

LOCAL NEWS

—Did you wear a shamrock today? Yes, it's St. Patrick's Day.

—Remember the Legion Concert Party at the Gregory Theatre on Monday, March 22nd.

—A little birdie told us the radio license man is in the vicinity of Georgetown. Have you bought yours yet?

—Mrs. Ralph Ross and Mrs. Fred Ballantine assisted in the hospital room of the Red Cross Blood Donor clinic held here last week.

—25 Artists from the Ouelph Legion Concert Party will be at the Gregory Theatre on Monday, March 22nd. Don't miss this show.

—For your convenience only, have the Herald mailed to you every Wednesday afternoon. Place your name on our mailing list today.

—Did you reserve your tickets at Chapman's Drug Store for the Legion Concert Party?

—Get your tickets on the landscape paintings at Preston's Empire Lunch. They're on display in their window now.

—Cpl. Phyllis Westbrook and Asst. Section Officer Margery Wright are recruiting for the RCAF (Women's Division) in the former Municipal Building a few days this week.

—The regular meeting of the Local Council of Women will be held on Friday, March 19th, at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. M. Nielsen. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Housh of Brampton. A good attendance is requested.

—The annual meeting of the Georgetown Soldiers' Comforts Committee will be held in the Public Library Wednesday, March 24th at 8 o'clock, to which the public are cordially invited.

—Mrs. Gordon Brown has reported having heard a song sparrow last Sunday morning, near St. George's Church, and then on Monday she heard a robin singing in the maple trees at the park. They're cheerful signs, anyway!

—The employees of Alliance Paper Mills Ltd. have added two names to their Herald subscriptions for the boys overseas. Pte. J. C. Wilson of the RCASC and Pte. Horace Blyth of the Highland Light Infantry will now be receiving their "weekly letter" from home.

—We can hardly believe that crows, supposedly the first harbingers of Spring, have the nerve to "caw" with nine inches of snow on the ground and a zero temperature. Many people have heard them, however, so we still maintain that Spring is just around the corner.

—Don't be shy about bringing in your news items, whether they be recent visitors, or items of local interest which you think may have escaped our attention. We're always more than pleased to have them. You'll be doing us a service by helping to keep your hometown paper newsworthy.

—A donation of $10.00 was received by the Herald War Victims' Fund this week, which represented proceeds of a lucky draw conducted by the Glen Community Club. The members are appreciative of the good work of Mrs. Fred Laws, who made and donated the cushion top which was won by Miss Marjorie Wagstaffe.

—Mrs. J. R. Barber and Mrs. Arnott Early won first prize in the second

RODE Bridge Marathon, scoring a total of 31,500 points. Mr. K. M. Langdon and Mrs. S. W. Orr won second prize with 77,800, and Mr. S. P. Chapman and Campbell Biorial talked 77,400 points, winning third prize. Mr. K. M. Langdon and Mrs. S. W. Orr won the prize for the highest individual night's score, by making 9,250. War Savings Stamps were given for prizes.

—The "Friendly Neighbours" Club of Glen Williams held a bingo in the Glen Community Hall on Thursday, March 11th, from which they made $300.00. The entire proceeds were turned over to Mrs. John Hepburn, Br. president of the Glen Red Cross. Those in charge of arrangements were: Mr. and Mrs. George Preston, Mrs. Bob McMaster, Mrs. Herbert Preston, Mrs. Percy Wagstaffe, Mr. Clayton Allen and Mr. Robert McMaster also helped with arrangements. The many prizes were excellent. The door prize went to 8-year-old Carl Schenk, and Mrs. William Hancock won the "special".

—The Victory Club, which is comprised of several girls employed in the pottery department at Smith & Stone Ltd., donated $109.80 to the Aid for Russia Fund last week and there is a promise of still more to come. The sum is made up of the proceeds of their dance, held in the Arena last Friday night, with Doris Hulla's orchestra, together with money made on their "Ocolonial Out" quilt draw. Misses Gladys Helgason and Dolene McEweny organized the club, and they look forward to being able to do even more good work in the near future. Joe Scott, Limerhouse, won the quilt.

GLEN WILLIAMS

—Mrs. Una Hill, of Niagara-on-the-Lake spent the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hill, who underwent a serious operation at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ouelph, returned home on Saturday last much improved in health.

STEWARTTOWN

The WI last week at their meeting completed a quilt. Mrs. J. C. Murray, the secretary, read more letters from the boys overseas writing their thanks for Christmas parcels received safely. To the Russian Relief Fund was voted a quilt and $300. Plans were made to try and get more cigarettes to the boys for Easter.

Although the attendance was small at the World Day of Prayer meeting held in the council chamber last Friday, those present felt it was well worth while. Those taking the prayers were Mrs. Bodwell, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Walter Lawson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Lawson, and Mrs. H. P. Lawson took the scripture readings. Mrs. Hector Bird gave a very helpful devotional address. Mrs. H. Graham was the pianist and Mrs. Bodwell sang "Breathe on Me Breath of God." Mrs. John Bird and Mrs. Bally were the leaders. DOINGS AT RED CROSS BINGO

Over $400.00 was raised at the bingo sponsored by the Canadian Legion for the Red Cross on Monday night, Mar. 15th. A large crowd, including a great many leading citizens, enjoyed the games. The prizes given were exceptionally fine. The fruit baskets donated by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Licata aroused quite a lot of comment on the artistic way they were put up. Flour contained in the prizes was donated by the local agent of the Maple Leaf Milling Co., Mr. Hedley Shaw. Messrs. Erwin and Goldham made a fine donation of hams as prizes. A much appreciated donation of fresh eggs was made by the owner of Glen Drozach farm, Mr. D. G. H. Wright, an esteemed member of the local Legion branch.

A pleasant half hour was spent listening to addresses by Mr. LeRoy Dale, K.C., president of the Georgetown Branch of the Red Cross, in which he voiced the appreciation of the Society for the fine effort being made by the Legion towards contributing to the funds of the Red Cross, and S.Q.M.S. Harold Stallford, Mr. Stallford, who addressed the Canadian Legion some weeks ago, was introduced by Mr. Dale. In his opening remarks, he said that in all the towns he had had the pleasure of visiting, that he had never seen a finer community spirit than that evinced in Georgetown. The work of the Red Cross overseas, stated the speaker, is a work that can be highly commended to anyone. This work is of a nature that calls upon the greatest patience and intelligence which those grand women who wear the emblem of the Red Cross, can muster. He also said a few words for the sister organization whom he called the "silent service"—the St. John Ambulance Corps, who do mighty fine work as helping the civilian air raid casualties. He continued—we are all asked for our numerous charities—to give until sometimes we grumble and grouch about being asked to give so much, but let us remember men and women of Canada who are in the services today, have offered the greatest that is in their power to give. Therefore, let us—in our way, back them up and show our faith in Canada. Mr. Stallford thanked the audience for having the privilege of speak-

Jonathan Lane Dies at Dolly Varden

Born at Limerhouse seventy-three years ago, Jonathan Lane, died at Dolly Varden, March 2nd. He had been in failing health for the past year, and his passing was caused by a heart condition. He was the son of the late James Lane and Hannah Heaven.

Mr. Lane was employed at the lime kiln at Dolly Varden for about 25 years, until the plant closed. For a good many of those years he held the position of foreman. His first marriage was to Margaret Scott, who predeceased him twenty-three years ago. The union was blessed with four children, three of whom remain to mourn their father's loss: Mrs. Clayton Longstreet, Erin Township, Nelson, of Toronto, and Rev. William J. of Limerhouse, Sask. Another son, John, died in 1918.

Mrs. Lane, the former Annie Coole Davies, is left to mourn the loss of her husband. Rev. C. C. Cochrane conducted the funeral service from Johnstone & Rumlly Funeral Home in Acton, on March 5th. Interment was in Limerhouse Cemetery. Bearers were: Joseph Scott, John Scott, E. Davies, A. Hill, David Joe, Fred Brooks.

ATTENDED WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. A. Collins and son Bruce spent last week end in Toronto, when they attended the 6th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Collins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jewell. The anniversary reception was held Friday evening at the home of another daughter, Mrs. William Austin, Weston Road.

FARMERS
Order and take delivery of your fertilizers EARLY!

Why you should order G-I-L FERTILIZERS Now

The shortage of essential ingredients and a greatly increased demand which will compel our plants to work at full capacity for a longer period of time, make it necessary that all farmers should take delivery of fertilizers as early as possible. Probable delays in delivery, due to wartime transportation conditions, mean that orders should be placed at once. Mail your order direct or to your local dealer.
