ASHGROVE

The August meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of the president, Mrs. R. Hepburn. Mrs. Hepburn conducted the opening exercises and business session. The program was in charge of the Junior Girls with Miss Margaret Alexander as convener. The roll call was answered by "What I would like to be if I could" and brought some interesting ambitions to light. Miss Elsie Bird gave the motto "The Life of Carrie Jacobs-Bond" and this was followed by a most appropriate solo, "A Perfect Day" composed by Carrie Jacobs-Bond, and rendered by Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth. Miss Reta May favoured with a recitation. A vocal duet was given very acceptably by Doris Brownridge and Betty Riddell. An interesting paper entitled "Fifteen—going on twenty" was given by Miss Isabel Alexander. A piano solo by Joan May was much enjoyed. Doris Brownridge conducted a contest and the meeting closed with the National Anthem, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. W. Bird congratulated the girls on providing such a splendid program.
Master John Wrigglesworth of Milton has been holidaying with Herb and Billie Wilson this past week.
Mrs. James Mills and Master Jim Townin of Toronto have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson last week.
Mr. Norman Bird of Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., is spending his holidays at his parent's home, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Bird.
Miss Enid Shore of Woodbridge visited with Mrs. John Hunter this past week-end.
Mr. Henry Wilson has returned to Ashgrove after spending a few weeks in Hamilton, Carlisle and Hagersville. Colleen and Elvera Barnes of Ash, have been holidaying with their grandmother, Mrs. James Barnes.

NEPHEW OF MRS. FELLER WOUNDED IN FRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. George Lake, of Langstaffe, have received word that their son, Lieut. Jack Lake, was wounded in action in Normandy Aug. 10, suffering injuries to the right hip and both feet. Jack is a nephew of Mrs. A. H. Feller and a cousin of the editor.

I have six Able Serving Men; They taught me all I knew; Their names are What and Where and When, And How and Why and Who. —Kipling

WHAT? A good secretarial education offers the greatest possibilities for an outstanding career.
WHEN? Now! Never were so many and so remunerative positions open to highly qualified stenographers.
WHERE? At WELLES SECRETARIAL COLLEGE, because there is a difference between having taken a business course and being prepared to accept a responsible position.
HOW? By an "all out" Secretarial Course to prepare you for your first position and the beginning of a successful career.
WHY? Because business is crying for more and more secretaries and other office assistants.
