ASHGROVE

A large number of friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs Prank Wilson to honor Mr. Henry Wilson who for some months has retired from active work in the con:munity. During the early part of the evening a program was enjoyed including plano instrumental by Mrs. T. J. Brownridge, vocal solos from Mrs. Prancis Thompson, vocal dueta by Mrs. H. Wrigglesworth and Mrs. H. Bird and Mrs. John Bellboddy favored with readings. The fellowing adreas was read by Mr. M. McNabb and ed its minimum objective of $225,000. Mr. W. Ruddell made the presentation.

Dear Mr. Wilson: Your friends of the Ashgrove community, with whom you have been associated for many years, have usthered in this home to-night to express our deep regret at your departure and to formally recognize your removal from our midst. You have spent the greater part of your life here and have made many friends. You have always taken a keen interest in the events and activities connected with the progress of the neighborhood.

You will be missed because you have been a good neighbour, never failing the friend in need, ready to cheerfully as-ist on all occasions.

The hospitality of your home has been enjoyed throughout the years by everyone. Your home has always been open for the various entertainments of prior to her enlistment in the R.C.A.P. church or club organizations. shall not forget those enjoyable times
