Mr. Henry Wilson has left to visit with his daughter, Mrs. S. B. Breckon, in Norwood.

Mr. Howard Townsend, of Halifax, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Costigan.

Miss Mary Cummins and Miss Ethel Lane spent a couple of days in Montreal at the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Brownridge have returned after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heston, Stony Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Costigan and son Jimmy, of Toronto, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. James Costigan.

Georgetown's new mayor for 1944, Harold Cleave and Mrs. Cleave are both confined to their home with an attack of the flu. We hope they will soon be around again.

Mr. Walter T. Evans is attending the 51st anniversary of the Ontario Association of Local Estate Boards at the Royal York this week.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong and daughter Delma, Miss Anne Armstrong, and Miss Joyce Hillier, of Toronto, spent a few days last week with Mrs. A. Wright and family.

Mrs. E. Harris, Mrs. A. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hillier and children, Diane and Glenwright, spent Monday of this week with friends in Tavistock, Ont.

Miss Margery Mackenzie and Miss Margaret Pasmore spent the week end with LAW Jean W. Mackenzie, H. Thomas, and with P.O. and Mrs. Kenneth Mackenzie, Aylmer.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. O'Neill celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary this week. On Sunday they were the guests of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arol J. O'Neill, in Toronto.

Their daughter, Mrs. Earle D. Shely, of Birmingham, Michigan, is spending the week with them.

Dorcen Hornby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Hornby, celebrated her 10th birthday by entertaining six of her little friends to afternoon games and a birthday supper. The girls present were: Shirley Dohle, Margaret Golden, Barbara Boyle, Judy Spencer, Jane Bowkall and Marilyn Chapman.

A "Pop-Luck-Supper" for the members of St. George's W.A. as held at the Rectory on Wednesday evening last. A pleasant evening was spent, a very pleasing feature being a surprise basket of presents for Mrs. Thompson, that bring the eve of her birthday.

A bride of last Saturday, Mrs. Roland Haines, the former Joan Hale, was honoured at two showers given for her a week ago. On Tuesday night last, Mrs. J. F. McCartney held a shower at her home, with eighteen friends were present. When the bride entered, she was showered with confetti from a large white bell, and the room was decorated with pink and white streamers. The guests played progressive euchre after which refreshments were served. At the home of Mrs. Wesley Lane the preceding Friday night a number of girl friends assembled for a miscellaneous shower. In a room prettily decorated in pink and white the gifts were opened and court whist played. The hostess served refreshments.

Mitchell-Brown Wedding at Hornby

Hornby United Church as well-filled last Saturday afternoon, Dec. 4th, by guests and friends who came to witness the wedding of Miss Dorothy Beryl, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Brown, Esqueping Township, to Pilot Officer David George Mitchell, RCAF, of Revelstoke, BC.

The bride was attended by Miss Pearl Hore, of Toronto, maid-of-honour, Miss Joan May, cousin of the bride, junior bridesmaid, and little Miss Shirley May, flower girl. The groom was ably supported by Pte. Sgt. Clyde Kennedy, RCAF, of Trail, B.C.

The ushers were two of the bride's brothers, Wilfrid and Ross Brown. The wedding music was played by Mr. Elmer May, aunt of the bride, and Miss Doris White was soloist.

The church altar was beautifully lighted with several clusters of white candles with two lovely bouquets of white chrysanthemums set in their midst. At the conclusion of the double ring ceremony the bride was presented with a Bible as a memento from the officials and members of the church, as she was the first bride to be married in the church.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents attended by about forty-five guests. A dainty wedding supper was enjoyed by all, after which the happy couple left by CPR train from Hornby station for a honeymoon trip to Revelstoke, B.C. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will reside at Fort Albert, Ont., where the former is an instructor in the RCAF station.

Heartly congratulations and best wishes for future happiness are extended to Dorothy by her many Hornby friends by whom she will be greatly missed in the community.

HORNBY NEWS

Miss Jean Eyre, of Uxbridge, Ont., has been spending the past week visiting at the home of her brother, Stanley Eyre, and incidentally helping to nurse her brother and little Bruce who have been ill with the flu.

Pte. James Downs, of the RCAMC has been spending his embarkation leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Downs. He leaves on Wednesday morning to return to Fort Debert, N.S.

Our best wishes go with Jimmie, and we hope to see him safely back in the not too distant future.

The mild weather of the past week has been very welcome, and all hope for a continuance of the same kind of weather for sometime yet. It will surely ease the social situation and shorten its.

The members of the Orange Lodge held their annual supper and dance in the Hall last Friday evening.

St. Stephen's AYPA held a social evening in the Orange Hall on Monday.

TERRA COTTA

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitely have moved to Norval, and we hope that he will be able to return back to the farm here much improved in health in the spring.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. H. Ellwood which took place in a hospital in Toronto. Prior to his removal to the hospital he had been a highly respected resident of Terra Cotta for a number of years, and we all join in extending our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family and friends in this their sad hour of bereavement.

Mr. J. Edge, who spent a few days at his home here has returned to take charge of the steam shovel up in that north country. We also wish him continued success.

Remember the S. S. concert which will be held in the Terra Cotta United Church for the children of the Sunday school which will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 21st. A good program will be given by the children. Admission free, so come along and thus help the good work along. We might also add with pleasure that the Sunday school was organized here this summer, and they hope to run it on through the winter months. We all join in wishing them continued success in the good work.

Mr. George Edge, of Toronto, was a pleasant caller in our burgh last week. Real estate property is still booming in our village at present, of which further particulars will be given later. Miss Kennedy, of Georgetown, who conducts the Sunday school and Bible class here was a pleasant caller here on Saturday.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LINDQUIST, D. D.
Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago
Revised by Western Newspaper Union

Lesson for December 12.

Lesson subject and Scripture text approved by the International Sunday School Association, Inc., 2310 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

CHRIST'S NEW COMMANDMENT

LESSON TEXT—Mark 12:31. John 13:34, 35.

GOLDEN TEXT—A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another, as I have loved you, that ye also love one another—John 13:34.

The "new commandment" of love which Christ gave was not new in the sense of first being known, but new in its application (John 13:34). Only since Christ had come did men know how to love in truth.

This commandment of love was also first in time, being given before the Ten Commandments (see Ex. 19:18). Then, too, it declared the fundamental of all spiritual life, the first thing man needed to know, that God is love.

It also must take first place in man's thinking, for even as the Decalogue (Ten Commandments) is the basis of all moral law, so love for God and our fellow man is that which makes the Decalogue effective in our lives. Love and obedience go together (John 15:10).

Our lesson teaches us four things—
I. Love God (Mark 12:29-30).
Because "God is love" (1 John 4:8). He desires man's perfect love toward Him. Because the essence of His being is love, He loves us, and enables us to love Him.

There is more here than a commandment or the performing of a duty. There is the recognition of a controlling principle of all life. In a day of multiplication of powerful machines and organizations, when man is "power conscious" in an unusual way, it is well to recall that the greatest power in all the world is the power of love.

Then let us not forget that all true love should rest upon fellowship with God. It has no real foundation if it does not.

II. Love Your Neighbor (Mark 12:31-34).
Everything about our relationship to Christ and to God expresses itself in our living. No spiritual truth is simply to be admired, or kept on a shelf as a cherished possession. It is to be put to work in the affairs of life.

Love for God means love for our neighbor. If we do not love our neighbor (and that means our fellow man—Luke 10:25-42) how then does the love of God abide in our hearts? It is worthy of note that the recognition and appreciation of this truth on the part of the scribe brought him near to the kingdom of God, but not into it. He was "not far from it," but he was not in it. It is terrifying to think how close men may come to entering without doing so. Reader, have you entered into eternal life through Jesus Christ?

III. Love Your Brethren (John 13:34, 35).
Here we come within the circle of believers and see that the distinctive thing about their fellowship should be love for one another.

The old commandment of love becomes a new one, because Christ shows that the measure of that love is to be His great love for us. How did Christ love us? With a perfect, unselfish and thoughtful devotion, which so deeply desired the very most and best for us that He was willing to lay down His holy life as our Saviour from sin.

The thing which marked the early church with glorious distinction was that in a world that hated, they loved one another, and in a world that killed and destroyed, they were even willing to die for their brethren. Tertullian of Carthage (Tunis) said, in the second century, that the enemies of Christianity said of the Christians, "See how they love one another."

IV. Love is Obedient, Joyful and Sacrificial (John 15:10-14).
Love is not an impulsive, erratic movement of man's nature which tries to make up for neglect and unkindness by occasional displays of generosity and thoughtfulness. No, indeed. Love walks the straight and steady way of obedience to God's commandments.

Keeping God's law is not accomplished by reading it, or talking about it, or even learning it by heart, but by definitely practicing its precepts.

This brings joy into our lives—the real and perfect joy of Christ. How little we appreciate what this means. Our fellowship with the Lord calls for obedience and sacrifice, but that is not a burdensome, dull, distressing experience. It is a joyful one. Who counts it a trial to do that which pleases a loved one? Do we really love God? Then we will rejoice in our response to His will, yes, in any possible act of devotion.

Love draws no limiting line beyond which it will not go. Love says: "I count not my life dear, if in giving it I may bring deliverance to my friends."

We shall not question His guidance nor blush to own His name, even though the testimony may mean our death. This we shall do for Christ's sake, and for the sake of a suffering humanity.
