Booze or Bombs?

SHALL WE BUY BOMBS WITH VICTORY BONDS? OR SHALL WE LET JOHN BARLEYCORN DO HIS BEST TO DEFEAT US?

Perhaps a consideration of the following three statements by scientific and financial experts, may help us to decide.

I
"There is agreement among students and teachers of the Medical and associated sciences that: Excessive Alcohol Impairs Reason, Will, SELF CONTROL, Judgment, Physical Skill, and Endurance." (From "Alcohol—Its Effects on Man" Haven Emerson M. D., Prof. of Public Health Practice, Columbia University)

II
"Alcohol is the lubricant of the facilitation process. It enables the wheels of facilitation with smoothness and despatch relentlessly to hasten healthy citizens to ill-health and misfortune." (Col. Donald H. Williams—Director of Federal Venereal Disease Control Division) Quoted in Globe and Mail article (June 29th, 1943) "Social Ills Facilitated by Alcohol" by Ken W. McTaggart.

III
"Let it be urged as a simple economic truth that no amount of subsequent revenue which is derived from the liquor traffic will ever compensate for the original MISEDIRECTION of the outlay."

I can speak for every earnest student on this question when I say we would willingly abandon every copper of the revenue in the SURE KNOWLEDGE that the saving to the State on the transaction, would be immediate and substantial. Be it remembered that this outlay involves considerable expense on police, in the provision of poor-houses and asylums, and innumerable other directions in the social service. There is therefore NOT THE SLIGHTEST VALIDITY in the argument that the revenue derived, is for one moment important. We could abandon EVERY COPPER of it to-night, and, regarded as a plain business proposition, earn a substantial social and financial profit."

Mr. William Graham, Financial Secretary to the Treasury and Secretary of Board of Trade of Great Britain. (Quoted in "Economists and Liquor Taxation" by late Viscount Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer of Britain's Labor Government.)

Come in today, and let us send off our special Christmas greeting card telling him that you're sending him "The Herald" for Christmas.

—Stationed at Milton as Provincial Policeman for Halton County, Cpl. Allan J. Oliver was well-known and liked throughout the district, and it was with regret that we learned of his untimely demise on Monday afternoon, October 18th. He died in Oshawa hospital after undergoing an operation. The funeral was held this afternoon from his Oshawa home, with interment in Shelburne cemetery. Chief W. G. Marshall from town is attending the funeral.

—The Acton Free Press commented last week "Georgetown Council has appointed a special committee to deal with 'the rat nuisance'. Seems as if the duties of administration would never end. No wonder it gets more difficult to get citizens to run for municipal office. They may be selected for the special rat committee". Maybe there are no rats in Acton—but we'll guarantee that if and when they become as plentiful as they are in Georgetown, members of their Public Welfare Committee will take the initiative as they did here, and get rid of the pests. Members of Council in Georgetown raised no objection, may were eager, to exterminate the "nuisance". It was an easy matter to get volunteers for the committee.

HORNBY

Mr. George Learmont returned home from hospital in Milton last Friday evening, where he had undergone appendix and tonsil operations. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

was unloading hay in his barn when he fell out of the snow and landed on his head on the barn floor. He received injuries to his head and chest and was rendered unconscious. He is now under the doctor's care in Milton hospital, and seems to be making quite satisfactory progress toward recovery. All neighbors and friends hope to see him around again in a short time.

—And now we are called upon to contribute our savings to the Fifth Victory Loan. Let us all dig down deep and bring up every last dollar possible. It can scarcely be called service when so many are giving their lives. It is a good investment, and will help to "Speed the Victory".

—Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Honey of Cavan, Ont., and Mrs. John Reid of Stirling, Ont., were visitors at the parsonage on Tuesday last.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robertson received word from their son, Pte. Harold Robertson who is in England that he met with an accident which resulted in a broken leg. He is now in a Canadian hospital where we hope he will soon recover and be back on duty once more.

BALLINAFAD

—Anniversary Services will be held in Ballinafad United Church Sunday Morning and evening October 31. The guest speaker will be Rev. Doyle, Secretary of Young Peoples work.

—The Women's Association met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. W. Shortill. Considerable business was transacted. It was decided to leave the re-decorating of the church until some future date. Arrangements were made to have a concert put on in the hall in November, the program to be supplied by Hydro.

—On Wednesday evening the hall was filled to capacity. After a short program, consisting of duets by Ernie McEnery and Lloyd Swindlehurst, reading by Mrs. Jessie McEnery, and a duet by Mrs. Norman Sinclair and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair. Mrs. A. Van der front was asked to take a chair at the front and Mrs. Bob McEnery read the following address:

Dear Mrs. Vannatter:
Your friends in Ballinafad United Church with whom you have been associated for so many years have met to express the great sense of loss which we sincerely feel and to convey the expression of the high esteem in which you have been held by all. For a considerable time you have filled a most important position in our church as organist, in which your splendid abilities and devotion were freely and gladly given to the enrichment of the services of worship.

We cannot tell you how much we shall miss you or how difficult it will be to find some one as true and faithful. We know it is through circumstances over which you have had no control that the fine relationship we have had will be severed as you remove to a new place of residence. We trust however that you will return as frequently as you may find it possible.

We join therefore in wishing for you every future happiness and trust that opportunities for Christian work and fellowship may open for you. Unto them that fear the Lord there ariseth light in the darkness, and our hope and prayers are that a kind and loving Providence may look over you, and that God in his infinite wisdom may give you guidance and sustain you in all the way that lies ahead.

In appreciation of all that you have done and contributed to our life and work we ask you to accept this as a slight token of our esteem and affection, very sincerely yours.

Signed on behalf of Knox United Church, Ballinafad, Ont., Mrs. Robt. McEnery, Mrs. Robt. Warren, Mrs. E. Perryman, Mrs. J. H. Allen, Mr. D. J. Sinclair.

She was then presented with a Madam Elegant Dresser set and two electric dresser lamps. Mrs. Vannatter, taken by surprise, replied in a few well chosen words, after which Miss Florence Sinclair was presented with a miscellaneous shower on the eve of her approaching marriage. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received and to which the coming bride and groom made suitable reply.

Miss Margery Wagstaffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Wagstaffe, Glen Williams has obtained a position in the Head Office of the T. Eaton Co., Toronto. Miss Wagstaffe is a graduate of Georgetown High School and Shaw's Business Schools.

A surprise birthday shower on the evening of October 7th, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Headhead, in honor of their niece, Miss Ruth McCready, previous to her marriage to Mr. Tom C. Bousfield. Cousins and relatives were present from Georgetown, Waterdown and Milton district. Many lovely and useful gifts were received. A bride's book was made during the evening. Delightful refreshments, including a special birthday cake, were enjoyed at the close of this happy gathering.

REGIONAL HOLSTEIN CHAMPIONSHIP AT OAKVILLE

—Prie-winners at local Black and White Days in the counties of York, Peel, Simcoe, Halton, Wentworth, Hamilton, Waterloo and Wellington competed for regional honours at the Championship Holstein Show held October 8 at Oakville. A great class of Aged Cows was headed by Glen Valley Ptefle Beauty, owned by Eaton Hall Farm, King, with Gladys Rae Apple Segts, shown by a next-door neighbour Douglas Wellesley, King. In second place These two great dairy cows were named Grand and Reserve Grand Champion, respectively. J. J. E. McCague, Alliston, showed five first prize winners including the Grand Champion Bull, Montvic Rag Apple Markman, whom he owns jointly with C. J. Cerrwell, Beeton. The Reserve Grand Champion Bull was Elm Colanthus Rag Apple Righto, exhibited by W. B. Hall, Oakville, while the Junior Championship went to Frank Pelletier, Milton, on his Bull Calf and the Reserve Junior Championship to the top Senior Yearling, owned by Dr. Chas. N. Blanshard, Freeman. The Junior Champion Female was Norvale Sylvia Pinderne, who headed the Senior Yearlings for W. P. Laidlaw & Sons, Norval, while J. D. Gale, Guelph, who took three firsts altogether, secured the Reserve Junior award on his winning Junior Yearling.

Considering the very keen competition, Halton breeders did exceptionally well. In addition to the Hall Pelletier and Blanshard champions mentioned above, E. Segaworth & Son, Freeman, showed the first prize Aged Bull and third prize Get-of-Sire, W. B. Hall, the second prize Junior Yearling Helfer, Elton McLean, Oakville, the third prize Bull Calf, and T. J. Brownridge & Son, Georgetown, the third prize Junior Yearling Helfer. In the County Herd Competition, the feature event of the day, Halton was third. In first place was Peel with York second.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Neil Morrison, recently appointed CBC Supervisor of Talks, is a graduate of the University of Manitoba. He joined CBC in 1940 after post-graduate work at McGill, and was made assistant to the Supervisor of the Farm Broadcast Department the following year. Having successfully developed the group listening technique which has been a notable feature of National Farm Radio Forum broadcast, Mr. Morrison now returns to head the department with which he was first associated on joining CBC.

BLOWING LEAVES

Now with the world to come made bright
With harvestings of sheer delight;
Dark misty plums and clustered flares
Of purple grapes and golden sheaves,
Once more the trees give up their leaves
Festive in bronze and crimson masks
Lightly to every wind that asks—
