LEST WE FORGET!

Do You "Eat to Work to Win"?

In making choice of your beverage, do you remember that "Students and teachers of the medical and associated sciences are agreed that alcohol used as a beverage, impairs reason, will, self-control, judgment, physical skill and endurance?"

See "Alcohol, Its Effects on Man" by Haven Emerson, M. D., Prof. of Public Health Practice, Columbia University.

NOTE—We recommend this book available in our loan library to those wishing to know what modern medical science teaches in regard to beverage alcohol.

LOCAL NEWS

—The dates are set for Georgetown Fall Fair—September 10th and 11th.

—The United Church Ladies will hold a rummage sale, June 6th, in the McOubbon Block.

—With all the victory gardens this year, there should be plenty of exhibits at Georgetown Fair this fall.

—The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Dan Campbell on Wednesday June 2nd, at 3 o'clock. Members please bring needles and thimbles for work.

—Why not have your wedding invitations and announcements printed at the Herald? We specialize in this work and give speedy service.

—The Boy Scouts were hard at work on the 24th when we passed the lot behind the post office now owned by the Lions Club. They were uprooting shrubs and generally cleaning up the place. They hope to erect a shed and get the salvage work under way again.

—Members of Post 120 Canadian Legion are requested to attend the regular monthly meeting in the Legion Hall on Thursday, May 27th. Several important matters are to be dealt with and it is the duty of every member to be present at this important meeting.

—Rev. Charles C. Cochrane held the funeral service for the late Harry P. Lawson, Jr., Friday, May 14. The following were pallbearers: Clarence Benham, Stan Norton, Clibert McDowell, Walter Lawson, Huck Watkins, Doug Watkins.

—Scouting in Georgetown is catching on fast, and with so many boys eager to join up it has been necessary to divide the boys into two troops. Chas. Davis, who successfully organized the boys for the Lions Club, and Albert Post are now leading the two troops. Jack Armstrong will help out with the Cubs also.

—The anniversary services of Union Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, May 31st at 11 am and 7:30 pm. (D.B.T.) Rev. Leonard Bell, B. A., newly inducted minister of Norval and Union will be the minister at both services. Mr. James Hucker, noted baritone and soloist of Rhydymede United Church will be the guest soloist at both services.

The Cayley Enterprise commented last week that Mr. Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Maxwell of Bennington, N. Y., has graduated as a veterinarian and had located in Georgetown which had been without a vet for some time. He has a high school and a four-year college education, and is specialized in diseases of swine and dairy cattle being familiar with the latter as his father keeps quite a large dairy herd. Mrs. Bentinck, friends of the family will wish him success in his career.

$15.00 DONATED TO SALVATION ARMY BY KNITTING CLUB

A tea copy, made by Mrs. Thomas Elson in aid of the Salvation Army War Victims Fund, was won by Mr. H. Savage of Brampton. The lucky number, 157, was drawn by Barbara Stewart at the afternoon meeting of the Women's Knitting Club, composed of the following ladies: Mrs. T. Sykes, Mrs. J. Bailey, Mrs. W. Merritt, Mrs. Vance Kentner, Mrs. Mark Clark, Mrs. Hurley, Mrs. R. Erwin, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. T. Elson. The amount raised from sale of tickets was $15.00.

These ladies who meet at their various homes each week contribute 15c per meeting, and since January have sent seven or eight boxes overseas.
