ASHGROVE

On Friday evening, May 15th, a pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Riddell, when friends and neighbours to the number of one hundred and twenty-five met to honour a recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, (nee Marion Dick). After community singing led by Hartley Anderson, Rev. J. O. Totton was chairman for a short program given by the following: vocal solo, Viola Bridgen, reading, Mrs. Hildesley, violin solo, Hartley Anderson, vocal solo, Joy Riddell, after which the bride and groom were presented in a cleverly designed house. The president of the Women's Institute, Mrs. H. Hepburn, with a few well-chosen words, presented the couple with two beautiful pictures. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter each replied in their usual pleasing manner. The evening closed with a dainty lunch served by the ladies. We all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hunter every happiness.

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick opened their home for a dance on Friday evening in honour of Alex Wright who leaves to join the R.C.A.F. on Wednesday. All report a good time.

The W. I. intend holding a box social very soon. One has not been held in the neighbourhood for quite a number of years and we hope it will prove successful in raising funds for war work.

HORNBY

The May meeting of Hornby Women's Institute was held last Wednesday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. Delbert Downs, Sixth Line of Grandview. The main item on the program was a talk given by Mrs. P. W. Merry on the subject: "Canadians All". This proved very inspiring and helpful. During the business period, Mrs. Merry, who holds the office of District W. I. President this year, was given a life membership in the local W.I. Plans were then made for the entertainment of the District Annual Convention to be held in Hornby Orange hall on June 11th.

A demonstration of suitable war time supper dishes was given by Mrs. Chisholm and Mrs. Russell King. A dainty lunch was then enjoyed by all, and the meeting closed with singing "O Canada".

Mrs. (Pte) Douglas Sherman, with her young son, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Neelands from hospital last Wednesday.

Pte. Gordon Bridgen returned home on leave from camp in Saskatchewan last week. We are pleased to see him looking so well after his recent illness.

Mr. Thomas Douglas has given the contract for the erection of a new dwelling house on his farm to replace the fine house destroyed by fire last Autumn, to the Georgetown Lumber Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison Woodley of Zimmerman visited at the home of Mrs. Woodley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman on Sunday last—and attended the evening service in the United Church. It was the third anniversary of their wedding day, and also Mrs. Woodley's birthday.

Two carloads were unloaded at Hornby C.P.R. Station last week by Mr. Nels Robinson who had brought them down from Manitoulin Island. From present appearances there will be plenty of pasture for them this year, and good prices will be realized for them in the Autumn.

The skies are still weeping copiously and farmers hereabouts are waiting patiently or otherwise for favorable seeding conditions which must soon come or a short crop will result.

BALLINAFAD

The May meeting of the Mission Circle was held Friday Evening at the home of Annie Snow. The topic from the study was very interesting. In the absence of Mrs. Foreman, the superintendent, who is ill, Mrs. F. W. Shortill took charge.

Miss Cora Williams of Weston spent Sunday with Lydia Snow.

The Easter thank offering of W. M. S. was held in the church Sunday evening. The Mission Band and Circle assisted in the program. The guest speaker, Mrs. Selve of Toronto gave an inspiring address on changes of living conditions in China and India today caused by the ravages of war.

Fred Huggins is improving considerably since coming home from hospital.
