LIMEHOUSE

Mrs. J. L. Ellerby Russell McDonald and A. W. Benton, vice-chairman of Limehouse district canvassed for the Canadian Red Cross drive and met with a better response than ever before.

First and second prizes, respectively were won by Mrs. J. Ellerby and Mrs. E. Miller at the W. I. euchre held at Mrs. A. Hill's on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. A. W. Benton won the door prize. The March committee served a delicious St. Patrick's lunch at the close.

Water from the recent thaw together with ice-filled culverts, caused trouble in Limehouse this year. Some cellars were beyond rubber boot depth. The County road is quite soft and cutting up badly.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble included: Mr. and Mrs. S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilkinson and Miss Coyle of Cheltenham; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Switzer and Mrs. Switzer, Sr. of Acton.

The meeting was called by the trustees for the purpose of considering Township School Area. Mr. Skuce, the Inspector was present and explained the Township School Area under four headings: History—Meaning of T.S.A.—Procedure, and Financial. Mr. Skuce's talk was interesting and informative, and brought out some good discussion. Another meeting is to be held Wednesday evening April 5th, when it is hoped Mr. Skuce will be present and that all the ratepayers and parents will be present to hear and discuss the matter which is important for the benefit of the children.

A vote of thanks was presented to Mr. Skuce for his talk and his willingness to answer all the questions asked. The W. I. Euchre will be held in the School Friday evening with proceeds for war work.

ACTON
Last year there was a total of 28,180,000 gallons of water pumped through the Acton waterworks system and 23,682,23 gallons were sold. Fire protection, drinking fountains, water in the cemetery and such unmetered services accounted for 4,497,777 gallons. The amount of water used in 1943 was more than double that used in 1938, just five years ago.

With returns from several quarters not yet completed, Acton and District has gone over its objective by $1000 in the present campaign.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall R. R. No. 5, Rockwood, when friends and neighbours met to honor Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Wilson who have recently sold their farm and moved to Acton.

Mrs. B. Reid has sold her home on Young Street to Mr. E. Davies, Limehouse.

The funeral of the late Wm. Alexander Gray took place last Tuesday afternoon from the home, Main St., Rockwood—Free Press.

OLD FASHIONED
It was his first visit to the big city. Walking into the city post office, he said "Half a pound of ham, please." The amazed assistant said they did not sell ham.

"Ye dinna?" he exclaimed. "Ye're awful behind the time. In the post office where I come from they sell ham, apples, firelighters, eggs and a hundred little things."

TIMES HAVE CHANGED
Father, after looking at young son's report card: "Don't tell me you let a mere girl get ahead of you?"
Son: "But, Daddy, girls aren't as mere as they used to be."

Bruce Kitchin, who joined the navy recently, reported on Tuesday to H. M. C.S. York—Champion.

BALLINAFAD
The open meeting held at the home of Mrs. Robt. McEnery Friday evening by the Women's Association was very successful.

A good program under the leadership of Mrs. Jesse McEnery consisting of solos, recitations and contests was enjoyed by all after which a St. Patrick's tea was served by the committee in charge.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Alvin Starret in her recent bereavement in the passing of her mother.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. Bullock on the birth of a baby girl in Brampton Hospital, Edith Nancy, a sister for "Reggie".

The two Sr. Classes of the Sunday School are putting on a play "A pair of Country Kids" in the community Hall Ballinafad, Wednesday evening, April 5th. A good crowd is hoped for to encourage the young people in their good work.

Mrs. F. C. Lyons has gone to the West on an Easter trip. We all wish her a very pleasant trip and a safe return.

Mr. Vincent Bottom of Toronto is spending a few days at his old home here.

We understand that Mr. George Eaves, another of our prominent citizens was in Toronto trying his examinations for the Navy. Success to you Mrs. Puckering and her daughter, Annie of Toronto were pleasant visitors in our Hamlet on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Wm. Graham of Brampton is a busy man these days pressing straw and hay in our Hamlet at present.

Our correspondent was very much interested in the splendid historical write-up in the Herald recently on the old "Reminiscences of Trafalgar Township". What about some old timers giving us a write up about Terra Cotta, which at one time was better known as "Salmonville" when the old river Credit here was loaded down with Salmon. It is perhaps worthy of note by the way that that's where Salmonville derived its name. Terra Cotta derived its name after the Terra Cotta Brick yards here. Sorry to say that we have no brickyards, or salmon either, now.

Robins may be heard in the mornings now, and spring seems to be lurking around the corner. But don't take them of for a while yet.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McKane (nee Margaret Macdonald) on the birth of their son on Thursday, March 23rd.
