Miss Agnes McPhail, C.C.P. member in the Ontario Legislature for East York will address a public meeting in the Gregory Theatre, Georgetown on Thursday, October 7th, at 8 p.m. Her address will be of special interest to the people of the County of Halton.

Indian Summer last week fooled some apple trees in "Hungry Hollow." While driving in that vicinity, Mr. and Mrs. George Herrington noted several trees in bloom. A few sprigs from the blossoming trees were on display in the Herald Office window last Wednesday.

The string of onions exhibited at Orangeville, Georgetown, Acton and Milton Falls, as well as one evening in Streetsville on which so many people made a 10c guess of the weight, was weighed in Milton by Mr. Stanley Hall M.P.P. The weight was 54 lbs. 1 oz. Congratulations Mr. Rutledge of Streetsville who a guess of 54 lbs. 1 oz. Congratulations Mr. Rutledge, you know your onions.

LIMEHOUSE

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gowdy, who have lately moved to their new home in Acton, gathered at the home of Miss Ions on Friday evening to bid them farewell. Mr. Gowdy was one of Limehouse's older residents and had spent thirty-seven years here. After progressive euchre and crokinole, lunch was served and the gathering called together in the living room. Mr. T. H. Price, the chairman called Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy forward and Arthur W. Benton read the address:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy: We, your friends, have met here tonight to express our most sincere good wishes for the best that life has to give in your new home.

Limehouse will seem strange without you, Mr. Gowdy, and we hope that you will often come back and feel free to come to any of our homes at all times as of old.

We can never forget the assistance given by you in our Church and community life. You were an elder in the Church, Sunday School Superintendent, and a valued member of the choir. No entertainment anywhere around was complete without a solo from Mr. Gowdy. Nothing of good repute was ever undertaken in the district without your able support. For years we enjoyed the freedom of the Community Hall, and many a happy gathering took place there.

Then, in sickness or death of any of your neighbors, you were always on hand to assist with your car or in any way that you could. In fact, for so long the "Gowdy Car" was the only one and many a person was given the treat of his life in a ride in that car.

We also do not forget the many joyous times spent in your home where hospitality was at its height.

We hope that you, Mrs. Gowdy will find life one of prosperity and content in your new home and that you will have scope for your great talent—your music.

Signed on behalf of Friends of Limehouse and community, Rev. C. C. Cochran; Jno. N. Newton; T. H. Price; A. W. Benton; Mrs. Chas. Gale.

Mr. Jno. Newton and Mr. Gordon Price then presented Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy with a lovely Reflector Floor Lamp and Chesterfield cushion and a gold mounted ebony cane for Mr. Gowdy.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy thanked their friends for their gifts and good wishes and invited all to visit them in their new home. Rev. C. C. Cochran and Mr. Jno. Newton were called on to say a few words on behalf of the Limehouse Church Congregation and the community respectively. All joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne", bringing a pleasant evening to a close.

Winners at cards were Mrs. E. Miller and Mr. Archie McDonald and congratulations went to Miss Given and Mr. E. Oisly, Mr. W. I. Newton and Jim Gordon won prizes in Crokinole. Ladies of the W. I. packed a carton of forty garments for the Salvation Army at Mrs. Kirpatrick's on Wednesday.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Currie and family to the village, having recently come from Acton.

LAC Edgar Boeray was home from the wireless school at Ouelph.

ASHGROVE

On Saturday evening the V. P. U. met at the home of Betty and Joy Russell for the first meeting since the summer vacation. A short worship service and business session opened the evening. A book was presented to Mrs. Jim Murray from the V. P. U. by John Bird. The evening was enjoyably spent playing games, concluding with refreshments of tomato soup and melons.

I'VE GOT INSURANCE (NO WHAT?)

"Don't bother me," said Johnny Smart, "With Fire Prevention stuff; To me it's just a lot of tripe. It's just a lot of guff."

"I pay insurance money out, so if I have a blaze I'll get good dough for what I lose. Prevention's just a craze."

"To heck with all your do's and don't's And your Fire Prevention bunk I'll put hot ashes where I like, I'll store a lot of junk."

"I'll leave my draughts on if I want in winter or in fall, Electric wiring that's frayed and worn Won't bother me at all."

"Now when you're cleaning hardwood floors Don't ever use gasoline!"

Now how the heck do they expect I'm going to get them clean.

"I'll do just what I like," said Smart, "I'm covered so why worry; In putting in the fire call I would not even hurry."

So Johnny did just what he liked ignoring all he'd read Until the night a blaze broke out When he had gone to bed.

Now Johnny being Mr. Smart Out out himself O K But to carb himself in daytime clothes, He would not even stay.

Ye, Johnny got his dough all right For furnishings anew, BUT he got some dough he did not want, (HIS FAMILY'S LIFE INSURANCE TOO!)
