Arrangements were completed today to have the midway attractions that appeared at Brampton Fair come to Georgetown Fall Fair next week. They include a merry-go-round, aerial swings and other games.

While pruning some trees at the park last Saturday, one of the town employees, Mr. Wm. Spence, fell out of a tree and sustained a fractured hip, and wrist and was otherwise badly shaken up. He is in Guelph Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The Georgetown Board of Trade are planning to have a tent at Georgetown Fair, where farmers and others may spend a quiet time to chat with old friends and business associates.

An oddity in the vegetable world is a potato which is on display in the Herald window this week. The potato, which came from the garden patch of Mr. Fred McNally, has grown completely through a hole the size of a 10c piece which was made by a twisted nail.

Local apple growers are getting their heads together in order to put on a competition at the fair, and thus help out the fair exhibits generally.

The Board of Parks Management are making extensive improvements to the dance hall in the arena, and it should be an excellent spot for dancing and other entertainment when completed. It will be ready for the Fair Dance—the first of the season.

In response to Mr. H. L. Hutt's enquiry last week concerning seedling peach trees, Mr. R. S. MacArthur brought a peach from a seedling tree into the office and we have passed it on to Mr. Hutt. This tree planted from a peach stone four or five years ago at what is known as the Mulholland bungalow, bore 17 tasty, well developed fruit this year.

Norval Credit Lacrosse Club has put in a Bantam (under 15 Jan 1st) and a midget entry in the old Ontario Lacrosse Association and are hoping to do well in the play-off which is being held shortly. Further particulars will appear later. A fine season's playing has been enjoyed to date. Any boys of team age who have not yet come to practices and games may still play for the teams if they so desire. Phone 382 r 2 for further information.

REWARD

Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Thompson Honoured

A very delightful surprise party for Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Thompson of Edmlawn Farm, on the occasion of their Twentieth Wedding Anniversary August 28th, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Thompson, Edith Street, Georgetown, last Saturday evening with members of the family and friends taking part in the celebration.

Following a daintily served banquet which included a very prettily decorated wedding cake, an interesting program was enjoyed by all. On behalf of the gathering, congratulations and good wishes were extended to the guests of honour by Mr. J. G. Urwin of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson were the recipients of a gift of a pair of Hudson Bay Blankets. The presentation being made with a few well chosen words by Master Vern Pulling, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson. Mrs. Lewis Pulling of Indiana, wife of Major Pulling, United States Army overseas, performed the duties of hostess in a most charming manner. The remainder of the evening was spent in card games which brought to a close a most enjoyable time.

National Prayer Day Observed in Churches

The Churches throughout Georgetown and district observed the National Prayer Day on Sunday, September 3rd, in view of the fact that it was the fifth anniversary of the declaration of war on Germany by Great Britain. At St. George's Church members of the Town Council and other town officials attended in a body.

The following poem, written early in the war, expresses well the importance of prayer and these National Prayer days:

SOMEbody PRAYED

He crouched in ambush in the night,
The earth was trembling 'neath his feet,
His rifle hand was stiff and numb—
Better to die than know defeat!
And then he heard a gentle voice:
"No man hath greater love than this"
Had Someone on his heated brow
Laid soothing hands and tender kiss?
His Mother Prayed

A Messerschmidt was close behind,
Its gunfire whistled on the plane—
"O God" he once began to pray,
And turned to meet the foe again,
He wondered why he did not fear,
When suddenly up there alone
He felt another Presence near,
A steady Hand upon his own—
His Wife Prayed

The convoy darkly slid along,
He saw a sudden streak of white
Driving towards the vessel's prow
Was death approaching through the night?
He wondered why he thought of home,
The little church, its chimney spire,
"Eternal Father, strong to save,"
His little brothers in the choir—
His Church had Prayed

And in our well-loved Mother Isle
A Royal Family was bereaved,
A Mother Queen had bowed her head
As she with other mothers grieved,
Three years of anxious nights and days
Of fighting against fearful odds
Could not destroy the courage of
A King who placed his hand in God's—
An Empire Prayed
