

SURGEON-CHIDE. C. H. BEST co-discoverer of insulin, and head of the Navy's Medical Research Unit, who was promoted in rank in the New Year's promotion lists announced by Navy Minister Macdonald. Burgeon-Cmdr. Best strent much time in Georgetown a few years ago, and at precent has a summer home to the vicinity of Biewarttown

ASHGROVE

ple of the community was held at the home of Mr. John Alexander, on Wednesday, Dec. 30th. In spite of weather and road conditions, almost everyone was able to be present and a de-Hightful time was enjoyed by all. The tirst part of the evening was spent playing euchire and crokinole. Fisher and Gordon Pisher won highes: scores in cucture, while Mabel Wrigglesworth and George Wilson won the prises for crokinole. After lunch was served, everyone enjoyed dancing. The committee in charge for 1943 will be Doris Brownridge, Maragret Alexander, Jack Ruddell and Gordon Planer.

stationed at Trail, BC, spent the home here. to Toronto after spending Christmas school duties.

McClure, Norval. Mr. Wilfred Bird was the new trustee elected to fill the vacancy of the who had completed his 3 year term. his third and twenty-third birthday er. Apply:

couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. F. Ruddell Christmas week.

HERB. CLEAVE,

Disney "Chef Donald."

President.

Active Service Notes

LAC May Hansen of Secudouc.1 N. B. was home for New Year's.

Der. E. Burt, Camp Borden, W. home on Christmas leave.

Pte. Perc. Chapman is home from Camp Nanaimo, B.O. Fos. Clarence Kennedy, from Niaga-rs-on-the-Lake was home on holiday Medical Research Unit. Leave. Home for Christmas was Pie. D. Mc-

Oill, Bowmanville, and Cpl. B. Hadley from Monteith. Cadet Russell Firestine is home on holiday leave from Three Rivers, Quebec.

Pies. Jean Tennant and Orace Kidd. both of Trinity Barracks, Toronto spent New Year's at home.

Bradley, both of Camp Borden spent Gien Williams, and leaves Thursday New Year's at their respective homes. Bgt. Alfred Bykes is home on leave from Rivers, Manitoba. He will report for duty at Dunnville on Jan. 9. LAC. He is hoosted at Victoriaville, Christmas and Happy New Year.

Quebec. Bgt. H. R. Hurley has been transfeired from North Bydney, Nova Scotia to the Seaplane Base at Dartmouth. Pts. Horson Myth, also of Olen Williams, has been transferred from Camp Borden to Debert, N. B. ACI Edward "Ted" Bilgger has graduated from No. 1 Wireless Behool, Montreal He spent the holiday here with life perente.

Pres. Gordon C. Cowan and Orcil J. Cowan were home on leave from Bus-SEE, N. B. where they are stationed announcement by the Air Ministry in with the Victoria Rifles. burne, N. B. is spending a leave with France, and is one of the outstanding his wife the former Elaine Collins of wireless-air-gunners of his squadron. Georgetown) and with her parents, in A younger brother, Kenneth, is a Olen Williams Spending the New Year's holidays with his family in town, was Sgt. Alfred | brightened Christmas Day for Mr. and Colling, of Toronto.

Mrs. Nicol McMiven received a cable of Christmas Oreetings on Dec. 23rd. George and Frank Wilson visited from her son Jim. who is serving over-

Major Arnott Early cabled his wife Mr. Norman Bird and Miss Effic Bird and family early last week, that the arrived safely in England. They had

Gunner Joe Norton, Hastings Military Camp Park, Vancouver, BC, was Miss Donna Adams has recurred her home for the Christmas holiday and New Year's He came home on "com-Miss Isabel Wrigglesworth spent the passionate leave" due to the serious whose condition now is only fair. Congratulations to Corporal Bill Wylle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William overseas. He joined the Royal Cana- Itp dian Engineers in March, 1940, and went overseas in May of the same

FRANK PETCH.

Secretary.

ANNUAL MEETING

Esquesing Agricultural Society

The annual meeting of Esquesing Agricultural Society will be held in the

McGIBBON HOUSE, GEORGETOWN

Saturday, January 16th, 1943

at 3 p.m. D.S.T.

Your attendance at this meeting will be appreciated.

CRECORV

THEATRE

Friday, January 8

Ann Ayars and Conrad Veidt in a dual role

"MEXICAN SPITFIRE SEES A GHOST"

FOX NEWS.

Saturday, January 9, matinee at 3

"THE GREAT MAN'S LADY"

Joel McCrea, Barbara Stanywek

Comedy "Some More of Samoa."

Tuesday and Wednesday, January 12 and 13

"HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY"

adapted from Richard Llewellyn's famous novel with Walter Pidgeon, Haureen O'Hara.

Miniature "Soaring Stare."

Chapter 8 "Spy Smasher"

Lune Veler, Leon Errol

"NAZI AGENT"

Townspeople will be interested to learn that Dr. C. H. Best, of Toronto, co-discoverer of insulin, who, with his family spends the summer months at a cottage near the Golf Course, has been promoted to the rank of Burgeon-Commander. He is head of the Navy's

A Rockwood girl. Nursing Bister Prenoes M. Oakes, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Harry Oakes, was specially honoured by having the Order of the Royal Red Cross, Broond Class, conferred on her, according to the official list of promotions and awards issued at Ottawa January 1st. Lawrence H. Beaumont is to be congratulated on receiving his sergeant's stripes at Paulson, Man, recently. He Ptes Walker Cleave and Clayton is spending a leave at his home in to report at No. 1 ORB. Bummerside, Prince Edward Island.

Pte. William G. Braisby was on the convoy which reached Britain safely a Winfield "Curty" Wheeler, of Olen short time ago, and sent his wife a Williams, was recently promoted to cable wishing all at home a Merry

> We were pleased to note in a recent class of graduates from the Malton Air Navigators' School, the name of Ed Buckerfield. Ed. whose home is in Orsvenhurst, was the genial clerk at Mac-Cormack's Drug Store prior to his en ton. tistment. While in town he was also a member of the Lorne Scots "C" Coy. Reserve. Congratulations Ed.

Pilot Officer Joe E. Galloway, of Milton, well-known among the town young people, overseas with the RC. A.P., has been awarded the distinguished flying medal, according to an London. He has taken part in many Bgt. George Blyth, R.C.A.F. Shel raids over Germany and occupied fighter-pilot at an overseas station.

A Christmas cable from Ceylon Mrs. D. P. Crichton. Their son, Bet David, who is stationed there with the RCAP, sent them the following message: "Oreetings from the tropics. and thanked everyone for all the nice things which had been sent to him "Dave" likes it very well over in Ceylon This is his third Christmas away from home.

ADVERTISEMENTS

FOR HALE

A Wood's electric feed grinder, 25 PHONE 332 or BOX 257.

T.G. Hewom

WANTED A middle-aged woman for light housework, Monday to Priday, Apply: BOX. "W" HERALD OFFICE

343 V Y

FOR SALE 1936 Plymouth Sedan in good conditon. Reasonable. Apply: L WARDLAW.

Albert Bireet.

or PHONE 414w. PIGS FOR HALE

14 Young Pigs for Sale. Apply: ALVIN STARRET. Olen Williams. Phone 92 r 2

WANTED

Live and dreased poultry. Highest market prices. Apply: A. BARNETT & BON, Phone: Brampton 343 r 14. (Reverse charges)

FOR SALE

Splendid Watchdog, male, police, Chrap to good home. Apply: Box "R" HERALD OPPICE MAS. State

TO RENT

RRWI

Two pleasant rooms with bath. Purnihaed or unfurnished, on Queen Street. Apply:

HERALD OPPICE MAS. JAMER

FOR RENT

5 roomed house on Guelph Street PHONE 301. Apply:

HOUSE TO RENT

House to Rent on Chapel St (East) 6 roams, all conveniences, newly decorated. Apply:

BETAMIN (B-Complex) tablets once MRS. McDOUGAIA, Phone 276

WANTED

Highest prices paid for Pine, Oak, Maple, Besewood and Hemlock logs. Apply:

OMOROWTOWN LUMBER CO., LTD. Prione 260.

CHURCH NEWS

SCRIPTURE TEXYS

January 3rd,-"For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." Rom. 8:6. Nervel and Union Prechyterian

Churches Rev. Chas. C. Cochrane. B.A. Interim Moderator Union Presbyterian Church:

10:00 a.m. Bunday School, Bible class 11.00 a.m. Public worship. (Rev. Wallace Wadland, B.A. will preach).

Norval Presbyterian Church 130 p.m. Bunday school, Bible class. 230 pm. Public worship. (Rev. Wallace Wadland, B.A. will preach.

The United Church of Canada

Rev. R. C. Todd, BA, Minister. School.

ed Church.

7 pm. Public wor- lightful slater . ship. Bubject: "God paved by those presents, you see, and

Bunday, Jan 17th, Holy Commun-

Raes Prechyterian Church,

CHAPTELLAB -Rev. Chas. C. Cochrane. B.A. 1000 a.m. Bunday Bchool. Minister.

1100 am. Barrament of the Lord's 7.00 p.m. Public worship.

Limebone: Prechyterian Church

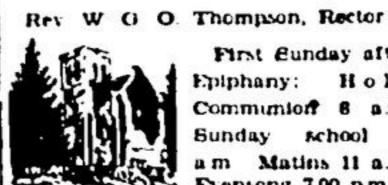

HL John's Church, Hiewartious

Rev. B R. Colebrook, Rector. Pirat Bunday after the Epiphany: 200 pm. Bunday school 300 pm. Evening prayer.

Mt. Paul's Church, Norval 730 pm Evening prayer.

M. Htephen's Church, Hernby 1200 am. Holy Communion.

il George's Church

First Eunday after Epiphany: Holy Communion 8 am Sunday school 10 am Matins 11 am. Evensong 700 pm.

St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams First Bunday after Epiphany: Holy Communion 930 a.m. Bunday School 200 p.m. Evensong 3.00 p.m.

Hely Cross R.C. Church

Rev. Fr. V. J. Morgan Mass at 9.00 am. 2nd and 4th Bundays, 1100 a.m. tst, 3rd and 5th Bundays.

CAR LICENSES WENT ON SALE JANUARY 4th

February 28 Named as Positively Last Day 1942 Markers May be Used-Gasoline Ration Books Not Renewable Until March 31st.

Ontario's 1940 motor webicle licenses went on sale on sale on January 4th, and must be obtained by Pebruary 28, Hon. T. B. McQuesten, minister of highways, has intimated.

He explained that though the term f the 1942 licenses has been extended to February M. as in other provinces, Ontario has found it impossible to accede to the request of the oil controller to alter the term of vehicle permits to coincide with that of gasoline plained. And this isn't your probration coupon books, which are not re- Item, after all, and yet you've put your newable until March 31. Buch a wif into such a position that if anychange would have a serious effect on thing went wrong, you would tone with the oil controller," the minister me your name. I didn't quite see it went on, "in issuance of ration books all until Tubby came yesterday. And next year through the offices of our he talked about your friends and then agents. So that present books may be valid for use with new 1943 permits, the number of the 1943 permit which is now on the ration book will be entered on the new 1943 permit.

"It will be necessary that until March 31 the 1043 permit be presented with the ration book when purchasing gasoline. Ration books for 1943 will be available sometime in Pebruary."

BETAMIN VITAMIN B-COMPLEX TABLETS Stop drugging! Take Page-Orlffiths

MBOCORMACK'S DRUG STORE ROBB'S DRUG STORE

FOR RENT 3 roomed apartment on ground floor. Separate entrance. Continuous hot water and all conveniences. Furnished or otherwise. Apply: HERALD OFFICE OF Phone 368

By FRANCES SHELLEY WEES

Copyright by Presces Shelley Wess WNU Rervice

Bryn stared at him, the gray eyedrenming, for away They came hack to earth. Tutby had a suggestion

"Why not get Sally and Madeline up 10 am. Bunday bere? Oh, Bluon for of course Sally wouldn't come without blus, and bed 11 a.m. Public wor- be useful. You said Grandmetter ship. Ourst preach- wanted young company for Detectals. He drew a deep breath er, Rev. A. W. Pos- Company new, and such company as bury, of Acton Unit- my delightful sister, and her del'gle ful husband, and his more than dethe usy's heers to all we need to my mention of the family relations know about the bu- . . . her mind would be too fulls or cupled to broad over you. We can tip the hids off They're all good sports And, for the deepest part of the plot -you know how Rally trots around at Simon's heels day and night, and kisses him at all the most awkward moments, and how they always hang on each other's arms?"

"Tubby." Bryn mid after a moment "you are a fool. Nevertheless . .

"Exactly." Bryn considered, whistling softly. His eyes began to sparkle. Tubby, see ing them, reached across the writing tuble for paper and a pen. He wrote a note. He sealed it in an envelope. 200 pm. Bunday School, Bible Class He addressed it to Mrs. Simon Val 300 pm. Sacrament of the Lord's lance, at Hillshorough. California "There," he said. "They're dying to come, snyway. Ho are a good many other people, as far as that goes." When Bryn went downstairs next morning there was apparently no one awake in the big house. Cary and Deborah were sure to be up, but they were not in night. He stood for a moment on the top step, breathing th the fresh cool uir, and then went arouted the house and down the breek toward the bridge, on his way to the engine house. He had filled the gasoline tank in the engine and was rinsing his bands In the ky brook water when he heard a fractatep on the bridge and looked up to see Deburah approaching. He steed up and dried his hands on his handkereldet. She came to stand a little above him on the raised plank looking down at him To his surprise the strain of resterday had not set a greater coldness toward film in her tack even. She was smilling a little at him now, here they curving. She was smilling at him and Grandmother was not watching He stared at her

"I followed you because I want to talk to you if you don't mind," she

"Why of course I don't mind Is there something I can do?"

She hestrated. When he looked up. the long lushes had dropped and lay love to her cheek. She began to exunine the mass, too "I'm not a very nice person," she said at last I spologized once before for being so difficult, but I don't think I tried any harder not to be difficult. I mean it, tids time. You were awfully thoughtful like night, when Grandmother was so queer and afraid. You do love her, don't you? You're guite honest about

1? You would do anything to spure er min?" "Y'ra." the nodded "I can see that. I loo't think I quite believed it until centerday afternoon, when you came home again, and last night, when you were no troubled. I've been very selfsh I've been thinking of myself all the time, and feeling trapped, and testing it. I haven't been half as thoughtful of Grandmother as you have I've demanded things for mywelf more than for her, thought about movelf first, and what . . what my position was. You haven't thought about yourself once. You haven't comthe budget for the current fiscal year, most. You signed the note for Mr.

Holworthy, and assumed all the tinan-"We shall continue to co-operate chal responsibility, and you've given he went on and nearly rulned everything, and suddenly I saw how dreadfully unfair that would be for you. and how horrid I've been," She looked caught himself in time. But she did don't." not notice.

"Yes, I have. You don't know all the things that have been going on in my mind. I'm sorry." She put her soft hand out, momentarily, and patted his, lying on the railing. Bryn did not move.

"Bryn." "Yes. D . . . Dehorah."

The Market !!

"Grandmother is in a strange state of mind. Last night I was very worried. I went into her room to tuck her up and kiss her good-night. She looked up at me directly and asked me if I were happy. She hasn't asked me before. Not in the same way. I think she began to suspect everybody, even "Did you tell her you were happy" "Yes. But . . . she's going to he watching very closely for proof." She stopped. The color began to rise usder her white skin. Bryn watched it. hewitched. Her eyes were lowered "What . . what are we going to do about It?" he asked. lost. "Happy with you," Deborah explained, as if he did not understand. "Does she think I'm in love with

"Yes." Deborah replied, and flushed violently. "You're a much better actor than I am. I'm sure she's heginning to suspert me."

"When you go out the door," Brys explained. "I stand and look after you. And when I hear you coming I un to neet you. And when you're talking ? keep looking at you, and when you're away I talk to her about you. I tell her how beautiful you are, how much more beautiful than any girl I ever knew, with those lovely eyes, and your tashes as long as a dream, and your mouth, and your tittle white chin, and the way you blush and Tour threat so soft and white, and the way you move your stoutders, and the color of your halr, and the way it curts."

"Oh, dear," she sighed. "No wonder she thinks I'm not in love with THE I haven't told her once anything about you I've hardly mentioned you." "Well," Bryn sald after a moment. "I'll tell you. When you're in love, Interest. you hate to be away from | sour . . from your sweetheart for a second. Everything she does is not fect and lovely and sweet. Yes want to lift her in your arms and hold her tight against you, so close that you can bear her heart beating. You want to hear her say that she'll never hereyou again, no matter what happens. that she doesn't care anything should anybody else in the world hut you. And if it happened that she didn't lave you." Bran went on slowly, "there'd he a sick empty feeling where your heart ought to be, and you'd wish you were a kid again, so you could cry. But if she did love you, and she knew you weren't sure about her, she'd put her arms around you, and put her cheek systest yours and maybe even

. . kins sou." Debural was staring at him After moment she said breathlessly, "Io that the way you love your . . . your un girl?" - b .. more "You Induirah." "I don't know anything about that any of loving," she said at last. "I scildn't pretend that to Grandmother."

"No," Bryn sald. "It wasn't so much what I ought to say to Grandmother, anyway," she said "I hadn't really thought of talkmy to her about you. It was the way I ought to set. I was wondering

"It's really Clary's idea," she said bastily "He came to me about it this morning He's afraid Grandmother might get to wondering about us. You we she thinks we . . . we love each other the way other people do when they're married," she explained "I suspected as much." Bryn said. lightly. "Well, is there something !

can do about it?" "I'm afraid she's going to be watching for a while, anyway. Until she's sutlafied. I was wondering . . . It'sflary's idea, you know There's a little

That Way of Loving." sewing room just at the head of the stairs. There's a door into my sitting room. Grandmother never goes to there; if you don't mind dreadfully, you could have it for your bedroom." "Why, no," Bryn said calmly, " wouldn't mind. I'd have to go out and in through your sitting room, though, Wouldn't you dislike that?" .

"What I was trying to tell you when at him gravely, "Will you forgive me?" I first started to talk," she reminded "You haven't been horrid, Deborah. him, "is that it's too late for me to You've been . . ." Bryn began, and keep thinking what I like and what I:

So It was settled.

(Continued next week)

Promptly and Neatly Executed

The Georgetown Herald

The annual party for the young peo-

Christmas holidays at his home here. cousins in Onelph during Christmas sees with the Reinforcement Unit of I wish I were home for Christmas." He week. Gloria and Doreen White re- the lat Canadian Signals. turned with them or a couple of days.

vacation with her parenta.

retiring trustee. Mr. Clayton Wilson, Wylle, Ocorgetown, who is celebrating cycle. One registered Holstein spring-

Miss Bessie Halbert, of Leskard, and

Pte. John Alexander, who has been spent their Ohristmas vacation at their convoy in which he was sailing had week end with Mr. and Mrs Hyatt Illness of his father, Mr. L. J. Norton, Miss Isabel Alexander has returned had a rough, but fast crossing.

Mits Edith Trull, of Orono, spent a