GLEANED FROM THE PAST
TWENTY YEARS AGO—A very enjoyable mother and son banquet was held in the Methodist Church when the boys of the Argonaut Club sat down with their mothers to a splendid supper. The toast to "The King" was proposed by Arthur Tyndall, to the "Mothers" by Charlie Frampton, to the "Boys" by Mrs. W. Tyndall, and the "Visitors" by S. P. Howard. Mr. Lloyd Houlding of Toronto gave a very fine talk on C. B. E. T. work. Evening Agricultural Society's 7th Fall Fair was a record breaker. Miss Norma Hunter and Miss Mary Lyons of Terra Cotta are attending Normal School in Toronto. Work on the Provincial Highway is progressing, and the Norval bridges should soon be completed.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—Mr. E. R. Magloughlen is renovating his store on Main St. recently purchased from the J. H. Jackson Estate. He will move his barber shop and billiard room to the new premises shortly.—John B. Devereaux carried off the honors in the potato race at Erin Fair. Over 6000 attended the fair.—Changes were made at the local Bell Telephone office amounting to $15,000.—Mr. Ed. Logan had the misfortune to slip and fall from the roof at the Georgetown Flour and Feed Mill, a distance of 35 feet.

FIVE YEARS AGO—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cordingley, of Wharton, spent the week end in town.—Mrs. Thos. Orive received a cable telling of the death of her mother in Wembley, London, Eng.—Miss Edna Neil was installed Noble Grand of Verdun Rebekah Lodge Tuesday evening last.—Hazel's Bakery have opened a new and up-to-date shop at the corner of Main and Mill Streets.—Mrs. Annie Adams will hold a clearing auction sale on Saturday prior to leaving for her new home in Buffalo, N. Y.—Miss Isabel McDermid was elected president of the United Church Y. P. B. on Monday evening.

FIVE YEARS AGO—J. M. Denys, teacher for 40 years and public school inspector for 20, has said good-bye to the inspectorate of Halton County. He was tendered a banquet on his retirement.—The Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, Oct. 4, when Winifred Daisy Whitmee, 18, became the bride of William Scott Stewart, of Whitby.

JUST LAST YEAR—After an illness of about two years duration, death came on Friday to T. Elizabeth Layfield, beloved wife of George E. Cash.—Sgt. Leale Clark has arrived safely in England by plane.—Mrs. J. H. Lillico was installed as Noble Grand of Verdun Rebekah Lodge.
