3 Halton County School Children Sit-in at County Council Meeting

terised America being for Destina-Grants to Fair Sauch

Forty-fire school sections in Halton lounty were represented by forty-fire pris and boys at the regular meeting Helton County Council haid in Mil-60 Let Friday. The children sere the tuests of the County Council and many effort was put forward by the lounty personnel to make the day one d interest and enjoyment to the child-

The meeting opened to the Lord's for in unition followed by the readof the minutes of the last meeting the Warden then extremed the visit. we "We feel," said the Warden, "that four the youth of today who are now prowing up, will eventually be called spon in some instances to take the places we now occupy at the Council table and so you have been initied here today in order that you may obtain first hand knowledge of County Coun- $4771 58 cal procedure. We hope you will all make notes to take home with you so that you, in turn, may give informstion to your fellow pupils who are unable to be here with you today."

The Warden and members of the council were then introduced to the children by the County Clerk, after which, Mr. Roy Bruth, County Engineer, introduced the children to the council, each pupil responding to the roll call by giving the name of the echool or school section which he or are represented

As council proceeded with the regular business, the Warden took time to explain the purpose of its various committees to the children Unforcunately all members of the Council were not present, the remes of Georgetown. Namagaweya and the Deputy-reese of Oakville being abcent

Lunch was arranged for council members at 12 o'clock and for the children at I o'clock, at the Milton Inn While council was adjourned County officials addressed the young people explaining the nature and purpose of their work. Those speaking were, Mr J. E. Whitelook, County Agricultural Representative: Mr. W. I Dick. Crown Attorney: Miss M. Maxted. County Treasurer; Mr. Roy Smith. Road Superintenden, and Mr W J L Hampshire. Registrar of Surrogate Court.

Council resumed at 2 pm Reports of the Standing committees were conedered in Committee of the whole with Reeve May in the Chair. Only two communications were received. both were filed. One was from the Navy League but since a generous grant had already been given this organization earlier in the year council was agreed that no more assistance could ge given at present. The other communication was from Wentworth County asking endorsation of an appeal to the Pederal Government to rescind a recent order requiring farmers to obtain a permit before selling meat on an open market. This was considered as a hardship to farmers by Wentworth County but Halton Council was of the opinion that the permit system was inaugurated to prevent operations on a black market and was in the interest of all concerned
