WALTER METCALFE, FORMER GEORGETOWN RESIDENT DIES

Walter Edgerton Metcalfe a wellknown resident of Napanee, and formerly of Georgetown, died early Tuesday morning. February 1st, at his home. West Street. Mr. Metcalfe had been in failing health for some years and about four years ago suffered a stroke, which had ben since followed by several more attacks.

Mr. Metcalfe was an employee of The Gibbard Furniture Shops for about forty years and because of illhealth had to give up working about nine years ago. He was greatly interested all his life in poultry and was one of the organizers of the Napanee Poultry Association in which he held various offices. He was a member of the Foresters Order and of Grace United Church.

He was born seventy-two years ago at Drayton, of English parents. When a small boy his family moved Georgetown, where he served his apprenticeship in the furniture trade. For a short time he worked in a furniture factory in Elora and came to Napanee 48 years ago.

He was married 44 years ago Lucy Gartley, who survives. He also leaves three children, Edith, Mrs. Williams in Kitchener, and Walter and Marjorie, Mrs. Cassels in Detroit. Another son, Gordon, died in infancy.

His funeral was held at the Wartman Funeral Home, Thursday afternoon, at three o'clock, with Rev. C. D. McLellan, minister of Grace Church, in charge. Interment will be made in the spring in the Metcalfe family plot at Georgetown.

The pall-bearers will be Messrs. Ray before them. F. Perry, Sperry Fraser, Harry Sutton. William Ballance, Markland Miles and Arthur Rock

ASHGROVE NATIVE DIES IN MICHIGAN

Late Sam Stewart Lived Many Years In Far East-Veteran of Spanish-Amercan War.

Sam Stewart, a well known resident of Clare, Michigan, for many years passed away at the Veterans' Hospital at Fort Custer on Wednesday, February 16 th, following many months of ill health. The youngest son of James and Jane Stewart, he was born near Ashgrove on June 9th, 1867. He went to Vernon Township, Isabella County, Michigan with his parents May 1st, 1885 when nearly eighten years of age and settled on a farm there.

Enlisting in the U.S. Army the late Mr. Stewart served as a Sergeant during the Spanish-American War. Pollowing the war, he returned to his parents' farm where he built the house now occupied by the Walter White family. Following the death of his mother and father in 1907 and 1910 respectively, he moved to California and later went to China an the employment of the War Department where he remained many years before his retirement crossing the ocean fourteen times. Following his retirement he lived a number of years in Japan and spent considerable time traveling in that country and the United States. He spent the past several sumers a the home of his sister and husband

SAUL BECOMES A NEW MAN

LESSON TEXT: Acts 9:1-9, 13-19a. GOLDEN TEXT: If any man be in Christ e is a new creature.—II Corinthians 5:17

The lives of great men inspire us with an eagerness to make our own lives count for God and for country. Particularly is that true of the life of the apostle Paul, for he combined personal greatness with an absolute surrender and devotion to Christ, which made his life doubly effective.

We recall, however, that this peerless leader for Christ was at first the bitter enemy of everything Christian and we ask, "What changed this man?" The answer isthe redeeming grace of God-but that is the story of our lesson. He became a changed man as he went-I. From Threatening to Trembling

The enemies of God and of our Christ are often loudmouthed and terror-spreading individuals, who. for a time, strike fear into the hearts of men. Such was Saul of Tarsus. and such are the antichristian leaders of our day. They seem to be so powerful and able to sweep all

But wait! Luther said of God's archenemy, "One little word shall fell him," and it is true. See what happened to Saul. Off on his journeys of persecution and destruction, bold and determined, he met Jesus on the Damascus road, and the great threatener is found to be "trembling and astonished" (v. 6).

The Lord is still on His throne, and one day every mouth shall be stopped (Rom. 3:19), and all His enemies shall tremble before Him. Would that they would do it while there is time to repent.

II. From Persecuting to Praying (vv. 2, 8, 9; see also v. 11).

Paul utterly devoted to the rooting out of this hated sect of Christians was on his way with letters authorizing their imprisonment. I was all very official, zealous and marvelous in men's sight, until he met Jesus, and it all blew away.

Ananias, that faithful layman (may his tribe increase!), was called of God to go and speak to the stricken Saul. When he feared to go, God encouraged him (v. 15), for the powerful persecutor had now become a penitent pray-er (v. 11) That's what a face to face meeting with Jesus did for Paul-yes, and will do for any man or woman.

III. From Scoffing to Suffering (vv. 1, 13-16).

Saul doubtless gloried in the breathing out of threatenings and slaughter of which we read in verse 1. He was riding high in the seat of authority and of official approval I was satisfying to his fleshly pride to make known his dreadful purposes of destruction and imprisonment for these helpless Christians.---

Did we say helpless? Oh, no, they had on their side all the power of the Eternal One. He who touches the people of God touches the Lord Himself. Paul thought he was fight ing a little sect of Christians, but found that he was fighting the Lor-Himself (v. 5).

But now that he had met Jesu: and was ready to turn in devotion to His sacred cause, he was to learn what it meant to suffer. Let us note well that suffering for the sake of one's faith may be entirely within the will of God, ves, and for His

IV. From Spiritual Death to Spiritaal Life (vv. 17-19).

Men have tried to explain the experience of conversion on the ground of psychology, as a cataclysmic change in the life of an individual who has gone through some great sorrow or trial, but it simply will not go down. There is in real cona completely changed life.

Saul did have a sudden and moving experience on the Damascus road, but it was not just because of a blinding light and a mighty voice. It was a light "from heaven" (v. 4), and the voice of the Lord.

Saul was "filled with the Holy Ghost," and received his sight. He was ready now to be used of the Lord as the greatest missionary

BRAY CHICK PROMPT SHIPMENT

INUSUALLY heavy hatches allow Uus to say definitely that if you order your Bray Chicks (either day-old or started) right away for prompt shipment we can probably fill your order without delay. That is more than we can prophesy for later in the season . Advance orders have been extremely heavy for later

But we can supply a lot of good Bray Chicks right now. And right now is a mighty good time to start chicks, Experience tells us that the highest egg prices of 1944 will be realized in September October November. Good Bray Ohicks started now, and raised right, should be in nice production just when prices are soaring. (If you take started chicks, of course, they will be laying that much larger eggs, and cashing in on the wide fall premiums for egg size). Just to make sure, in ordering, name a second choice on breed, grade, and date of shipment. (We'll do our level best, of course, to give you your first Manuel Millhausen Lion's Head Ont.- Bray Chicks are the best I have ever had. I was very fortunate to be able to get them." Pat Dapello, South Porcupine, Ont.- "Your chicks last year were really something to brag about. I lost but a few and what were left were wonderfu."

Mrs. J. L. Smith, Waltham Station, P. Q.-Out of the 439 chicks I received, I raised 417 good healthy chickens. They have turned out very profitable birds."

Mrs. Amy Flendley, Pleasant Hills, N. S .- These chicks were the best I ever raised. I am very pleased with them.

James N. Jones, South Nelson, N.B .- "I think there is one other name you should have added and that is 'Victory Chicks'. You have the best laying birds I have ever purchased."
