SAUL REJECTED

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 15:10-23.
GOLDEN TEXT—Because thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, he hath also rejected thee from being king—1 Samuel 15:23.

Moral failure is a direct result of disobedience to God's law. He established the moral order in the universe. His is the only right way, and the man who does not walk in God's way is wrong no matter how successful he may seem to be at the moment.

After a brief period of success, Saul sinned by intruding into the priests office at Gilgal (1 Sam. 13:10-14). This was soon followed by his disobedience in the battle with Amalek (1 Sam. 15:1-9). This brought final judgment from the Lord, and Saul stood revealed as I. A Self-Willful Backslider (vv. 10, 11).

"Turned back from following" God means just one thing, that is, turned back to self-will. These two principles, which are mutually exclusive, rule all actions of man—it is either God's will, or self-will.

Saul, who had every opportunity to make good as Israel's first king, lost out completely, and so turned away from God that God had to turn away from him, which is the thought expressed by "repenteth" (v. 11).

II. A Lying Hypocrite (vv. 12, 13). Knowing that he had done just the opposite, Saul puts on his best "Sunday-go-to-church" manner and professed to be very pious, and completely obedient (v. 13). One marvels at his temerity, but not so much so when one thinks of those in the church who put on the same kind of a "front" to cover a worldly, self-centered life.

Nothing hurts the cause of Christ more than the nifty hypocrites who deny by their lives before the community the thing for which the church stands. By the way, are you a hypocrite, you who read these lines? If so, flee to God in repentance. You are in bad company.

III. A Proved Deceiver (vv. 14, 15).

The difficulty with falsehood is that ultimately the truth comes to light. With Saul it came quickly, for the sheep which he said were dead were alive enough to bleat at just the right time. The deceit of Saul thus was proved in the very instant of his false declaration of innocence.

"Be sure your sin will find you out" (Num. 32:23) is not just a religious theory, it is God's word. "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy" (Prov. 28:13).

IV. A Proud Disobeyer (vv. 18-19).

Now Saul had to stand before Samuel and hear the words of God's condemnation. He had to face his own life and see the ground of the judgment of the Lord. He was reminded of the day of his humble dependence on the Lord, which had brought him exaltation to the highest place in Israel. To be small in one's own eyes is to be great in the eyes of the Lord. He is looking for the acceptable sacrifice of a humble heart (Ps. 51:17; Isa. 57:15).

The tumult and the shouting dies; The captains and the kings depart; Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice, An humble and a contrite heart; Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, Lest we forget, lest we forget! —KIPLING.

V. An Argumentative Evader (vv. 20, 21).

Once set in the way of disobedience, there seems to be no limit to the bold stubbornness of man. Instead of breaking down in contrition and confession, Saul tried to face the matter down by further argument and tricky evasion.

"I have obeyed," said he, "but the people." Who was king? Did the people obey Saul, or Saul the people? There is nothing honest about laying your sins over on another. How often people do it!

Notice also that Saul became very religious again. If anything had been done that seemed wrong, it was with a good purpose; they were going to "sacrifice to Jehovah."

"The sacrifices and ceremonies of religion are to aid and promote obedience, not to be a substitute. Disobedience can never be made a virtue, even though attended by a thousand sacrifices" (Stanley).

VI. A Rebellious Reject (vv. 22, 23).

"To obey is better than sacrifice." Oh, that we might learn that lesson which God through Samuel tried to teach to Saul. We need to recognize that giving to the church, or working for the church, is not enough; if there is not obedience to God; and with us that obedience must be the recognition of Christ as saviour and Lord.

Lip service, half obedience, a willingness to make sacrifices were not acceptable in the case of Saul. Be sure they are infinitely less acceptable to God in this day when we have His Son who wants to be our Saviour and to give us the enabling grace to obey His will.

REVERENCE

She was sitting by the window
When I walked past that day,
A dear, sweet-faced old lady
With scanty locks of gray.
Just quietly a-sitting
As still as still could be;
And I saw on looking closer,
A large Bible on her knee.
My heart beat a little faster
Such a happy sight to greet,
And the sweet-faced aged lady
Seemed to spur my lagging feet.
Some day my feet will falter
And my heavy hair grow white,
Then I hope to younger people
I will prove as sweet a sight
As the lady by the window
Proved that wintry day to me,
With the far-off gaze of reverence
And the Bible on her knee.

HALF A POUND

Half a pound, half a pound,
Half a pound onward!
All in the grocery store
Storm'd the six hundred.
"Forward the Wives Brigade!
Grab for the sacks!" they said;
Into the grocery store
Storm'd the six hundred.
"Forward, the Wives Brigade!"
Was there a dame dismayed
Not though the grocer knew
Someone had blunder'd;
Their not to make reply,
Their not to reason why,
Their but to try and buy;
Into the grocery store
Storm'd the six hundred.

Canned peas to right of them,
Canned beans to left of them,
Canned prunes in front of them,
Both fat and slender'd;
Mock'd at with hoot and grin,
Boldly they struggled in,
Into the grocery store,
Straight to the sugar bin,
Storm'd the six hundred!

When can their glory fade?
O the wild charge they made!
All the town wonder'd.
Honor the charge they made?
Nuts to the Wives Brigade!
Sour six hundred!

THE LITTLE ROOM

This little room is always strewn with toys.
The laughter of the tiniest of boys;
Here is the corner of the smallest one
Himself a tiny sparklet of the sun.
In his wee room, amid the great confusion,
He plays and sleeps and finds seclusion
So full of life—he'll send a toy a-flying.
Or trips and falls—we hear him crying,
His ears lie in a heap here on the floor,
One slipper pecking out behind the door:
His hat, when he can spare it from his head,
Tossed with some treasured toy, stop the bed.
Off-times, nose pressed against the window pane,
He waits for Daddy coming home again,
Or pulls a favorite book from out a drawer—
Will "Mummy" read it—just once more,
Oh! Let his about and play and romp at will,
Who wants a room that's orderly or still!
Mrs. Robert Charles

BRAMPTON

Fire starting in the barn while a threshing crew was on the job Tuesday, destroyed all farm buildings of Emerson, Westlake, Albion township clerk, Bolton, and set the barnyard of his son, Lindsay Westlake, across the street on fire, before a bucket brigade of 300 farmers could extinguish the flames. "Strong winds and bone dry grass caused flames to race in all directions," stated Fire Chief F. A. McCauley, of Bolton.

"Half of the grain crop—all hay, five registered Holstein cattle and all dairy equipment was lost," Mrs. Lindsay Westlake stated. "Sparks from the barn started three fires on the roof of the house and all furniture was carried out.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones, of Chapel St., received word on Wednesday morning that their son, Flying Officer Wm. Jones, R.C.A.F., is missing. He failed to return from an operational flight over France on August 18th. "Bill" enlisted over two years ago and after receiving training here went overseas in July, 1943.

Among the 178 successful candidates at the McMaster University Summer School was Georgina Eccles of Brampton.

The Town Council last Monday night passed a resolution appointing a committee to interview the Provincial Fire Marshall with the view to making an investigation into the alleged charges of Carl Borgstrom, Churchville, that the "Brampton Fire Brigade was inefficient and helpless. The motion passed through Council after the members had thoroughly discussed the affair and had gone on record that they believe the local firemen had done everything possible to give Mr. Borgstrom every assistance when they were called to a fire on his property early in July—Conservator.
