ASHGROVE
Mrs. T. Broadbent was hostess to a very interesting and well attended meeting of the W.I. on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 19. Miss Charlotte McCullough of Georgetown was guest speaker and gave a very helpful talk and demonstration on "First Aid". The motto "Take care of your health, it will last you a lifetime" was dealt with by Mrs. N. Black. The roll call was answered by giving a "Don't for the sick room". Final plans were made for the evening to be held at Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barne's home on Wednesday, Oct. 27 with Mrs. Chas. Austin, Mrs. Clayton Wilson and Mrs. Lloyd Fish-er in charge. The lunch committee assisted the hostess in serving tea and sandwiches after the singing of "The King". Mrs. Near, Dist. Pres. will address the ladies of the W.I. at the November meeting at the home of Mrs. N. Black.

Mrs. W. McCullough of Acton visited with her daughter Mrs. Clayton Wilson during the past week.

On Saturday afternoon last, at the Manse, Milton, Rev. John Riddell officiating, Miss Mary Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Wilson, Esquimaux Township, became the bride of Mr. Ray Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Trafalgar Township. We wish to join their many friends in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes for many years of wedded bliss.

Our local sports were out in full force after the pheasants last Friday and Saturday. Some came home happy and carrying several fine birds, while others did not seem to have very good luck. All report the beautiful birds rather scarce and gun shy. Better luck next year boys!

Two infants were baptised in St. Stephen's Anglican Church last Sunday morning by the rector, Rev. S. R. Colebrook.

The parsonage roof has been treated to a new covering of asphalt shingles this past week.

MRS. NIXON COLE'S FATHER BURIED IN EVERTON
Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Nixon Cole in the death of her father, Oswald Justin, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. Hall, Guelph, on Saturday, October 23rd.

The late Mr. Justin was well-known to many townspeople, having spent several winters here with his daughter, Mrs. Cole. He was in his 81st year. A brief service was held at the McLanaghan and Ross Funeral Home in Guelph on Tuesday, October 26th, followed by service in the Church of Christ (Disciples), Everton, at 3 o'clock. A number of his friends from Georgetown attended the funeral.

Margaret Maude Justin mourns the loss of a beloved husband, and the following children survive: Albert E. Haskatchewan; Mrs. James A. Thompson, Erin; Mrs. Arthur T. Hall, Guelph; and Mrs. Nixon Cole, Georgetown. Interment was in Everton Cemetery.

When Spain's Civil War was over Portuguese Jacques de Bettencourt, who fought against the Franco regime, decided he wasn't through fighting Fascism. It took a while to get in the fight again, but after many adventures Jacques turned up in Montreal the other day and is now a trooper in the Canadian Armoured Corps all ready for a crack at Hitler.

A dented, battle-scarred bugle and a Royal Winnipeg Rifles hat badge have come back home to Canada, symbols of the heroic stand of the First Battalion, Winnipeg Grenadiers at Hong Kong in 1941. The two souvenirs were found in Honk Kong by D.O.E. Middleburg, former Netherlands Counsel General while he was interned in the Crown Colony prior to being repatriated.
