Active Service Notes

ACI Gordon Martin has been transferred from St. Thomas to the ROAF station at Camp Borden.
A-B Bob Goldham is spending ten days leave in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goldham. He is a physical training instructor at HMCS Cornwallis in Nova Scotia.
Two brothers from town, Pte. K. W. (Jimmy) King and SQMS W. S. King are both in France with the Canadian troops but have not as yet met up with each other. Bill has been getting his mail and the Herald regularly, but Jimmy has had some hold-ups due to three changes of address. In his last letter Jimmy mentions seeing Jack Brill, Clifford Davison and Pere King and one of them gave him a Herald so he could catch up with some back news from home. SQMS Bill King mentions passing through Rouen and is in hopes that he will soon be able to have a reunion with his brother.
LAC Lorne Wardlaw, stationed in England with the ROAF is now a subscriber to the Herald and we hope he enjoys the weekly news from Georgetown.

Birthday congratulations go this week to WO2 John P. Wilson, who is a prisoner of war in Germany. John celebrated his 22nd birthday last Sunday, September 24th and we trust that his next birthday will be back home in town with his folks. He joined the ROAF in the Fall of 1941 and trained at Moncton, N.B., Montreal and Fingal, graduating as a wireless operator. Going overseas as a sergeant, he was shot down over Germany and taken prisoner on October 15th, 1942. His promotion to Warrant Officer, Class II, came since that time. John is the son of Mrs. Wilson and the late Arthur Wilson of Georgetown and the community joins with us in expressing their sympathy at the death of his father last week.
Excellent mail service from Italy is reported by Donald Latimer. Two letters from his son Pte. G. S. Latimer, posted in Italy on September 17th arrived in Georgetown on September 22nd.
