BILL STEMBON WRITES HOME FROM SICILY

nearly as big as plums and are nice and sweet. I haven't drawn any money since before I went to Africa which is about six weeks ago and I still have a pound, two and six left yet. I suppose the old town is just the same as ever, eh? Pretty quiet, not like it is here just now. The engineers are blowing up some of Jerry's dud bombs over on the hill and they are making quite a racket. By the way they feel I think he meant them for a big stone bridge but they landed a long ways too short and only one went off.
 How is Dad doing, is he still up north or has he been moved again? I guess he will be getting pretty sick of that job now, as it is awful tiresome. We sure have a lot of Italian prisoners in this country now and they are all over the place. They don't need any guards as they know when they are well off and you couldn't get rid of them if you tried

Well this is getting to be quite a length now so I guess I had better close as it is nearly supper time again which will likely be bully beef again. When I get home I don't want to see slow any more. When we were in Africa we had slow for 22 meals straight so you know why I'm sick of it.
 Don't forget to write soon and give my regards to all. Be seeing you soon.
 Sincerely, Bill.

POTENT PLOTS ABOUT CANADA

 their hearts are really in their war work. If we were only half as conscientious our Joannies would soon come marching home—victorious.
 There are about 145 slaughtering and meat packing plants in Canada, and in the second year of the war the industry had a production value of over $298,000,000. There are more hogs slaughtered than beef, the number in that year being 8,700,000 compared with 1,053,9000 beef, and $36,000 sheep and lambs.

BRAMPTON

Hon. J. L. Halsey, Minister of Finance, met with the local Victory Loan canvassers and officials. Brampton's objective is $48,000 of a $2,175,000 total for Peel County.
 Bob Charters, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Charters, has received his commission as a Pilot Officer with the R.C.A.P. Overseas.
 Brampton Council received a petition from a number of ratepayers asking for a smoke nuisance by-law to alleviate a serious condition in the north end of town. Action was deferred to enable interested manufacturers to remedy the condition.
 Brampton Mimico combines have headed west to defend their Canadian Lacrosse Championship against the B. O. winners.
 Joan Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thornton, of Mayfield, and Pte. William Murray Cation, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cation, were married on October 2nd. The couple were attended by Miss Marion Armstrong and Mr. Clure Cation.
