UNITED CHURCH Y.P.U. WILL PRESENT PLAY

With some of the stars of "Aron Slick from Punkin Crick" in the cast, The United Church Y. P. U. Players will present by special arrangement with Samuel French "Spider Island", a mystery melodrama, in the Gregory Theatre, the latter part of June.

While empire totter and civilization quakes, the mystery thriller goes marching on to new heights of success. The rental libraries, chief dispensers of sanguinous fiction say they are having their biggest year. The public libraries report: "We could do with twice as many copies of current thrillers as we can afford to buy."

Why this increased preoccupation with imaginary crime when the earth is so full of the real thing? A prominent psychologist offers a hopeful clue: "People want to escape from reality of which we are having considerable just now."

The Y. P. U. take their cue from this, and present "Spider Island", with the feeling that it will be a very unusual production and different from any ever presented in town.
