRAPEFRUIT

4 for 25c

Imperial Grapes 19c lb.

Fruit and vegetable prices until Saturday night only.

Beans 2 lbs 9c

- | | |
|---|---------------------------------|
| CORNFLAKES Quaker 2 lbs 15c | Ready Cut or Spaghetti 2 lbs 9c |
| MACARONI 2 lbs 9c | Old Cheese 2 lbs 43c |
| ROMAR COFFEE 2 lbs 35c | Pancake mixer 1 lb. 15c, 35c |
| HEINZ KETCHUP 1 lb. 19c | LARGE CHIPS 2 lbs 23c |
| SUPER SUDS Concentrated Large package 20c | Palmolive or Odex 2 cases 11c |

P. & G. Soap 3 bars 14c

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Every Flake or SNOW 1 lb. pkg. 23c | Cut Mixed PEEL 2 lbs 29c |
| Old Dutch CLEANSER 2 lbs 10c | Orange or Lemon PEEL 2 lbs 33c |
| Junkies TABLETS 2 lbs 25c | Por BARLEY 2 lbs 5c |
| Harry Horne's CUSTARD 1 lb. 10c | Bulk Green PEAS 2 lbs 13c |
| Van Camp's Tomato SOUP 2 lbs 15c | California LIMA BEANS 2 lbs 16c |

We reserve the right to limit quantities of all merchandise.

Phone 357 Georgetown

"As We See It"

By J. A. Stoney

IT WOULD be interesting to know where the composers of the words of different songs got their ideas. For instance the song "Yes we have no Bananas Today". We wonder where the writer of that song got the idea. If the song had been written recently we could understand it for there have been good many retailers there but at the time that song was written bananas could be obtained almost at any store throughout the country. Or take the song "I'm dreaming of a White Christmas". If you recall the Christmas days of '41 and of '40 you will remember that they were green Christmas's alright and that the green Christmas was cold but we did have 30 Christmas was cold but we did have very little snow that day so that we could understand someone dreaming of a white Christmas alright and of putting his dreams into words. Then take the showboat song "Old Man River" which we never seem to get tired of. You may recall Tenyson's "The Brook". Four of the verses in that short poem have the same ending and here it is. "For men may come and men may go, but I go on forever." Comparing those words taken from the song Old Man River we find them not so very different. "Old Man River, he just keeps rolling along." Perhaps the writer of Old Man River had that old poem of Tenyson's in mind when he composed the words of his song.

MANY OF our readers will recall the unusually late harvest that we had in some parts of our Province this past fall. The scarcity of threshing machines with which to stook thrash was responsible in part for the delay in harvesting and then for the damp weather later on held up operations. You may recall that Labor Day was the last fine harvesting day for almost a month. But eventually the fields were all cleared of stooks and the harvesting operations were finished for another year. The situation though was different out in Saskatchewan. That Province had the best crop since 1928, this year. Even in the southern part of the Province the crop was away above the average, yields of 45 bushels of wheat to the acre being quite common. If you remember that the southern part of Saskatchewan has been called the Dust Bowl during recent years because of the difficulty of moisture you will realize that a person of that kind does deserve no doubt the tree would be for his own home rather than for disposal for money and it seems difficult to imagine anyone enjoying their Christmas tree knowing all the while that they had stolen it off somebody's grave. Can you imagine anyone explaining to their children the Christmas Story about a tree that they themselves had stolen off some person's grave. Somehow we are unable to imagine that thief as having a Merry Christmas, can you?

Annual Warden's Dinner Held At Burlington Last Month

(Continued from Page 1)

tribution to the war effort. No major scandal had taken place, and any mistakes made had been corrected as soon as found. Deputy-Reeve Norman Craig, Jr. introduced the speaker of the evening, Wm. J. McCulloch, in a few well-chosen words. Mr. McCulloch congratulated the gentlemen who had fulfilled their public trust, accepting severe criticism and getting very little thanks. "We should view with gravity our responsibilities and its duties; and if we do not preserve them through neglect and duty, we may lose the peace. We should exercise our franchise on every occasion. It is a public duty to vote, no matter how you vote. He referred to the recent municipal election in Hamilton, where only 28,000 had exercised their franchise out of a possible 95,000 voters, being less than 30 per cent. It was a gloomy victory when 70 per cent of the electors stayed at home. He cited the town of Huntville where, five citizens had been nominated for Mayor, and 14 for the council, and not one candidate qualified, and another nomination had to be held. "May we not win the war and lose the peace if this spathy continues," said the speaker. He challenged the press of Canada that had not done its duty to criticize and express their views constructively in the present crisis. The speaker then referred to free speech and the freedom of the press. We have had the freedom of the press for less than 300 years. Only five years ago Premier Aberhart, of Alberta, attempted to deprive a section of the press of its freedom. The press of Canada rose in its might and fought for its freedom and the citizenship of Canada, and finally won victory through the decision of the Privy Council in England. Premier Aberhart's law provided that every newspaper in that province would have to print a full page of propaganda whenever the government demanded, and give the source of information published, and refusal of the request meant the banning of the newspaper indefinitely without recourse to a court of law. The decision of the Privy Council in favor of the newspapers was not alone a fight for the freedom of the press, but for democracy. The press should be Canadian first and above political influence, and it can fulfill its great purpose. He urged his hearers to protect, defend and guard their duty, and above all be good Canadians, lest we win the war and lose the peace.

W. I. Dick proposed the toast to the ex-wardens which was ably responded to by ex-wardens Leslie Kerms and Chas. Readhead. The toast to the County Council was proposed by Theo. Blacklock, M.P.P., who urged everyone to support our armed forces to the limit. Deputy-Reeve Robertson, of Nelson, and Reeve J. M. MacDonald responded, referring to some of the problems dealt with by the County Council during the year. They paid high tribute to Warden Blair.

Mayor J. Gordon Blair proposed the toast to Warden Blair, and spoke of his high qualities, not only as warden of the county, but as reeve of the town. Warden Blair expressed pleasure at having such a large number as his guests for the evening. He referred to the decreasing debt and the reduction in the tax rate in the county. He expressed his thanks for the many kind words of the various speakers.

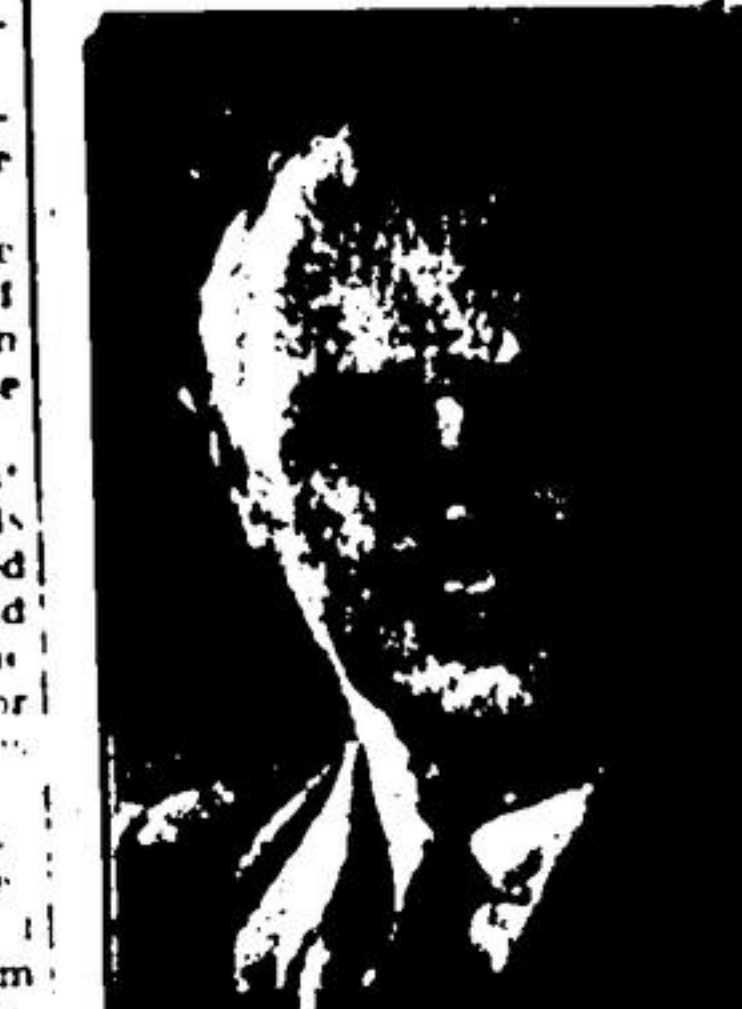

During the evening, Deputy-Reeve W. Hall, of Trafalgar township, presented the Warden with a beautiful chair, as a slight token of the esteem in which he was held by his colleagues. Warden Blair thanked his fellow-members for the gift. Mrs. Manly sang four solos very acceptably, with Mrs. G. Colton as accompanist. Mrs. Colton also favored the gathering with musical numbers. Rev. J. B. Roe said grace.

Those attending from Georgetown were ex-Reeve Harold Cleave and Councilor W. A. Wilson, of Esquesing. —Burlington Gazette

PERCY J. PHILLIP

Born in Iceland, educated in England and a Partisan by professional adoption, until his arrival as Ottawa correspondent of the New York Times two years ago; assistant compiler of the Oxford Dictionary, representative of important British newspapers during the First Great War and at the Peace Conference that followed, Percy Phillip escaped by a tick of the clock from death by bombs in Great War II. He is a frequent speaker in the CBC Week-end Review, heard Mondays at 8:30 p.m. with Dr. James L. Stewart and Watson Thomas taking their turn every third week. Mr. Phillip was heard on January 2.

HUOH H. LAWSON

executive director of York Knitting Mills Limited, Toronto, who has been elected president of the Canadian Woolen and Knit Goods Manufacturers' Association. As much as 80 per cent of large sections of the industry is producing munitions—woolen cloth blankets and knit goods for the armed forces.

IMPERIALS HOLD CHRISTMAS BINGO

On Wednesday, Dec. 23rd, the Imperial Section of Branch 129 Canadian Legion held a well attended bingo. Proceeds of the night were donated to the Christmas Tree Fund of the branch which on the previous evening was host to Santa Claus for all children under eleven whose fathers are overseas, besides the children of Legion members. Winners of the special prizes at the Imperial Bingo were: Door prize, 10 lb. turkey, Mr. Andy Dewhurst, Goose, Mr. K. Spence, Goose, Mrs. G. Stacey. Seven chickens were also played for, and other items of good value.

—When Jones' little girl was born, she set their hearts a-flutter; They named her Oleomargarine, For they hadn't any but her.

M. O. H. REPORT FOR NOVEMBER

- Chicken Pox 0
- Scarlet Fever 0
- Measles 0
- German Measles 1
- Mumps 1
- Infantile Paralysis 0
- Typhoid Fever 4
- Whooping-Cough 4
- Cerebro-Spinal Meningitis 0

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunter celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last week at a family dinner party given in their honour by their daughter Mrs. Ivan Westfall, at her home in Brampton. Mrs. Hunter was the former Margaret Marchmont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marchmont, of Georgetown.

UNUSUALLY around Christmas Time there are reports of Christmas Tree stealing. This past Christmas time was no exception and we recall reading about instances where evergreen

THE RAILWAY AND THE WAR . . . By Thurstan Topham

The war has created a tremendous demand for written records, communication. The Canadian telegraph companies, by increasing their facilities, have kept pace with this vital phase of Canada's war effort.

The increase in channel mileage of the Canadian National Telegraphs since the start of the war would circle the globe 3 1/2 times.

C.N. Telegraphs are operating offices in military establishments throughout Canada for the expeditious handling of war messages.

War brought the Messengers. They are replacing young lads who have enlisted.

The magic of joined wireless, the carrier system, introduced by the Canadian National Telegraphs, in 1917, enables the simultaneous exchange of messages through radio frequency channels guided by one pair of wires.

if you marry... if you move... You MUST REPORT

● In the obtaining of the marriage license... the rush of preparation... the celebration of the marriage... do not forget that you are required by law to notify the National Registration authorities about the happy event.

The bride changes her name... often both the bride and the groom change their address.

Also, when any registered person moves at any time from one address to another, he or she is required by law to notify the National Registration authorities about the new address.

Every person in Canada, 16 years of age and over, unless exempted in writing, must be registered. It is a patriotic duty to comply with the National Registration regulations. You will avoid substantial penalties by doing so.

Every person, so registered, who afterwards marries or changes his or her address must report within 14 days to the Chief Registrar for Canada.

All registered persons are required by law to have their registration certificates in their immediate possession at all times. You may be required to produce your registration certificate, by the proper authorities, at any time.

Every duly registered person whose registration certificate has been lost, destroyed, worn out or defaced, should obtain a duplicate certificate (Necessary forms and instructions for this purpose may be obtained from any Postmaster in Canada.)

HUMPHREY MITCHELL, Minister of Labour, Ottawa