

Comrade Robert Muir Guest of Honour at Legion Stag Party

himself and Mrs. Muir for the fine gifts presented and expressed his appreciation by contributing to the program with a vocal number. The gathering then sang "See him smiling". Before bringing to the attention of our readers the talent that can be obtained from Legion members, we cannot let the occasion go by without extending a sincere word of thanks to Comrade Harold Stafford and Comrade Jimmy Roberts for the wonderful success of the banquet. Great credit is due to Comrade Stafford for his untiring efforts in making this stag party the best ever put on in Georgetown. Special prizes were donated by Comrades H. P. Chapman and Nobby Clarke. The Chapman prize was won by Comrade Ed Heerman and the second prize by Com. Wally Thompson.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ENTERTAINMENT

After the banquet tables were cleared, Com. Wm. Carney took over as Master of Ceremonies and a grand job he made of it. All Comrades called on responded with some form of entertainment. The program was as follows: Com. "Dutch" McCartney, stories and song, very well done. Comrades Harry Hale and A Dewhurst in song and patter were the highlight of the evening and still be remembered for a long time by all present. (Hollywood Songs should have been on hand). Wonderful talent these two comrades. Com. Jack Gibbons complimented the boys on their success and related a story which was very amusing. Com. Sam Tennant was next on the program and he gave a very good vocal solo which all enjoyed. Comrade Johnny Oliver did a grand job playing bones and entertaining on the mouth organ. Com. Sam Glady of Limehouse was then called upon for imitations and song. A real surprise awaited the gathering and his imitation of a boy of 3 years old singing was received with great applause. Well done Sammy. Com. Clarence Benham told stories that were very amusing and well over big. Com. Dick Mitchell in his accordion renditions of popular numbers will long be remembered. No one ever knew that "Dick" had such talent as an accordion player. He was called back time and again for encores. (When is your birthday Dick? We might celebrate and have you play some more). At this point the raffle for a live rooster took place on which tickets had been sold with the understanding that the winner of the prize had to hold the rooster for the evening. If not, it was to be raffled again. The lucky winner was Comrade Wally Thompson. Comrade McCartney brought in the prize in a large carton and "Wally" immediately took off his coat, rolled up his sleeve and was determined to hold the rooster for the evening. Imagine his surprise when the box was opened, out flew a Bantam Rooster which flew all around the hall and could not be caught. "Wally's" dream of a chicken dinner is a thing of the past but he had the pleasure of holding the winning ticket.

Space does not permit us to mention all the highlights of the evening, but adding to those appearing above the following comrades did their bit of entertaining: Comrades Don Forster, Jack Bailey, Oval Raynor, Bob Muir, Joe. Boley, George Alcott, Nobby Clarke, Jimmy Roberts, Jerry McCullum, W. Thompson, Henry Shephard, Wm. Carney, Wm. Roney, Harold Stafford, Jimmy Emmerson, Jim Coalgan and many others. Jerry McCullum entertained in stories and played several Saxophone numbers and Geo. Alcott very ably assisted on the piano.

The "stag" will long be remembered as a grand affair by all members of the Canadian Legion.

LEGION NOTES

Comrades: Don't forget your presence is requested at the regular meeting on Thursday night. Several important matters are before the meeting and it is your duty to attend. Thanks for your letter Mrs. G. O. from New Toronto about the Legion Notes. The writer is also happy to quote your closing words in your letter: "Best of luck to the Georgetown Herald." We are always glad to hear from our out of town friends.

One question we would like answered: What are we to do with the remaining tickets not used last Friday night? Or to there such a thing!!!

The Herald in the local news last week reminded its readers that it was time to "put 'em on". The way Harry Hale appeared during the entertainment Friday night, he must have overlooked that one item in the paper.

Wanted to purchase—One or two drinking mugs with handles. Apply at once to Fred Gilmer, Legion Hall.

The Club Room was somewhat deserted last Saturday afternoon. No doubt most of the members were making up for the loss sleep of the previous night.

In the wee small hours of Saturday morning our good friend Harold Stafford removed from his hotel room his Saturday supply of "Coco-Cola" to help the boys digest some of the surplus chicken they had Friday night. Result: By the time it reached Harold's turn we quote the old saying of Mother Hubbard "the cupboard was bare" and Harold had none.

Comrade Jim Blair just dropped in the Legion Club Rooms Saturday afternoon for a few minutes. He played one game of euchre and asked to be excused as he was going home to put on the storm windows and doors. At 3:30 he was playing cribbage and at 5:30 pm. was still in the rooms. Windows and doors will be put up on Saturday, Nov. 27th.

We greatly enjoyed the little chat between Comrade Stafford and Tennant indulged in last Saturday. What friendship!

Comrade Allen's name was omitted in last week's news. He donated a chicken to be raffled for the cigarette fund which brought in $4.50. He has brought another chicken to be raffled last Saturday. At-a-boy, "Puppy".

Found—A good used tie. Apply Col Cousins. Since writing the above we are informed that the tie in question was the property of Comrade Wm. Roney. Something mysterious about the tie the way "Bill" stuffed it in his pocket when it was given to him by Col Cousins. What's the secret Bill?

During the banquet last Friday night a hearty vote of thanks was extended to the Georgetown Herald for the valuable space allotted to the Legion to report their activities.

Comrade Herb Harlow is changing his place of residence on December 1st and is moving in the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cleave. The friends and neighbours welcome Mr. and Mrs. Harlow and family to his new location on George Street.

Will some comrade write something on the blackboard in the Club room? After all the activities of the past few weeks the board looks bare. How about a weekly sing-song?

We are sorry to hear that Comrade Gillevet, formerly of Georgetown and now of New Toronto, has been confined to the General Hospital due to a serious operation on his leg. We understand that he is doing nicely at tion Bank of Canada. Financially we can help our nation while we remain home by buying Bonds, Certificates and S'tamps, and by helping to control inflation. We should recognize our democratic government by sending resolutions, and by exercising our franchise. With the help of all Canada's women we shall see Canada take her place as a world power when peace comes.

Speakers at the banquet served by the ladies of Norfolk St. United Church were: His Worship, Mayor R. B. Hobson, Dr. Christie, principal of O. A. C. and Dr. G. E. Reaman, Prof. of English at O.A.C. whose subject was "Human Engineering", which is made very interesting and educational, although dealing with the subject of psychology. Entertainment throughout the day included solos by Mrs. C. E. Dillstone and Mrs. C. H. Sherman and readings by Mrs. A. J. Manning and Mrs. Leahy Gray.

Mrs. C. H. Jones of Belleville, President, F. W. I. O. paid this area her first visit since taking over her present office and addressed us Friday morning. She stressed "First Things First" like said that food is an important weapon against the enemy and the farmer is doing manfully in spite of difficulties. She again followed the theme, "As the home, so is the Nation", in stating that parents first, then the school and lastly the state. To the proverbial four freedoms, she added, a fifth, which could be the freedom of women to decide for themselves matters concerning the happiness of themselves and their families.

She told us that, a survey of educational conditions, the President of Education of Newfoundland and Canada advocates changes and improvements particularly in rural education. Pupils must be taught to shoulder responsibility while still in school, so that they can do so for the community and nation afterwards. Larger units of education are advised; compulsory education should be enforced to sixteen years of age and periodically to the age of eighteen. The average salary for teachers should reach $1221 per annum; extensive changes in secondary schools courses of study, provision of transportation to school, and a means of education available for men and women returning from overseas. The cost might reach $304,000,000 but this is equivalent to only one-quarter of what will be spent for one year of war. It will take time, she said.

The woman's place, she believes is in the home, but to keep up morale the mother must have outside interests. These may be supplied by the Women's Institute so she urges all who can to join the local branch. President Roosevelt was quoted as saying that in our war we must plan for peace. Mrs. Holmes said that in our planning we hoped everyone would have work which would provide for the needs of his family. A world where we could think and worship as we pleased and where our children all have the same opportunities in days to come. The world of tomorrow will have no place for snobs, whose thoughts are mean and prejudiced. Society will not be measured by what one does but by the way he does it. With first things first the W. I. stands ready to share the responsibility in the world of peace.

Four resolutions were read, discussed, and voted upon, all in the affirmative. They concerned, briefly, compulsory medical examination prior to marriage; appointment of a farm woman to the office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board at Ottawa; the labelling of cloth to show content and weave; and the protection of railway crossings by subways or bridges to avert the terrible level crossing accidents of late.

Splendid reports were read by convenors of standing committees at intervals both days. All districts seemed to show keen interest in W. I. work. A choir from Loretto Academy entertained with a number of selections, and piano duets by two of them, were also enjoyed during Friday morning session.

A very profitable hour was spent in group discussions led by Miss Mary Clarke, Mrs. C. Holmes, and Mrs. T. D. Cowan. The subject discussed was: "How to give a good report and take Back Worthwhile Suggestions to Y. ur Institute", and should prove very helpful, especially to delegates attending a convention for the first time. Mrs. C. Holmes presided for the present and all the Georgetown boys wish you a speedy recovery "Gilly". Keep your chin up and make sure to put your boots on when going out. Remember what happened here.

The grand exhibition of dancing staged by Comrade Joe Scott of Limehouse was very well done at the Stag on Friday night. Joe should open a class in dancing and forget about his chickens and eggs. Playing bingo and dancing are Joe's favorite pastime.

We have quoted so far almost everything of importance that we know of. After 1:30 a.m. last Saturday morning our mind went blank, so if your name does not appear in these notes remember the writer felt as you did, so don't blame him.

See you next week boys.

election of officers resulting as follows:

Area Chairman: Miss M. Bennett, Limehouse.
Vice Chairman: Mrs. J. H. Spier, Brantford.
Area Secretary: Mrs. Fred Soder, It. & Galt.
Recording Secretary: Miss Lily Dempsey, Stratford.
Federated Representative: Mrs. P. W. Merry, Hornby.
Executive: Mrs. Jas. Corry, Atwood; Mrs. N. Smith, Port Eglis; Mrs. A. W. Benton, Limehouse.
Auditors: Mrs. T. D. Cowan; Miss Elliott.

Convenors of standing committees. Agriculture and Can. Industries: Miss Jean Elliott, Belleville; Home Economics: Mrs. W. J. Cameron, Palmerston; Social Welfare: Miss A. Anderson; Historical Research: Mrs. Cartwright, Walkerton; Publicity: Mrs. Halliarty, Orton; War Work: Mrs. Harnden, Ayt.

Mrs. Merry introduced the incoming officers and convenors and a very profitable and inspirational convention was brought to a close with the National Anthem.

ACTON

A train-truck truck of N. C. Hipel, Waterloo, was struck by the morning train, shortly after ten o'clock on Tuesday morning. Fortunately the two men in the cab escaped injury, beyond bruises and a shaking up. The accident occurred at the Mill Street high crossing of the C.N.R. crossing here.

The United Church, Acton, was the setting for a pretty wedding Saturday evening when LeVerne Peace Smith became the bride of Cpl. Earl Chisholm Hyor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. David B. Smith of Toronto, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hyor, Guelph. Gueata attended from Toronto, Hamilton, Georgetown and Eden Mills.

Perhaps it was just a coincidence at Acton Council was certainly on the job to time the arrival of the new snow plow exactly with the first fall of this winter's snow.—Free Press.

MILTON

Flt. Sergt. Douglas Scott, 21, is reported missing, believed killed during an operational flight, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Scott, of Courville Farm, Bronte Street have been informed.

At a meeting of the Milton Presbytery on Tuesday a resolution was passed opposing the opening of a liquor store in Milton and condemning the action of the county council in passing a resolution asking for a liquor store.

Nomination for council, one Hydro Commissioner and School Trustee will be held on December 3rd from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. If an election is necessary, it will be held on December 14th. School Inspector Skuce was called to court suddenly on Sunday owing to the serious illness of his mother—Champion.

TERRA COTTA

Mr. Norman Viggers of Glen Williams was a pleasant caller in our Burgh recently.

Mr. H. Puckering, motorman, Toronto, was a pleasant caller at his home here last week.

Mrs. R. Puckering and Annie Puckering of Toronto, also visited Terra Cotta friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mackie, have gone to Toronto for the winter.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. J. Hayes is on the sick list at present. We hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

Mr. J. Hayes has secured a lucrative situation with the Clay Products, at Georgetown.

The farmers have nearly finished their fall ploughing in this vicinity and wood cutting is now the general order of the day.

We are pleased to notice the C.N.R. have put on a number of extra trains on this Northern Branch to cope with extra traffic.

Mr. J. Puckering spent the week end with Terra Cotta friends.

Mr. John Edger, who has been operating the steam shovel up near Barrie has arrived back to his home here for the winter. We are pleased to see his smiling face in our Hamlet once more.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late John McDonald, of Caledon, on Monday afternoon. Interment took place in Union Cemetery. Deceased had been some years ago a highly respected citizen of Union and was a brother of Mr. Andrew McDonald of the Town Line. We all join in extending our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

Mr. R. J. Stringer, spent the week end with friends in Glen Williams. Real Estate seems to be on the move at present, more particulars later.

We are informed that Mr. F. C. Thompson, of Georgetown has sold his farm on the 10th Line, formerly known as the Smith Homestead for $4,000 to a couple of Toronto ladies, who we understand propose starting a sheep ranch. We wish them every success in this new enterprise here.

The Canadian Army Overseas is made up of two corps, comprising three infantry divisions and two armored divisions in addition to artillery or corps troops.

If we all cut out only one non-essential call a day

War calls must come first... which means that we should reduce our non-essential use of the telephone to the minimum. Present facilities cannot be increased; your cooperation is needed if war calls are to go through promptly. Please remember that the wasteful use of telephone time can hold up war business—and that every second you save counts.
