LIMEHOUSE

The singing of three Christmas hymns, followed by the regular prayer were used in opening for the December meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute at Mrs. H. Norton's on Thursday last. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. Mitchell, vice-president presided and eight ladies attended. The roll call was answered by naming a Canadian mineral and its source. Mrs. Mitchell read local, national and international current events. Reports of very profitable time spent at the Care of Clothing conference and short course in Modern Dressmaking were given. Each will be followed by further study early in the new year. Current events were heard from convener of standing committees.

Mrs. E. Miller gave a splendid talk on the motto: "Speech is silver, silence is golden." Mrs. McVey, convener of the program for the December meeting read her topic, "Canadian Industries, Resources and Trade." Two dollars was donated to the Christmas Cheer for British Children's Fund. A good report was heard of the Coughlin Arvo Convention from the delegate, Mrs. B. Olby. Mrs. B. Wright was named convener of funds for December. A guessing contest conducted by Mrs. McVey was won by Mrs. Kirkpatrick. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

An enjoyable evening of cards and dancing was spent at Limehouse school on Tuesday evening, November 30th, when the library committee were in charge. Mr. H. McDowell and Mrs. E. Miller held highest scores and consolation prizes went to Mr. James McIsaac and Mrs. F. Brown. Following coffee and sandwiches, Mr. J. W. Nickell, violinist, Mr. Joe McDonald, floor manager, entertained into the wee sma' hours.

Mr. Norman McDonald has been home on a few days leave.

Quite a successful bazaar was held by the Girls' Locket Club at the home of Mrs. H. Norton on Saturday. Home-made baking, vegetables, and articles suitable for gifts were offered for sale. Afternoon tea was also served.

Mrs. W. I. Newton, of Barrie, spent the week end with the Newtons.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Merrifield, of Markdale, Ont., visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Scott and son on Sunday. Mrs. A. W. Norton visited in Toronto last week.

material we required for the war and to use only what was left for our own needs. This of course meant controls and rationing so that each would get his just share. What a peck of troubles we have had as a result. Many mistakes have been made but looking at the whole picture we must admit that this country has made a good war effort and we must also admit that no one has really been in want. We have been denied luxuries but everyone has had the essentials. As a result of this war planning and our voluntary self denials Canada's war effort has been described by Churchill, by Roosevelt and others as second to none.

"As a result of our unpopular war policies this country will enter the postwar period with all of the necessary factors to insure a period after the war more prosperous than we have yet enjoyed. Our increased production facilities will permit us to have a standard of living at least double what we today enjoy.

"Now I would like to outline to you the answers which we suggest to our postwar problems as I outlined them a few minutes ago.

1. The men and women in the armed forces. "We have passed legislation to insure that their jobs will be waiting for them when they return. We have passed a new land settlement scheme. Any member of the armed forces who wishes to farm will be set up on a farm equipped with implements and foundation stock. Provision has been made for those who want vocational training. We have overhauled the Pensions Act and while in some instances we have not gone as far as I felt we should have I do say that we have a pensions act which provides for pensions much more liberal than those paid in Great Britain and Australia and quite as ample as pensions aid in the U.S.

2. The one million workers in war industries. "Peacetime jobs must be found for all of these. In my opinion the first requisite is to immediately remove all of the needless restrictions on industry. Every possible encouragement must be given to speed up the postponed demands of our people. Taxes can be substantially reduced and this will help. Private initiative will not be enough and the Government has given an assurance that it will enter the field to take up whatever slack is left in employment. We have planned for this. Not only has the government postponed the doing of necessary construction work but we have asked the provincial governments as well as municipalities to postpone all work which could wait till after the war. Then in addition to this we will have a shortage of over three hundred thousand homes. The labor content of every medium sized home is about 100,000 man hours and indirect and indirect

ect. This is not all spent where the house is built but if you include the labor required to produce the lumber, the bricks, the plumbing, hardware, etc. for housebuilding the total labor content reaches 80% of the total cost. In launching a housing scheme care must be taken to do nothing which will depreciate the value of existing homes but a wise programme giving tax reductions on building materials, temporary exemptions from taxation and money at low interest rates with monthly repayments similar to the National Housing Act which was so successful prior to the war will provide employment for thousands of people and will provide the much needed homes. Such a scheme will also yield between thirty and forty million dollars of new municipal revenue to finance the debt service payments for new sidewalks, sewers, water mains and pavements which will be needed to service the new homes. To sum it all up the answer to this problem is that profitable jobs can and must be found for all who require work.

3. "Then coming to our agricultural problem. In my opinion this is one of the toughest nuts we will have to crack and while government policy has not yet been announced I believe that floor prices must be guaranteed to our farmers with respect to the food which Canadians consume which will yield the cost of production plus a fair profit. Food for export is another matter. Much of our surplus in the immediate postwar years must be given to needy nations but this is not a permanent policy. As far as a permanent policy is concerned with respect to our surplus crops I think we must be prepared to sell this at the world market price. Every possible assistance must be given our farmers, scientific and otherwise to increase their efficiency but I do not approve of a policy of subsidies for export. Living conditions on the farms can be improved and proper credit facilities must be made available.

4. "And now coming to our final problem which generally speaking can be rolled together under one heading that of social security. Full employment which I have already discussed is of course the first essential but there will still be those who on account of old age, sickness or unemployment are unable to earn a living. These people must be provided for and this country is sufficiently productive to guarantee them a decent living. We have passed an Unemployment Insurance measure and now are studying a Public Health bill and any other necessary measures must be passed to remove all distress in this regard.

"To sum the whole problem up I be-

BALLINAFAD

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the church Sunday morning. The service was very impressive, nine of the young people having recently joined the church.

A Communion table presented to the church by Mrs. W. Willey, in remembrance of her departed husband, was dedicated for use in the work of the Master. The W.M.B. meeting was held Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 24th, at the home of Mrs. Jas. Kirkwood. The topic from the first chapter of New Study Book was ably taken by Mrs. Stanley Sinclair.

The funeral of the late Jas. Young was largely attended Monday afternoon. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Mr. Rogers of the Danforth United Church, Toronto, gave a very helpful and inspiring address on the work of Home Missions.

The White Gift Service will be in the church, Sunday, a.m., Dec. 8th. The gifts to be sent to all people's Mission, Hamilton.

BRAMPTON

A fire which might have wiped out the buildings at Huttonville amusement park was narrowly averted by the quick action of Albert Kennedy, a 12-year-old Huttonville youth, who discovering the fire in one of the cottages, gave the alarm.

Four Toronto youths were arrested 10 miles north of Brampton last Saturday, by provincial police after a brief hunt during which four shots were fired. A nominal charge of vagrancy was laid against the four. They were arrested at pistol point by Constable P. J. Carroll of Bolton, and K. S. Brampton.

Robert George Smith, who was married last June to Joan Stratton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stratton, Brampton, is reported to have been killed in England.

Archbishop D. T. Owen, Anglican Primate of Canada, officiated in the sacred rite of Confirmation held in the No. 24 Brampton Basic Training Camp on Wednesday evening. Twenty soldier candidates were presented to His Grace—Ganette and Conservator.

Let us should once again, assert the fact that it is the inalienable right of everyone to work hard and to enjoy the fruits of his labour. Our enjoyment of the good things of life should only be restricted by our willingness to work. We should use all of our present production facilities and we should use the same energy and efficiency to secure for our people in the postwar period the highest possible standard of living as we have used to win the war."

Again...
 MAY WE RECOMMEND
 MAILST?

THOUSANDS of men and women in uniform will be telephoning home this Christmas. This means a huge additional load on Long Distance facilities—especially "long haul" lines—already busy carrying essential war calls.

So again this year we urge you to send your Christmas greetings by mail. You can help the Post Office people, too, by arranging to send them early.

Should there be an out-of-town call you must make, please telephone as many days before Christmas as possible. In this way you will help us to handle promptly the flood of eager holiday greetings which will pour in from military camps all over the country. Thank you.
