POST WAR PROBLEMS DISCUSSED AT LIBERAL ANNUAL MEETING

Post War Problems were discussed at the Annual Meeting of the Halton Liberal Association last Thursday evening by Hughes Cleaver, member for Halton, and in his remarks Mr. Cleaver told of some of the plans of the government to meet this period and bring Canada through in the same way that has made our war effort an example among the nations.

The meeting was a supper gathering at the new Merton School on the Queen Elizabeth Highway and the Merton Home and School Club, of which Mrs. Geo. Atkins, Woodlands is President; arranged and served a delightful meal. The Club uses the funds raised to send boxes to the boys from the school serving overseas.

Officers elected were LeRoy Dale, Georgetown, President; Alex. Cooke, Milton, Secretary; and Victor Hall, Treasurer. Two vice-Presidents will be elected later. Warm praise was given Mr. T. G. Ramshaw, the retiring Secretary, for his work and loyalty of service over many years. Tribute was also paid the late Archie Galbraith who was treasurer for so many years, and whose death a few months ago was mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The meeting also took the form of a discussion group and many of the problems of all parts of the riding were discussed with Mr. Cleaver and suggestions made to assist in administration in this difficult war period.

CHECK RATION BOOKS

Those who have obtained ration book No. 4 are urged to carefully check the number of sheets in the new book. The book should contain 11 sheets consisting of one sheet of green tea-coffee coupons; one sheet pink sugar coupons; one sheet orange preserves coupons; two sheets purple butter coupons; four sheets brown meat coupons; and one each of 'H' and 'K' coupons. If the book does not contain this number, it should be returned immediately to the local ration board.

AUTHOR WHO PUBLICIZED GEORGETOWN NOW IN RUSSIA

The author who gave wide publicity to Georgetown and its war effort through a profusely illustrated article in Maclean's magazine three years ago, entitled "Community War", is now in Russia getting some first-hand information for his free-lancing writing. Many will remember Raymond Davies by the aforementioned article as well as another excellent article in the "Canadian Countryman" in which he told all about Hunter's Inn, on the outskirts of Georgetown.

Raymond Davies sent a telegram to Rita Maw, daughter of the proprietor of Hunter's Inn, from Moscow, Russia, dated March 20th, which she received a few days later. The exact wording of the message is interesting, and shows the person transmitting it was not too familiar with English spelling. Here it is:

25 Cable Via Mackay Radio
Moscow, March 20

Rita Maw,
Georgetown, Ont.

Greetings Mother how eye miss your steaks at your company stop having interestinest time of my life wish you were here to see country and people and wonderful fight.

(Signed) Raymond Davies.

SHOCKING STORY OF JUVENILES ON A WARTIME BINGE

Juveniles on the loose! That describes thousands of teen-age girls roaming the country, on the streets, in dance halls, out for money and excitement. Read "Juveniles on the Loose," by Genevieve Paryhurst, famous sociologist, starting in The American Weekly with this Sunday's (April 16) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times.

Victory Loan Campaign opens on April 24th. Be prepared to subscribe.

R. W. Johnson Died In Northern Ontario

Many friends in this district will regret to learn of the death on Saturday April 1st, of R. W. Johnson at the Kirkland Lake Hospital. Mr. Johnson had been in ill health for some years and seriously ill for the past few weeks.

For fourteen years he was postmaster at Limehouse prior to removing to Thornloe where he has resided for the past eight years. After going to northern Ontario he wrote many interesting letters for this paper telling of northern life and conditions which were greatly enjoyed by our readers. They were always bright and cheery and gave little hint of the poor health in which he has lived for some time.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Miss Mabel Bell, three sons, Harold of Wawatwan Falls; Wilfred, and Donnie at home; five daughters, Evelyn (Mrs. Burns) of Kirkland Lake; Dorothy, (Mrs. Harold Ankram) of North Bay and Lillian, Alice and Shirley at home. To all of these sympathy of many friends here goes in this time of bereavement, and to his mother, who resides at Kirkland Lake and the sisters Eva and Orpha at Maybrooks, Michigan at Montreal and Lillian of Michigan State.

The funeral was held on Wednesday with service at the home at Thornloe.

ADDRESSES ON THE MOVE...

IN SPITE OF ALL WAR HAZARDS

31,500,000 LETTERS

REACHED YOUR MEN OVERSEAS LAST YEAR

Do you remember the "Change of Address" form which you filled out when you moved your civilian home? After that was filed at your local Post Office, every letter sent to your old address had to be redirected to the new one, and that went on until your correspondents were familiar with your new location.

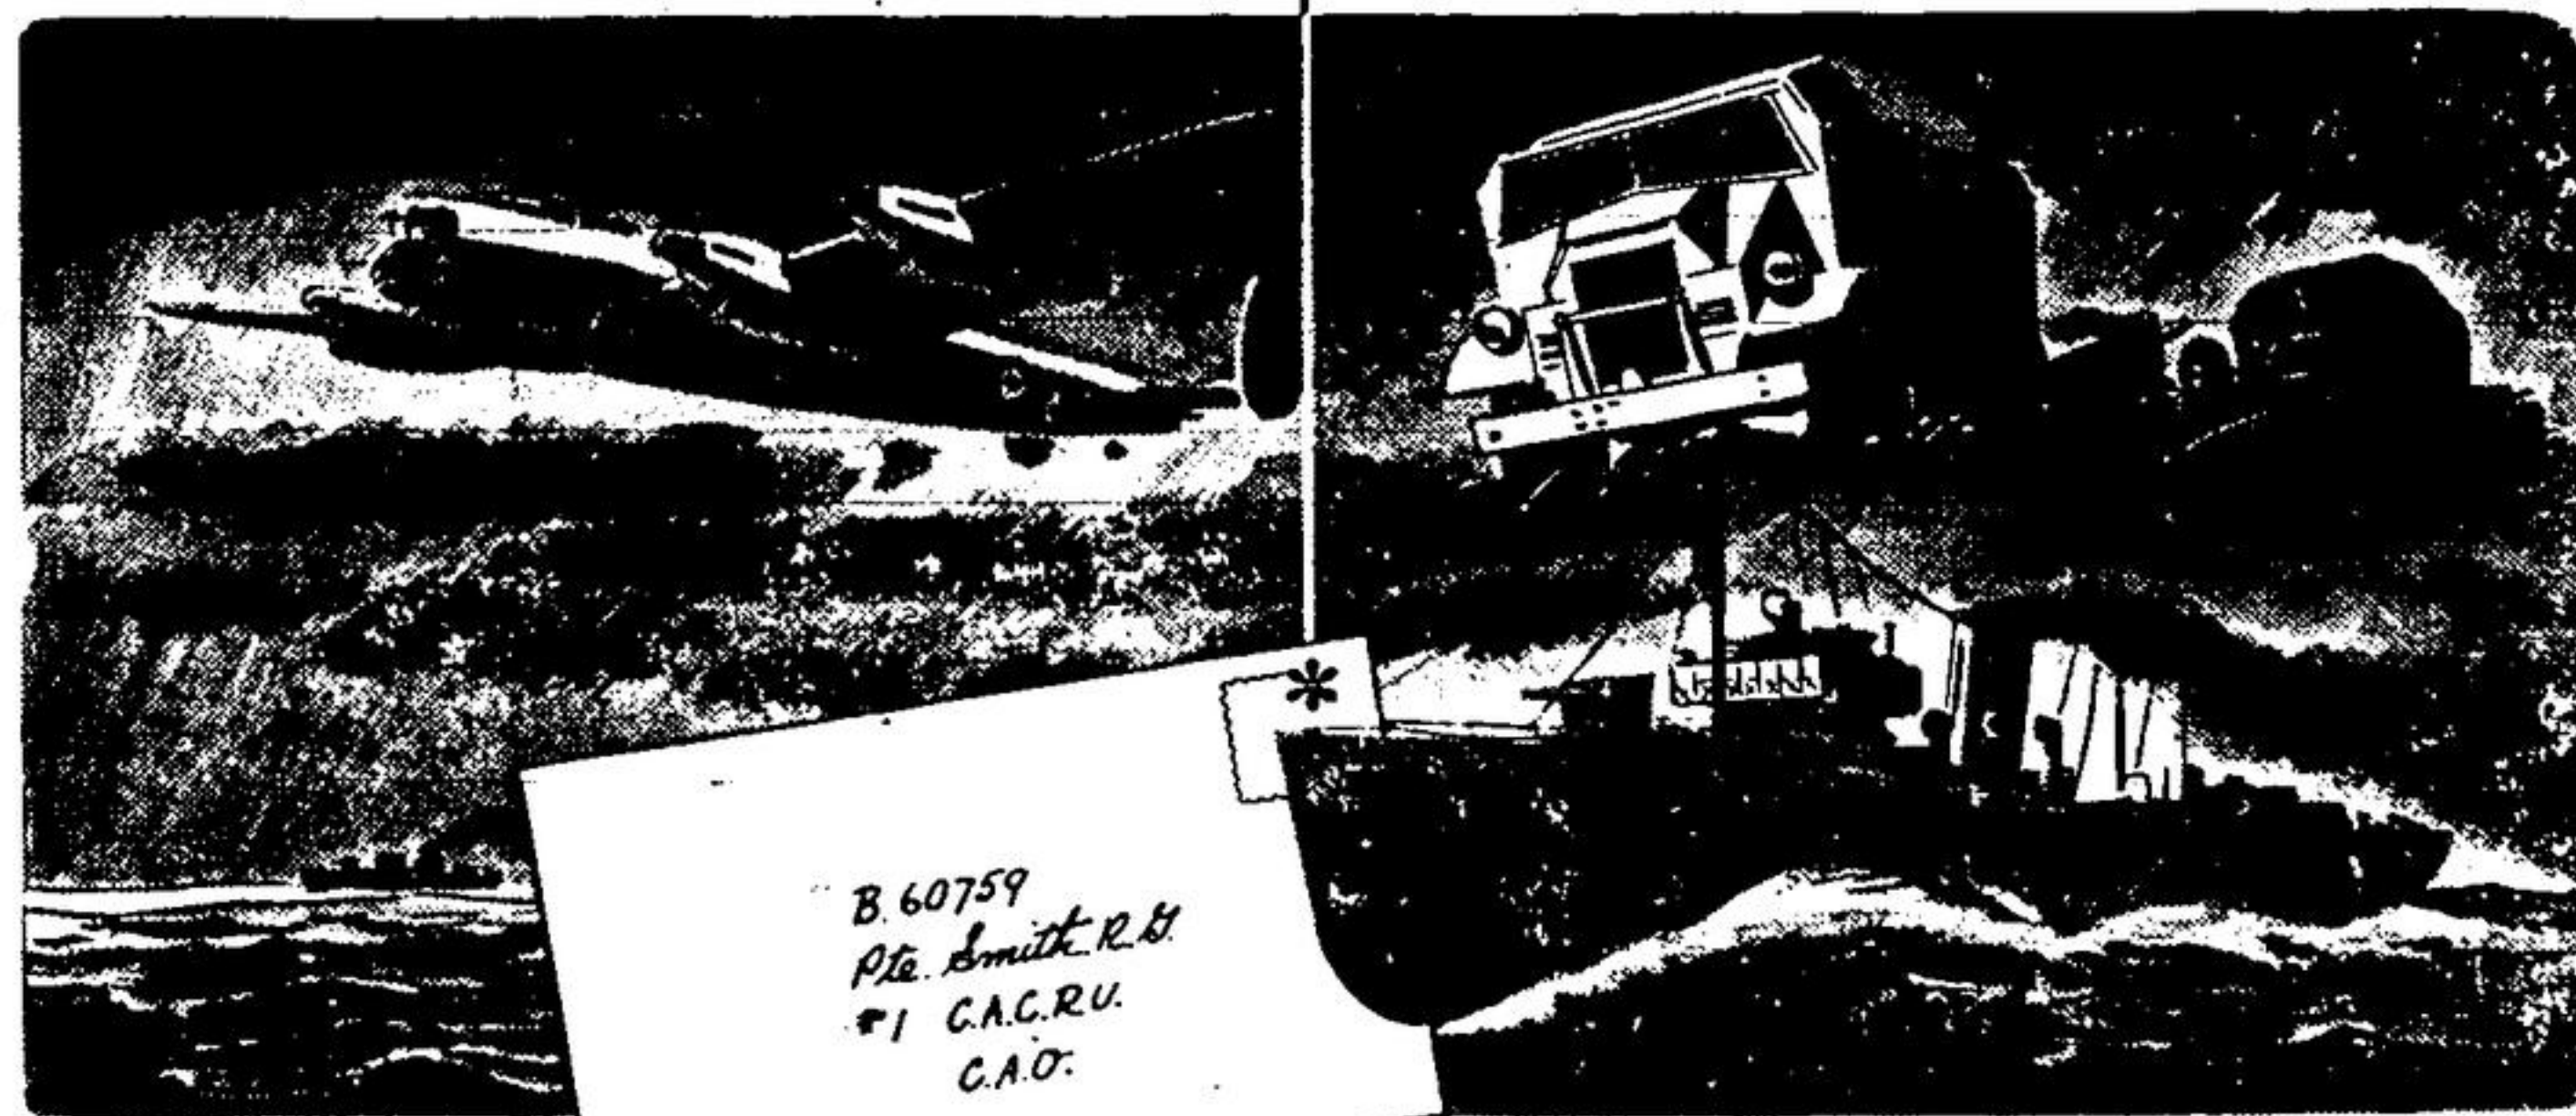

Probably you didn't move very often, but each time you did, the Post Office gave redirectory service. And if you will think about that for a moment, you will begin to see what a stupendous task confronts the Canadian Postal Corps in handling the military mails, when thousands of men are being moved almost daily!

Yet, in spite of the need of tracing men from reinforcement units to their locations on fighting fronts . . . in spite of the need of tracing them through hospitalization . . . or while on leave . . . when their unit is moved . . . in spite of delays in air mail service caused by adverse flying conditions . . . of delays in surface transportation caused by enemy action . . .

in spite of every war hazard you can think of . . . your Post Office and the Canadian Postal Corps delivered 31,500,000 letters to men overseas in 1943!

It is inevitable that, in tracing men who have been moved, or wounded, some delays occur. It is inevitable that enemy action holds up delivery in some cases. But everything that human ingenuity and effort can do to give you a service that means speedier delivery of the letters your men are waiting for, is being well and thoroughly done, and will be done. New methods of speeding mail deliveries are being put into effect, new possibilities are being studied. Think of your own friends who have been posted to new locations overseas, and realize the task of tracing them when their mail arrives at their former address!

You can help your Post Office and the Canadian Postal Corps to give even better service if you will take a moment to make sure that your mail is correctly prepared. Do these simple things . . .

1. Always be sure each letter or parcel (properly packed) is fully and correctly addressed.
2. Use light-weight paper for regular Air Mail, or use the Armed Forces Air Letter Forms. Airgraph letters take a little longer because they must be processed in Canada and overseas.
3. To men in hospital, mark your letter "In Hospital", if you are advised to this effect.
4. Never put into parcels perishable food, or any substance that can be damaged by extremes of temperature.
