Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Leslie Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Leslie, highly-retired residents of Georgetown, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, December 6th, and were at home to their friends during the afternoon and evening.

The happy couple, assisted by their attendants of 50 years ago, Mr. Joseph Dolson, Chinguacousy, and Miss Sadie Leslie, Georgetown, and daughter, Miss Myrtle, of Toronto, received one hundred and fifty guests during the afternoon and evening. Tea was served from a table attractively decorated with yellow roses and bearing wedding cake made by Mrs. Leslie. Pouring tea were: Mrs. H. Nicholson, Brampton, Mrs. A. Dolson, Mrs. W. E. Nowell, Mrs. B. W. Orr, Mrs. J. C. Todd, all of town, Mrs. T. Dolson, Brampton, Mrs. H. Thornton, Toronto, and Mrs. J. McClure, Brampton.

Those who assisted in serving refreshments were: Mrs. I. Hope, Toronto; Mrs. P. Leslie, Town; Mrs. D. McClure, Brampton; Mrs. W. Leslie, Town; Mrs. W. Anderson, Town; Miss Kathleen Lyons, Town; Miss E. Leslie, New York; Mrs. E. Arnold and Mrs. A. Caugherty, of Brampton.

All the children were able to be present for the celebration, including 1st Lieut. Lloyd Leslie from Fort Carson, Colorado, and Miss Elizabeth Leslie, New York. The family gave Mr. and Mrs. Leslie a handsome Ottoman chair, and Mrs. Leslie's brothers and sisters gave them a lovely coffee table, to commemorate the happy occasion. Mrs. Leslie wore a corsage of orchids.

The two celebrants are natives of Chinguacousy and are well-known in the Georgetown-Norval-Brampton districts. Mr. Leslie is a son of the late George Leslie, who farmed on lot 10, 10th concession, Chinguacousy. Mrs. Leslie was Miss Harriet H. Dolson before her marriage, a daughter of Elizabeth Dolson, Alton. They were married at the home of the bride's parents on December 6th, 1893, by Rev. Mr. Campbell who was pastor of Christion Presbyterian Church at that time.

A young man of thirty Mr. Leslie purchased the farm across the road from his father's property, situated in Esqueping township. He turned on that land up to three years ago when he retired and came to Georgetown to make his home.

A resident of Esqueping, Mr. Leslie was keenly interested in the progress and welfare of his township. He was ten years in the council, his last year as reeve. In 1929 he was honored by Halton county council with the wardenship and during that year presided wisely and well.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie are members of Georgetown United Church. As residents of Esqueping they attended Union Church, where Mr. Leslie served in many offices including on the Board of Management. Mrs. Leslie conscientiously devoted her talents in the women's organizations of the church, serving in many offices. Both commanded the respect and friendship of a large circle of acquaintances during their Esqueping residence.

Mr. Leslie is a Mason, a member of Credit Lodge A.F. & A.M., Georgetown. Their union was blessed with five children, three sons and two daughters. Miss Myrtle Leslie is a school teacher in Toronto and Miss Elizabeth Leslie is a nurse in New York City. Percy farms in Esqueping. Lloyd is with the United States army at Fort Carson, Colorado. He is commissioned as a Lieutenant. W.M.F.R. is farming on the homestead in Esqueping.

Sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie and may they be spared to spend together many more years of continued wedded happiness.

Cables were received yesterday telling that Mr. Gordon James and Cpl. Lovell Puckering had arrived in Italy. LAC Bill Clark has left for Hamilton after spending a leave at home. When he arrives at his base, he will be immediately posted to an Elementary Training School.

Cpl. Wilbert Bradley, a member of the Coastal Navigation Training Class, has returned from France via Britain, Wainwright and Edmonton, and after a short leave at home will be posted to No. 1 A.O.B., Malton.

Mr. Walter Bradford has arrived in North Africa, according to word received by his family yesterday. Overseas with the Lorne Scots since June, 1940, he has just recently transferred to another regiment. Prior to enlistment he was employed at Alliance Paper Mills Ltd.

Edmund Joseph Wilcox of the Royal Canadian Navy Band is home on leave from St. John's, Newfoundland, after having been stationed there for fourteen months. Edmund Wilcox has found the right "niche" for himself in the Navy, as doubtless many townspeople will remember how many times he won the gold medal as cornet soloist both at the Toronto Exhibition and at the Waterloo Music Festival. He played in the Georgetown Band for seven years. At time of his enlistment on September 30, 1942, Edmund Wilcox was employed at Federal Sales, Toronto. He will be home for twenty-eight days.

In a letter received this week from Mrs. Ballantine, Ottawa, she says that her son Jack in England, has been receiving the Herald's O.K. and that in his last letter to her he spoke of having Larry Ritchie to see them, and hoped he would be able to spend his Christmas there. Jack and his wife have extended a kind invitation to any of the boys overseas to spend their furloughs with them, and in case you'd like to accept, boys, here's his address: J. R. Ballantine, 146 Osborne Rd., Spark Hill, Birmingham, Eng.

Word has just been received by his parents of the safe arrival of Pte. Charlie Laws in North Africa.

Pte. Officer Jim Ruddell left last Thursday for the C.R.S. at Charlottetown, P.E.I., after spending a week's leave at home.

STEWARTTOWN

The St. John's Junior W.A. held their annual meeting recently. Reports of the various branches of the work were given. There were four members at the starting of 1943, and 12 members at the close. 33 meetings were held, attendance averaging 88. Layettes, 6 scrap books, some S.S. papering, then study, followed by a busy period. In June the parcel of work done was sent to the W.A. Room in Hamilton. From there it is sent in a bale to the mission station most needing those articles. The contents of the parcel were: 3 crib quilts, 3 baby's layettes, 6 scrap books, some S.S. paper books and some nearly new children's clothing. 50¢ was sent to the Sunday school by post.

The Stewarttown W.A. held their annual meeting last Thursday at Mrs. Jos. Standish's home. There were 12 members in 1943, 33 meetings held with average attendance of 5. All pledges were met by the Branch with a balance on hand. The value of the new articles packed was $34.00, besides some good used clothing. 1 quilt was sent to Grenfell Mission as has been the custom of this W.A. for a number of years. The officers for 1944 are: Honorary president, Mrs. W. D. Johnston; Honorary Secretary, Mrs. J. A. Tracy; President, Mrs. B. R. Colebrook; Vice-president, Mrs. S. Hunt; Secretary, Mrs. Joseph Standish; Treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Smith; Educational Secretary, Mrs. Johnston; Junior Supt., Mrs. M. Bally; Little Helpers Secretary, Mrs. W. Hodge; auditors, Mrs. Standish, Mrs. Bally.

Congratulations to AW2 Frances Jenkinson, who recently graduated from the School of Wireless Operators in Montreal. Frances came third in her class. She is now posted to Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Standish and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Jenkinson here.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ross Thompson whose father, Mr. T. R. Cave, Georgetown, passed away suddenly last Friday.

A number of the children attending school have been quite sick with the flu.
