Your Vote and Influence are Respectfully Solicited for

Clifford W. Bradley

as Councillor for Ward II

For the Town of Georgetown for the year 1944

I regret that time will not permit me to make a personal call on each ratepayer in Ward II at this time.

I have served 3 years as your representative on council and if elected this time will continue to serve you to the best of my ability in the future as I have done in the past.

I will appreciate your VOTE.

CLIFFORD W. BRADLEY

Election, Monday, December 6th, 1943

Your Vote and Influence are Respectfully Solicited for

Thomas Eason, Jr.

AS COUNCILLOR FOR WARD II

For the Town of Georgetown for the year 1944

Election, Monday, December 6th, 1943

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF WARD II:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The time is drawing nigh for you to select your Councillor for Ward II for 1944. I regret that at this time I find it almost impossible to canvass this Ward from house to house after working hours, and owing to the shortage of labour I feel it my duty to remain at work.

Having served Ward II for a number of years as Councillor, once again I am offering my service to the rate payers. On December 6 you will again be voting to select your councillor. If you feel that my service in the past has been worth while, I again appeal to you for your support in the coming election. Having lived in Georgetown for the past 30 years, I have always taken a great deal of interest in the affairs of our town, and will continue to do so.

There seems to be a great deal of comment concerning the fact that the tax rate will go up in 1944. I see no cause for this alarm.

Having been Chairman of Finance for 1941, I can assure you that the financial affairs of your Town are in good condition. If elected to your 1944 council, it will be my main ambition to see that the present tax rate does not go up, and to serve you as in the past. Thanking you all for past favours, I remain,

Your Obedient Servant,

JOSEPH HALL

HOW MUCH IS AN INCH?

When the fall of an inch of rain is reported by the weatherman, just how much water is involved? One hundred tons. Rainfalls are reported by the weather bureau on the basis of an inch an acre. An acre of ground covers 6,272,640 square inches and an inch of water on an acre is therefore 6,272,640 cubic inches. At 2.25 cubic inches to the gallon, that amount equals 2,787,840 gallons. This is equivalent to 220,000 pounds or 110 tons.

Gifts from Grenfell Mission Appreciated

The local branch of the Grenfell Mission have just received the following letter of thanks for a bale of clothing and quilts shipped last summer:

Harrington Harbour, P.Q. November 4th, 1943

Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie, Georgetown, Ontario

Dear Mrs. Mackenzie:

During the summer a large shipment of clothing used and new, was received here from your mission and I did not unpack myself being away on holiday but I have the list before me. It is a most generous contribution and will most certainly be a tremendous help. This is the season when our clothing store has the greatest calls and it is gratifying to have a good supply on hand. Your donation is a small help for it is the type of clothing we need most and like to get. The four dozen pairs of men's socks is a treasure in itself. The coat makes do really appreciate the quality of the materials of used clothing sent to us in comparison to that they can afford to get from the mail order catalogue. Even used garments have far better materials and as the mothers are expert in remaking garments they acquire some really worthwhile clothing for their families. I cannot remember having written to Georgetown before or at least often but I hope I may have the privilege of doing so again. We should like to anticipate such good help another year.

Winter will soon be on us but none of our staff ever complain if that. We like the winter as well as the summer for here it is really winter and we are sure of deep snow.

We are quite busy in the hospital now but fall months are always rushed for everyone wants to get in and back home again before it freezes up. Sealing soap starts and that is a cold and rough work. The men seem to like it but it means so much to their livelihood. Skis, boots, oil, dog food and even some of the meat for their tables. Send most tastes a bit games and fish but I nutritious and the people like it. The liver is delicious and does not taste different than beef liver. I am sure some of your warm socks will be appreciated by the seal fishers.

Thank you very much for your splendid help and we send our best wishes to your workers.

Sincerely yours,
Laura K. Thompson,
Nurse-in-Charge

Early had been in England six months, prior to being sent to the Mediterranean front. While in Canada he trained at Gordon Head, B.C., Camp Borden and, Debert. His father, Major Arnold Early, a veteran of the last war, is also overseas.

Sgt. Jim Emmerson, who has been home for two weeks' leave, has left for the east coast.

P.O. He and two fellow-students were shown examining ship models at a naval school in England.

sidewalk improvements. In conclusion, Mr. MacDonald recommended that after the war the council put a hard surface on all the town roads and this would also play a part in employing men after the war. He said he was greatly in favour of council making plans for the rehabilitation of returned men.

After reading the report, Reeve Brown announced that he had nominated Mr. MacDonald as Reeve to succeed him and that Mr. MacDonald had signified his intention of qualifying for the position.

Surplus in Town
Councillor Joseph Hall, chairman of the Finance Committee, took the platform next. Taking the Interim Financial Report in hand he explained each item contained therein. At present there is a balance of $1574.66 in the bank and it is estimated that after the debentures and other liabilities are met at the year's end, there will be a surplus of around $3000.

After concluding his report, Councillor Hall highly commended the services the firemen had rendered to the town, making special mention of the recent Georgetown Lumber Co. fire, and also the splendid way they helped fight the Royal Hotel blaze in Brampton. Firemen's grants and salaries came to $565.00 last year, and Councillor Hall maintained, after explaining just how this was distributed, that their time and work for this town's safety should be worth another $100 per year. He thanked his nominator and the council of 1944, and said that if he were elected he would do his best to assist in looking after the affairs of the town in a fair and efficient manner. He believed a new mayor would appreciate the services of an experienced councillor.

Recommends Sinking Fund
Chairman of the Waterworks and Fire Protection Committee, Councillor Clifford Bradley presented a brief report to the ratepayers. The income from the Waterworks to November 15 this year was $1142.66, with an expenditure of $849.76. This makes an estimated surplus for the year 1943 of $292.90. Councillor Bradley recommended that in future, any profit from this system be put into a sinking fund for repairs to the mains which are bound to be necessary in the near future. He thanked those who had nominated him for council for next year, and stated he would be in the field. Having served Ward 2 for the past three years, he felt an experienced man on council would be a great help this year.

Two Nominations for Lyons
A short report from the Chairman of the Property Committee, Thomas Lyons, was heard next. Minor repairs had been made to town property, not involving any great outlay of money. Said Councillor Lyons, "I have two nominations this year, one for Councillor in Ward 3 and one for Mayor. I've never been so lucky before." He did not say which one he would qualify for. Councillor Lyons recommended that future councils start a fund to provide for a system of sewage disposal to be installed after the war. It would serve a two-fold purpose by helping out the post-war work situation.

Relief Expenditure
Councillor William P. Thompson presented his report as chairman of the Welfare Committee. There is only one person on relief in town at present. Councillor Thompson thanked his electors for his acclamation as councillor in Ward I.

Granted Leave of Absence
The Hydro Commissioner, Mr. Graham, gave a comprehensive report of hydro affairs. He thanked Mayor Gibbons for the wonderful support he had given him, which was even more marked because of the illness of the other member of the hydro commission, Mr. H. O. Dayfoot. Mr. Farnil, in speaking about the reduction in hydro rates effected by the local commission this year, said it was only through perseverance that they had been able to have the rate lowered, and attributed a great share of their success to the efforts of Mayor Gibbons. In conclusion he thanked Council for granting him leave of absence from his duties as Commissioner while he is on active service with the RCAF.

As there was nobody present from the Public or High School Boards to give reports, Mr. Harrison asked the various nominees present to speak to the ratepayers.

Nominees Speak
Mr. Harold Cleave, nominated for mayor, thanked his nominator, and brought back to the minds of those present the election of last year when he ran for office. Said Mr. Cleave, "It was a pretty close run, and the results didn't discourage me a bit. I will run on the dotted line again this year, if the people want me to." Mr. Cleave stated he had enjoyed his terms as councillor and had been Reeve several times, and in that office had been warden of the county. He would serve the people to the best of his ability, if elected.

John Armstrong, nominated as councillor in Ward 2 said he would qualify for the position. He also expressed regret that he would not be able to serve under Mayor Gibbons, who he said had been one of the best mayors Georgetown had ever had.

Mr. W. O. Bell, as nominee for councillor in Ward 3, came forward and thanked his nominator. He said he was undecided whether he would qualify or not. There was a certain matter, however, which he said he wished to bring to the attention of the ratepayers. He referred to the money spent by council well over $100 in order to have the "Smoke By-law" passed. He said his company, Clay Products Ltd., hadn't been given a chance to defend themselves in council before this step was taken. He said he considered it most unfair and unfair to prosecute a flourishing industry employing over thirty men, which is managed by two men who are taxpayers in the town and have just built two new homes.

No other nominees were present, and the chairman then asked if the ratepayers had anything to say. Mayor Gibbons rose and said he had been very much interested in the sewage disposal plan, and stated in 1938 a firm of engineers had estimated the cost of the installation of a complete sewage disposal system at $127,000. He said that in his opinion at that time the finances of the town could not stand such a large outlay of cash, but that he considered the time had now arrived to do something about it.

Child Delinquency Problem Here
Mr. Dean Harley addressed the citizens stating: "A very serious problem is confronting us in this town. In common with all towns throughout the country, I refer to child delinquency in Georgetown." Mr. Harley contended that the way the young boys were carrying on here was dangerous to the welfare of the community now and when they became citizens of the community. He stated that one big reason for this shocking state of affairs was the fact that there is no recreation provided here for the young people. Said Mr. Harley, "Something ought to be done to save those kiddies and it's your job as well as mine." He suggested that one way to combat the problem would be to build a swimming pool in the arena.

Announcing that nine o'clock Saturday night was the dead-line for nomination; wishing to qualify for office, Chairman Harrison declared the meeting closed.
