

ATTENTION!

Urban Dwellers and Farmers of Georgetown District

THE CROPS MUST BE SAVED

URBAN DWELLERS:

1. Surplus Feed Supplies in the West are becoming depleted.
2. Crops locally must be saved.
3. Farm Help is very scarce—Your help odd days, half days, a few hours after supper, can be used to advantage to relieve serious situations.
4. Farmers will pay up to 40 cents per hour and meals.
5. Register NOW at Local Commando Headquarters—The lads on the Beachheads of France must be supported.

FARMERS:

1. If you require help, make known your needs to the local Commando Headquarters, the day previous to the need.
2. If local supplies are inadequate, an effort will be made to secure Toronto Commandos.
3. A limited number of Western Farm Hands may be available for two months—for these contact the Agricultural Office—Milton 239

Local Commando Headquarters

MR. CLARE WILSON
c-o Hedley Shaw's Feed Store
Phone 195 or evenings 45W

LOCAL NEWS

—The strawberry season is with us again.

—One week from Saturday, the 1st of July, is a public holiday.

—The office of Dr. C. V. Williams will be closed during the month of July.

—Only three months until Georgetown Fall Fair, Friday and Saturday, September 15th and 16th.

—Dance to Doris Hulle's Orchestra at Girls' Pipe Band 2nd Annual-Street Dance on June 29th.

—Ladies of the Lorne Scots Auxiliary don't forget the Pot-Luck Supper at the home of Mrs. H. C. McClure, on Tuesday, June 27th, at 8:30.

—John M. Hodgins, noted teacher at the Toronto Conservatory of Music, will conduct examinations for the Conservatory in Georgetown, on June 29th.

—Four Georgetown High School Cadets, Alfred Toss, George Cousens, Arthur McAllister and Walter Sargent are taking two week's intensive training at the Cadet Camp at Bolton.

—Highland gathering on Main Street South, the evening of June 29th, sponsored by the Girls' Pipe Band. Dancing, Bingo and good music.

—The Red Cross Society gratefully acknowledges receipt of $10.88 from Mrs. Penon being the proceeds from the sale of hats.

—The Ladies' Work Section of the Georgetown Fall Fair prize list has now been revised and will be published in full in next week's Herald. The prize money in this section has also been greatly increased, and the ladies will do well to get as large an entry ready for the fair as possible.

—Garden Party at John W. Snow's, lot 20, 7th line, on Wednesday, June 29th, sponsored by Ballinacred United Church W. A. Guelph Old Tyme Fiddlers and Concert Troupe. Musicians and novelty dancing, Irish and Scotch Comedian, O.K.O.R. radio star. Western songs Refreshment booth on the grounds Admission 35c and 15c

—Services to commemorate the 124th Anniversary of Boston Church will be held on June 26th at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., Daylight Saving Time. The Rev. Mr. Douglas from Toronto, will be the Minister for the day, and special music will be rendered by the choir

THREE STOLEN CARS IN TOWN AND VICINITY

Stolen cars are in the news in Georgetown this week. A 1936 Chevrolet sedan belonging to Mr. Robert McArthur was stolen from in front of his home on Main St. North at 8 o'clock in the morning on June 13th. Mr. McArthur is employed at Glen Textile Ltd. Police are investigating. So far no trace of the stolen automobile has been found.

On the same day, in response to a phone call from Limehouse, Chief W. G. Marshall and Constable Merv. Robb discovered a 1940 Ford sedan in the ditch at the Limehouse crossroads. It was immediately traced as the car recently stolen from G. Dantrum of 110 Westmount Ave., Toronto.

On June 9th, Acting Chief of Police Merv. Robb and Traffic Officer Ray Mason, arrested Fred Forbes of Milton, who had taken a car without permission from in front of the Exchange Hotel. The car belonged to E. Louth of Norval. He took the car about 5:30 drove it to Hamilton and returned it to the front of the Hotel around 10:30 the same day. At police court in Milton last week he was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment, with hard labor

TERRA COTTA

Mr. and Mrs. J. Vandervliet and family are spending this week at their home in Toronto

Mr. J. Edges, who is working at Limehouse, spent the week end at his home here

There are rattle-snakes at Terra Cotta Mr. Vandervliet killed a rattle-snake, believe it or not in his garden last week. Of course it was not a very large one and this should be a warning to be on the look out for the rattlers, as probably there will be more in the vicinity

Anumber of our citizens took in the A number of our citizens took in the Georgetown on Saturday evening and all report an excellent time.

Mr. Fred Hilton of Nobel, Parry Sound District is visiting with Terra Cotta friends. He reports very dry weather up there and the crops are peeding rain very badly.

Mr. Fred Phillips is laid up with a sore shoulder, we hope he will be able to be on deck again soon.

Haying will be in full swing this week.

House-cleaning seems still to be the general order of the day.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. N. J. Stinger is now able to be around again after his recent illness.

Mrs. J. Mackie, who has been spending the week end with friends in Toronto has returned.

Mr. Leslie Ioan has erected an up-to-date wire fence around his property here which adds considerably to its appearance.

Miss L. Snow of Ballinacred has been re-engaged at the 5th Line School where she is an efficient teacher and we wish her continued success in her pedagogical duties here.

We also understand that Miss M. Eason of Glen Williams has been engaged for another year at the 10th Line School. We also wish her continued success.

Mrs. Petch, who has been spending a few days with Terra Cotta friends, has also returned to her home in Toronto.

Mrs. H. Puckering and family of Toronto, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. K. Ioan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr of Toronto spent the week end with Mr. Vincent Bottom.

Mr. L. Ioan reports a rushing trade in bicycles at present

Active Service Notes

Pte. Thomas Hancock has been transferred from Sussex N. E., to Halifax, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Presswood received a cable Monday, telling of Pte. J. Presswood's safe arrival in Great Britain. Before going overseas, Pte. Presswood trained at Debert and Windsor, N.S.

Cpl. Bill Armstrong of Arnprior is home on a two-week furlough.

AC2 Ron Latimer has been transferred to Centralia from Toronto.

Although they were slightly delayed, Mrs. Jesse Brandford was very pleased to receive on Tuesday, a beautiful bouquet from her son Pte. Walter Brandford, who is serving in Italy, intended for Mother's Day. By happy coincidence they arrived on Mr. and Mrs. Brandford's 45th Wedding Anniversary.

LIMEHOUSE W. I.

Garden Party

at
S. S. No. 9
June 30th

GOOD PROGRAM
at 8.30 p.m. sharp
Booth on the grounds
"DUTCH AUCTION"
Dance to the music of the
"RHYTHM RUBES"
afterwards

Admission 25c

Style in Glasses

YES your glasses should be made to fit your particular type of face.

We specialize in Eye Examination and prescribe attractive glasses at city prices.

For Expert Eye Service and newest style in glasses,

CONSULT

O. T. Walker, R. O.
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

who will be at his office over the Bell Telephone Co. Main Street Georgetown, the second Wednesday of each month, or you may consult O. T. Walker at his office in Brampton.

PHONE: Georgetown 67
Brampton 599

MONSTER BARN DANCE

— AT —
R. J. CUNNINGHAM'S BARN
South of Georgetown, on Monday Evening, June 26th
Modern and Old Tyme Dancing
RUSS CREIGHTON'S VARIETY BAND
Dancing from 9 till 2

DANCING
Stanley Park
ERIN
EVERY FRIDAY
MERRY MAKERS
ORCHESTRA
Every Wednesday
HARVEY FISHER'S
ORCHESTRA
(Old Time and Modern)
Dancing 9-1 Admission 50c

LEVER BROTHERS'

LIFEBUOY FOLLIES

The Show the Armed Forces Laughed at for Two Solid Years

A Breezy, Riotous Fun-Fest - Wit - Vaudeville - Burlesque - Song

FIRST CIVILIAN TOUR ALL PROCEEDS TO THE GEORGETOWN RED CROSS

Thursday Eve'g, June 29th, 8:00 p.m.

CAST OF THE FOLLIES READING FROM LEFT TO RIGHT:

Front row—Irene Hughes, Joan Elaine, Pat Rafferty Helen Bruce, Daphne MacFarlane
Back row—Jimmy Devon, Jack Ayre, Norman Evans.

Gregory Theatre, Georgetown

ONE NIGHT ONLY

EVERYONE IN GEORGETOWN SHOULD SEE THIS SHOW.

Tickets

on sale at all
Drug Stores and at the Herald Office

This advertisement sponsored in the interests of the Red Cross Society

Song and guitar impersonator, DAPHNE MacFARLANE renders her own inimitable version of "Civil Service Song."