

80th Coy. Veteran Guard in Town Over Next Week End

For the first time for many years a military camp will be established in Georgetown when the 80th Company, Veterans Guard of Canada, pays a return visit on September 4th, 5th and 6th.

The 80th. It will be remembered, visited Georgetown last year and bivouaced in the park co-operating the first day with the Georgetown Company of the Lorne Scots in a defensive scheme.

This year the Guard will go under canvas, a complete military camp being set up opposite the grand stand and will also remain in Georgetown for an extra day.

In place of arriving in the town by train, the unit will travel by mechanical transport and the town will be treated to the sight of a fully mechanized force moving along its streets.

Present plans call for the arrival of the 80th in Georgetown at 6 p.m. on Saturday, September 4th. Its camp will be pitched immediately in the park and the evening meal served later in the evening the unit will march down the main streets where its salute will be taken by Colonel Gordon Cousens, M.C., the Mayor and members of the Council, and the President and officers of the Legion branch following this a street dance will be staged.

On Sunday the 80th will take part in a tactical scheme in the vicinity of Sturwinton. Returning to town in the late afternoon the Company will then throw its lines open for inspection by the general public. One of the platoons will give a demonstration of precision drill, while another will illustrate physical training and first aid work. An exhibit of modern weapons with which the unit is armed will be given by another group and the weapons will be explained to interested members of the public.

A bonfire in the park is planned for late Sunday evening, and a sing-song of old-time hymns and songs, in which the public is asked to join. This will be started at dusk.

On Monday the Company will move outside the town by its mechanized transport and will make a cross-country advance, culminating in the seizure and defence of strategic points within the town itself.

The return to Toronto will take place in the evening.

Fresh vegetable salads are an almost daily event for troops stationed at Meswa Armouries in Calgary. The source of supply is a large, well-kept plot in the hutment area, the chief gardener being Corporal J. Thompson. The fourth seeding of radishes are now coming along well. Lettuce, of both the leaf and head varieties, is growing in abundance. Pea vines are over five feet tall and the men have had several "side-orders" in the mees of new peas. It's Corp Thompson, too, who cares for numerous flower plots in the barrack area, one of the most colorful of its kind in Canada.

Local Druggists Stage War Stamp Drive

During the month of September, the local Drug Stores are staging a War Stamp Drive to further the sale of War Saving Stamps and encourage their customers to take their change in stamps. Throughout Canada the Drug Stores are endeavoring to sell $200,000 worth of stamps during September, the proceeds to be used to purchase medical supplies for the Armed Forces.

On every Drug Store counter is displayed a card showing how to obtain 16 war stamps. You purchase one stamp at 25c and it is pasted on the card which is drawn from when filled and the lucky winner receives $500 worth of stamps.

Although the drive is for September, some of the drugists have already sold sufficient stamps to enable them to make a draw. Chapman's Drug Store led the parade by having two full cards of 16 war stamps drawn for at the Legion Bingo on Saturday night and these were won by Mrs. Floyd Verry and Barbara May Allen, both of Georgetown. Mr. Chapman has another lot of three full cards that will be drawn for at the Legion Bingo this evening.

The following wire was received on Tuesday regarding the sale of these War Stamps:

Chapman, Ont.
I am in receipt of the following message from the Hon. Mr. J. E. Haley: "I shall follow with interest the progress of the Retail Druggists' Stamp Campaign. Please convey to your members my personal appreciation of their undertaking this task and every good wish for success."

Let's raise our sights and double the quota.
Signed, C. H. LANDELL,
Chairman Druggists War Saving Stamp Campaign.

Chapman's Drug Store has these stamps on display and informed the writer that starting today he expects to fill in a few cards of 16 stamps.

MacCormack's Drug Store has already disposed of one full card of stamps and the lucky winner of this card worth $500 was Mrs. Alf Collins. The Herald will gladly publish weekly the names of the winners from time to time if the Druggists will supply us with the names of the winners.
