The Going is Hard WILL OUR BOYS CRY SHAME! SHAME! ONLY THREE MORE DAYS TO GO AND WE ARE STILL FAR, MUCH TOO FAR FROM ATTAINING OUR OBJECTIVE.

Your committee has had wonderful support and co-operation from old stand-bys who love to see a worthy undertaking well and promptly done.

During the first week, everything pointed to complete success, but early in the second week the subscriptions and totals began to drop in a most disconcerting way. The sorry fact is that the first fine response brought in the easy or sure money; let us ponder this fact; the surest money comes from the families of the boys overseas.

We ask every thinking citizen to let his or her conscience dictate at this supreme moment. Every responsible citizen of this district is in duty bound to serve in this way.

Bombs have not wrecked our homes or mutilated our children. Surely that merits a thank offering.

Victory Bonds are Bonds of Friendship the medium by which we can decently join with our heroes as one unconquerable army, determined to destroy forever the monsters of heartless cruelty, hatred and oppression.

Let us all do our part fully and at once. If conscience decides, thousands more Victory Bonds will be taken. Every extra dollar you can spare will be gratefully received for the worthiest and most urgent cause our people have ever supported.

Your Victory Loan Convasser or your Bank will welcome and assist you. DO NOT WEAKEN, VICTORY IS FOR THE STRONG.

Sincerely yours L. E. FLECK W. F. BRADLEY Joint Chairmen, Georgetown District Victory Loan Committee

Without any warning whatever the horse bolted up the street at a fast gallop. He was going at such a rate he couldn't make the corner at John and McNabb Streets and went head first into the stone wall on the property of Mr. Bert Weston. The horse and rig banged into a hydro pole at the same time and as a result power was interrupted for three quarters of an hour at Smith & Stone Ltd., and C. B. Dayfoot and Co. Other than being badly bruised and cut about the chest, the horse was apparently none the worse for the escapade.

HORSE INTERRUPTS HORSE-POWER: A bit of "horseplay" started pedestrians and drivers along John Street one day last week, when the horse drawing one of Weston's Bakery rigs suddenly ran wild. The driver, Ray Gerry, was giving him a drink and had brought the rig to a halt a little past Buck's corner.
