A TRIBUTE TO THE MINISTER OF MY HOME TOWN CHURCH

Dear Ministrant, I come to you And flex a willing knee, Partaking of the table set . That my heart might be free; From self and shame in His great Name.

Deliverance to men render, I am needful of this gift ompassionately tender.

Dear Ministrant I come to you To ease my aching soul: Humbly I drink His precious blood That my life-stream be whole; My flesh is weak, and so I seek To strengthen it forever Of His blest Body we both cat

And we are fed together. -Gladys Brott School Response

Dear Suppliant: Be still sad heart The miles and times divide us. On bended knee, we humbly pray Some needful gift provide us.

We join around a Common Board Since He, our Master, bids us-His death displays a Fount of Grace From sin His mercy hide us.

Yet ministrant, I fain would be To grant some weel-sought favor, In His dear Name, receive the same: 'Thy faith shall neer waver."

What shall we do? Where shall we turn? Is there no help for us? Such ere the natural and understandable cries of those who bear the heavy braribreak of persecution God's Word has the enswer, for from the very beginning the followers of Christ have had to meet that prob

Lord (3:13-17).

By doing good the Christian will escape much suffering (v. 13), but | the Chancel Guid and was a member if even then it comes, he is not to be afraid (v. 14). He is to sunctify Christ in his heart, that is, fully recognize the holiness of Christ and all that He is and can do for him. This is to be done in his heart. That means the exercise of full faith in Christ the Lord as the inducting

Presence. Who then can be afraid Note that this is not just a subjective epiritual exercise for his own enjoyment-it will show in his "good comfort manner of life in Christ" which will put his persecutors "to shame" (v. 18). How effectively that has worked only recently in Germany, Norway and elsewhere.

II. Do Not Be Barprised—the Enemy Will Attack (4:12, 15).

member Pearl Harbor! Satan is an expert in strategy, and is eager to keep Christians in an easy and comfortable mood, so that he may strike a victous blow when it is not expected. We best prepare to meet him when we recognize that persecution and suffering will come.

We are to bear in mind that it is not some "strange thing" which has happened; we who suffer an Chris tions are "partakers of Christ's suf ferings." Joy and glory are ahead

IV. Do Not Worry-He Careth for You (5:6, 7).

Worry! Worry! How it does crowd itself into our thinking. Yes, we know we are Christians, that we are unjustly accused or persecuted, that we are suffering for Christ's sake That's all true, but how is it all com ing out? What about my family? Will they harm my children? If I do survive will I be able to start life anew? And so on-questions with out end; and soon comes the corrod ing touch of worry.

What shall we do? The answer is plain. Cast all your care on Christ -"He careth for you" (v. 7). That takes an act of faith just as it does to become a Christian in the first place, but it works. The cure for all anxiety is right there-but it can only be reached by the path of humility. "Humble yourselves" (v. 6). There is the gateway to comfort, and to true exaltation in God's own good time (cf. Jas. 6:4-10).

V. Do Not Waver-God to Your Strength (5:8-10). Steady, perfected, established in Christ, sure of his eternal destiny and with the eyes of faith seeing the glory to come-such is the man who is ready and able to meet the devil when, like a roaring lion, he seeks to disturb and devour God's people. The believer should be ready and equipped.

That does not mean that the Christian sits with his hands folded waiting in a fatalistic way for the inevitable to happen. Never! He is "on the alert" with his spiritual cars attuned to hear the approach of the enemy's "bombers." He is "sober and watchful" against the "roaring
