FUN FOR THE POSTMAN

Obviously of the bobby sock brigade was the Seattle girl who made a trip across Canada by Canadian National Railways in June and, when she was home again, sent a snap of herself to the steward of the dining car. She didn't know his name or address, so this is how she addressed him, taking the whole front of a large envelope to print the directions in capital letters: "TO THE STEWARD AND WAITERS OF A DINER ON THE CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILROAD LOCATED AT MONTREAL, QUEBEC, THAT ON THE 21ST OF JUNE WAS ARRIVING IN TORONTO, ONT., 12 HOURS LATE BECAUSE OF THE WASHOUT AT JASPER NAT. PARK. THIS DINER WAS HOOKED BEHIND A MILK TRAIN AT NORTH BAY FOR THE PURPOSE OF SERVING THE PEOPLE IN ONE STANDARD SLEEPING CAR. THE STEWARD LIVED IN WINNIPEG AND HAD TWO TURTLES, ONE OF WHICH HAD GOTTEN LOST AND ONE WHICH HE WAS TAKING HOME WITH HIM FOR A PRESENT. THIS DINER ARRIVED IN TORONTO AT 6:55 P.M. (TORONTO TIME) AND HAD TO LEAVE AT 11:00 P.M. TO MEET THE OTHER TRAIN. POSTMASTER: I KNOW THIS IS A VERY IRREGULAR ADDRESS FOR A LETTER BUT IT IS ALL I HAD AND I WANTED TO WRITE. I HOPE THAT YOU WILL HELP THIS LETTER ON ITS WAY TO THE CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILROAD AT MONTREAL, QUEBEC. THANK YOU."

GLEN WILLIAMS

The sad news concerning the sudden death of a dear daughter, Mrs. Lulu Bell Mino, was received here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bell, on Tuesday the 22nd inst. she having passed away in the Toronto General Hospital, after a very short illness. Mrs. Mino was born in Glen Williams and was a staunch member of the Methodist Church here for a number of years, and also an employee of the Beaumont Woolen Mills for some considerable time.
 Her long residence in Brampton served to make many friends and connection which has shown by the numerous floral tributes at her funeral held from the home of her parents in Glen Williams on Thursday the 24th inst. conducted by the Rev. J. A. McDermid of Brampton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Forman of Balaclava. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband, Mr. Leonard Mino, two daughters, Helen and Mary, also her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bell and four brothers, William of Vancouver, B. C., Ray of Oshawa, L. Cpl. Jas. Bell, now serving in Italy and Alfred, at home.
 The pallbearers were: A. Beaumont, M. Merry, J. J. Fry, H. Wicler, O. Giles, A. Norton.
 Interment was made in Glen Williams Cemetery.

—Don't miss seeing the outstanding display by the Arts and Crafts Cooperative at the Fall Fair, Sept. 16th.

MILTON

A new slide and ball screen have been added to the amusements for the children in the Milton play ground in Victoria Park.

LAC Harold Clements, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Clements received his Sergeant Pilot wings on Thursday, August 10th at No. 5, S. F. T. S. Brantford.

Pte. Robert Tonelli, aged 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Tonelli, Commercial Street, Milton has arrived home from France. He took part in the D-day invasion.

As a result of the investigation of Chief Harrop, Provincial Officer Ray Mason and a small advertisement in last week's issue of the Free Press, W. G. Fisher, 17 years of age, of Hanover is in the County jail and a stolen bicycle has been returned to its owner.

Casualties continue to bring sorrow to Canadian homes and the homes in Milton and district are receiving a share of the sorrow that war inevitably brings. One young man from here has during the week paid the supreme sacrifice Major Thomas John McArthur, and two more young Milton men are reported wounded. Capt. Kenneth Y. Dick and Corp. Leslie Collins. All were serving in France.—Champion.

—The Trick Horse Act promises to be a good one at Georgetown Fair, Sept. 16th.
