Active Service Notes

Genr. Herb. Arnold, who has been ill with pneumonia, in Chorley Park Military Hospital, Toronto, is now convalescing in ORAC, Oakville.

George Walker, now taking his training course at No. 4 Wireless School in Guelph, has been promoted to L.A.C. George enlisted in the R.C.A.P. in December, and received his call last May. He trained at Manning Pool, Toronto, and Kingston, before being transferred to Guelph. He spent last week end at home.

LAC M. V. Kirby has been transferred from Niagara-on-the-Lake to the camp at Sussex, N.B.

Sigmund Cecil Davidson and George Sargent of Kingston are home on a few days leave.

Ernie Alcott, employed in Toronto for the past few months, has joined the Airforce as an armourer. He is at Manning Pool, Toronto.

F.R.A. Norman Hirtvert of the Royal Canadian Navy is home on leave. Norm has been promoted to the rank of Chief Petty Officer. Chief P. O. Herbert enlisted in the R.C.N. in March 1941, and received his training at Toronto and Halifax. He was employed at Provincial Paper Ltd at time of enlistment.

Chief Petty Officer John Emmerson of Halifax, N.B., is home on a week's leave. When he returns to Halifax, Mrs. Emmerson and their daughter Beverly Ann, will accompany him and make their home there.

Spending three weeks' leave in London, England, P-O Douglas Sargent, stationed in Iceland, had the good fortune to meet several boys from Georgetown, as well as his brother Lt. Cpl. Jim Sargent of the Lorne Scots Overseas. One day he chanced to meet Sgt. William King, looking tanned and wonderfully fit after being stationed for several weeks in Egypt. Another time he was waiting in Trafalgar Square for his brother when someone came up behind him and put his hand on his shoulder. Turning in surprise he found P. O. Leslie Clark had recognized him from across the street. They had a great chat, needless to say P. O. Sargent has now returned to his base in Iceland.

Bernard Costan of Brampton, well-known to people in Georgetown, has enlisted in the R. C. A. F. as an air-gunner. For the past month he has been stationed at Manning Pool, Toronto.

Alastair Kean, who has been living in Toronto for the past two years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kean, has enlisted in the R.C.A.P. and will report for duty the latter part of this week.

Mr. Alf Collins has received his call from the Merchant Marines, and left on Monday for Montreal.

A cable has been received by Mrs. Cowtan, stating that her husband, Pilot Officer Leon Cowtan, has arrived safely overseas. Prior to going over he was stationed at Montreal. He had already been overseas from December 1 to July 16, and had returned for special training. He is now with the Ferry Command of the R.C.A.P.

A-B James, Yates is home on a 28 day furlough. Jim has been on convoy duty on the eastern coast of Canada, a member of the corvette Baddeck. Last winter he contracted pneumonia from taking part in rescue work following the torpedoing of a Russian ship, which involved 54 hours on steady duty. Jim, a former employee of Alliance Paper Mills Ltd, enlisted in the Navy in April 1942.

Cpl. Joe Emmerson, overseas with the Lorne Scots since 1941, is in line for congratulations on his recent promotion to the rank of sergeant. He worked at Saxe Motors before enlisting.

Cpl. Jack Young of Stratford and Georgetown, stationed for the past year or so at Niagara Falls, has arrived safely overseas, according to word received by his wife last week.

Mrs. Isobel Cleave received a cable last week from her son, Pte. Walter Cleave, saying he had arrived safely overseas. Pte. Cleave received training at Toronto, Guelph and Camp Borden before proceeding overseas. He has been in the army over a year.

Cpl. Jack Fox cabled his wife last week telling of his safe arrival overseas. Cpl. Fox has been in the army two years.
