ASHGROVE

The February meeting of the Women's Institute was held Feb. 22nd at the home of Mrs. Geo. Wingfield, with Mrs. P. Hopburn, the president, presiding. After the opening ode and Lord's prayer, the motto "The child of to-day and the citizen of to-morrow" was given by Mrs. F. Wilson. A splendid paper on the ideals and possibilities for the youth of today was given by Mrs. Francis Thompson. Jessie Wingfield favoured with reading. During the business session a very interesting letter was read from a sailor in the merchant marine who had received a ditty bag from the Institute. Plans were made for sending a contribution to the Chinese Relief Fund and also for an Institute social to be held in March. After the National Anthem a dainty lunch was served by the hostess and refreshment committee.

LIMEHOUSE

In a recent letter received from Sgt. Chas. W. Douglas with the Canadian troops somewhere in Italy, he listed his Christmas dinner menu, as follows: "Christmas was extra good for being out in the front lines. The platoon couldn't get together for dinner, so we had to wait until night and had supper together after we closed down for the day. The table was set and on each plate there were three packages of cigarettes and three chocolate bars. Then we had supper. Here's the menu. Two pork chops, creamed potatoes and peas, with applesauce and turkey to follow. Then plum pudding with rum and chocolate sauce, sliced peaches, fruit, cake, bread and butter, tea and coffee." There were plenty of other drinks as well, the sergeants getting extra. We regret to say that on Jan. 11 when he wrote he had received no Christmas mail or parcels.
Mrs. C. E. Meredith opened her home for a Valentine euchre last Thursday afternoon, when a most enjoyable time was spent. Winners at cards were Mrs. A. W. ## Active Service Notes

We are glad to hear that ACZ Leonard Bell, who has been confined to the R.O.A.F. hospital in Edmonton for the past couple of weeks with pneumonia, is now able to be up and around again.
Pte "Bert" Tuck in Italy with the Saskatoon Light Infantry, in his most recent letter to his wife, told of receiving three or four Heralds in a bunch, the first he had received since arriving in Italy. Bert said it was like being at home again for a little while and needless to say the papers went the rounds. We hope the papers will start coming more regularly from now on.
Pte. Wm. Isley spent the week end with his parents. He is stationed at Brantford.
Pte. Charlie Laws, writing home from Africa, said that in his most recent move, he has seen Cpl. Jack Watson and Ptes Gordie James and Bob Raynor. It's pretty nice to meet someone from home over there, judging from the letter.

BRAY CHICKS
PROMPT SHIPMENT
YES—the Bray Hatcheries have chicks for prompt shipment, in spite of a deluge of orders. Not, perhaps, in the breed that's your first choice. Not, perhaps, in the Xtra-Profit grade. But Bray Chicks of the usual high Bray quality.
Mind you, that's not saying that the breed and grade you want aren't available. Very probably they are. But demand is uneven. In some breeds it is so heavy that the Bray Hatcheries are booked ahead—in those breeds—for weeks. In others even last-minute orders can be filled, for both day-old and started chicks. For instance right now we can supply both day-old and started Standard White Leghorns.
PLEASE NAME YOUR SECOND CHOICE.
So when you order your Bray Chicks, please name your second choice. . . even your third choice, if possible. . . on breed, grade, and date of shipment. It may prevent delay and disappointment. All Bray breeds have the same backing of skill and care behind them, so you will probably be pleased with the results you get, even if the breed isn't the one you ordinarily order. And we'll do our best to see that you get your first choice, if it is at all possible.
