Arts & Crafts Co-op. Meets at Mrs. Bruyns

Hostess Gives Interesting Talk On "Design"

The Arts and Crafts Cooperative held a meeting at the home of Mrs. A. G. M. Bruyns, Charles St., on Thursday, March 16th. In spite of very bad weather there was a very good attendance with two members coming from Acton.
Mrs. M. H. Moyer the President, welcomed two new members from Georgetown and lined up plans for work in the future. Though the organization is not a money-raising one a donation to the Red Cross was moved and approved by all. Next an arrangement was made for the distribution among members of books and magazines dealing with hand-work and crafts in general. There will be meetings at intervals of two months throughout the year and at each meeting a talk will be given on some phase of the Arts and Crafts.
At this meeting Mrs. Bruyns gave a talk on "Design" which she illustrated with sketches and diagrams on the blackboard and with reproductions of Applied Design. After this there was general discussion by all. At the next meeting Mrs. Wolfe of Acton will give a talk on Interior Decoration. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. E. Baskin Wildwood.

ASHGROVE

The Christian Fellowship meeting of the Ashgrove Y.P.S. was held Sun. March 5th, at the home of John and Elsie Bird with Miss Betty Ruddell in charge. After the call to worship Joy Ruddell gave a piano solo "O Perfect Day", Marion Curie read the Scripture, which was followed by a reading, given by Miss Kean. Mr. Fred Wrigglesworth gave the topic "The Good Samaritan". A poem by John Bird "Things that Endure" was followed by the closing hymn and benediction.
On Monday evening, March 13th, Ashgrove Y.P.S. entertained the young people from the United Church of Milton, Georgetown and Bethel. John Bird, president of Ashgrove Y.P.S. opened the meeting and welcomed the visitors. The worship service, given by Milton Y.P.S. was led by George Bousfield, the president. Georgetown Y.P.S. presented a varied program in charge of the president, Kathleen Lyons. A vocal duet by Valerie Herbert and Bud Tost was followed by the topics "Biography of William Tyndall" given by Mrs. Bob Harris. Miss Alice Fairbairn gave a reading and June Clark and Kenneth Harrison played a piano duet. Miss Lois Merry of Bethel sang a solo. All then joined in games, led by Doris Brownridge and Viola Bridgen of Ashgrove. Lunch was served and a very pleasant evening came to a close.
The March meeting of the Ashgrove W.M.S. was held Tuesday afternoon March 14th at the home of Mrs. A. J. Ruddell, with Mrs. T. Giffen the president in charge. The opening hymn was followed by prayer and the roll call, which was answered with a Bible verse. Mrs. Geo. Nurse led the devotional period and Mrs. Clayton Wilson favoured with a guitar solo. Mrs. C. B. Dick presented the fifth chapter of the study book "For All of Life", entitled "Inspiration through worship", which gave an interesting glimpse of the worship of people of other lands. After the closing hymn a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.
Mrs. S. K. Ruddell and Mrs. R. H. Wright were welcome visitors at this meeting.
We are sorry to learn that Mr. R. J. Graham is ill. We wish him a speedy recovery.
Mrs. Bruce Bridgen and daughter, Viola, spent the week end visiting relatives in Toronto.
Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Wrigglesworth of Milton, who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary March 18th.
Pie, Louie Reed, C.W.A.C. of Kitchener, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Wingfield, during her two weeks furlough.
Mrs. Maurice Dixon of Toronto visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Graham, this past week end.

TERRA COTTA

Apologies for the error in an item in last week's issue of The Herald viz. it should have been John Beverley Moody of Glen Williams who is now overseas. We erroneously omitted the name, Moody, from the item. Beverly is a son of Mr. John Moody of Glen Williams, and enjoys, we are pleased to learn the Terra Cotta news.
Another mistake we made, was the social dance that was reported to have taken place at Mr. John McQuarrie's. It was held at the home of Mr. Jas. McNally on Saturday evening, instead of Mr. McQuarrie's home. They all report a very enjoyable evening.
We regret to learn of the sudden passing of the late Mrs. John Presswood, another old resident of the 10th line who passed peacefully away on Friday May 17th. Her many friends here extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved family and friends in this, their sad hour of trouble.
Mr. Wm. Graham, of Brampton, is busy pressing straw and hay in this vicinity at present. Anyone having any baling to do should give him a call.

Mrs. Wright, of Toronto, arrived here last week.
We understand that Mr. Jas. Emmerson, one of our prominent citizens, has joined the navy. Success to you, Jimmy.
A number of our citizens attended Mr. Alex. McKay's Sale on Wednesday afternoon and report a very good sale. Mr. Frank Petch, Georgetown's hustling auctioneer, wielded the stick in his usual good-natured style and good prices were realized. The booth also did a thriving trade.
