PAUL IN CORINTH

LESSON TEXT—Acts 18:1-4; 1 Corinthians 13.
GOLDEN TEXT—But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.—1 Corinthians 13:13.

Who is a Christian? One might answer in a number of ways. He is one who has been saved by the redeeming grace of Jesus Christ. He is one who seeks to live a life in accord with the will of God. He is a witness for God, and so on. But the answer that the whole world understands is a life in which the redeeming love of Christ begets a true love for one's fellow man.

I. An Example of Christian Love (Acts 18:1-4).

Teaching and preaching are God's ordained way for presenting the truth. They are effective, but only when done by one whose life exemplifies the truth. In his letter to the Corinthians Paul gives the greatest discussion of love known to the world, but before he wrote it he had lived that truth before them. The Holy Spirit spoke through him of love, because He had already lived the truth out in the preacher.

Two things appear here: Paul was:

1. Working (vv. 1-3). The world's most distinguished missionary and preacher had arrived in Corinth. Where was the welcoming committee of local dignitaries? There was none. Whose comfortable home would receive him? None was offered. His was the lot of the pioneer for Christ. He had to hunt up a Jewish fellow craftsman and go to work to earn his bread.

Paul, like every other Jewish boy, had learned a trade, something he could do with his hands. He was a tent and sail maker, and was not ashamed to work at his trade. A more recent follower of Christ put it thus: "My business is to preach the gospel, but I pack meat to pay the expenses."

But notice that Paul did not let this work become the chief thing. As the Lord prospered him he did not decide to "go back into business." No, for his real business was:

2. Witnessing (v. 4). He began, as was his custom, in the synagogue, presenting Christ to Jews and Greeks. The Jews opposed him (see v. 6), and then Paul addressed himself to the Gentiles.

God prospered that ministry and encouraged Paul by a vision, assuring him that the Lord had "much people" (v. 10) in that wicked city. The love of Christ in Paul thus shone forth as a light in the darkness of sin and superstition.

Love was something which the heathen world of Paul's day had so misrepresented and distorted (even as it has today) that it needed definition and exposition. So we have—

II. An Explanation of Christian Love (1 Cor. 13).

This is one of the outstanding chapters of all Scripture. Its magnificent discussion of the greatest of all themes has drawn forth many choice expositions.

The thought centers around the emptiness of the loveless life, the glory of the life of love, and the eternal unchangeable power of love. We gather it up in three words.

1. Indispensable (vv. 1-3). Without love man's attainments are empty. He may become an orator with a "heavenly" gift of speech, but unless he truly loves, his elegant and persuasive talk is just a meaningless noise. How true!

One may also have marvelous gifts of prophetic insight and wonder-working faith, and find that it is all a vain and empty experience without love. Our world leaders could well study that verse just now.

Sacrificial interest in the needs of mankind is a fine trait in man, but it must have the love of Christ in it or it too is profitless. As we think of feeding the hungry nations of the earth, let us not forget to make it worth while by doing it in Christian love.

2. Incomparable (vv. 4-7). The standard for the life of a Christian is a very high one; in fact, it is impossible of attainment apart from the grace and power of Christ. Naturally, we find ourselves to be impatient, proud, suspicious, resentful, etc. The new nature in Christ is just the opposite, for love rules.

Note that phrase "endureth all things." We need that in these days when it is so hard to keep on going, or as someone said, "to keep on keeping on." Love endures all things.

3. Immutable (vv. 8-13). All things in life change and pass away. Love is eternal and unchangeable. Even the spiritual gifts have their fulfillment and pass from view, but love shall endure through all eternity. God, the Eternal One, is love (1 John 4:8, 16).

When we shall come to that perfectness of understanding which is to be ours one day, when we shall know even as God now knows us, then we shall see love as the supreme gift, eternal in its power and validity.

LIMEHOUSE

Twelve ladies attended the W.M.S. May meeting at the home of Mrs. Cochrane on Thursday evening. Miss Jean Ruddell played a lovely piano solo, "Sweet By and By." Mrs. S. Glsby and Mrs. A. W. Benton, jointly, reviewed the first part of the Study Book, "Our India Story". At the close of the meeting Mrs. Cochrane served a dainty lunch.

During the offering on Sunday, Mrs. A. W. Norton sang "I Am Dreaming Tonight".

Mr. and Mrs. Thorton and Mrs. Angus McDonald of Georgetown spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. Miller.

Miss Ivens spent Saturday with the Newton's.

Miss Esther Taylor and her Sunday School class of St. Alban's Anglican Church, Acton, enjoyed a hike to Limehouse and a picnic supper on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow and Elaine and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lane and Carol spent Sunday with Mrs. R. Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill and family visited with son Denis of R. C. Navy and his wife and family.

Miss Mary Kirkpatrick entertained 22 fellow members of her high school form and their friends at her home on Saturday evening.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Next! MOVIES THAT "LIVE AND BREATHE"

... the work of men who think of tomorrow

3-DIMENSIONAL MOVIES, they're called—so realistic that the characters seem to step from the screen and pass beside you. Planes roar out of the sky and into the very theatre. Flowers in a garden seem to spill their petals right into your lap. Every screen play is a vast and enthralling spectacle, so true to life you feel you are one of the actors! That's the movie of the future, being perfected now by Men Who Think of Tomorrow!

No continent in all this world is more fortunate in the tremendous improvements in everyday living which await it. That is because we are blessed with MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW!

• How important it is, therefore, that we make firmer our resolves and increase our daily efforts to bring that Tomorrow to pass. Remember, an enemy stands between us and Tomorrow. He is staking his all on keeping it from us. Can we do less than this to defeat his purpose?

• Let us create Victory! Let us wrest it from the very soil we till, the very tools we use in our factories, the very dollars we earn! Keep up production rates, yes, exceed them. Buy more and more Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates. Do anything and everything to help win this war.

• Let's all be MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW!

THE HOUSE OF SEAGRAM

All Seagram plants in Canada and the United States are engaged in the production of high-proof alcohol. High-proof Alcohol for War is used in the manufacture of Smokeless Powder, Synthetic Rubber, Plastics, Drugs and many other wartime products.
