Adrica, to a hospital back to England and then back to Italy. You had addressed it to the 48th Highlanders.

I should very much like to send you the bit of the original wrapper that was on it, but L'm afraid it would not pass the censor, so in the meantime I shall enquire and if possible I'll send it. As I mentioned the (original wrapper) for I received it wrapped in newspaper and tied with a very heavy cord. It does prove though just how much trouble the Canadian Postal Corps goes to deliver the goods.

Incidentally, another for Ripley is that the contents of the parcel were in excellent condition. The chocolate bars were not even broke.

Thanks a million ladies, it was even more appreciated than if it had reached here a year ago.

To repeat a letter I wrote you in March 1944, I received a carton of malled in April, the previous year from you ladies. So let me repeat, thanks a Italy, back to England then to North lot for cigarettes and parcels received for the last four years. I should also like to let you know that gift percels morning at the home of Jimmie and cigarettes are coming through
