Galaxy of Attractions at Board of Trade Carnival

Vaudeville, Bands, Games, Booths, Bingo, Record-a-Voice, Grand Draw and Dancing

It has everything. Yes, we mean the Board of Trade Carnival, to held in the arens on Friday of this Everything that goes to make a good time for young and old. Even that carnival worry-maker, the weatherman, can do no harm, for all activities will be held within the arena. Downstairs there will be games, booths, "record-a-Voice", three bands, vaudeville show and bingo, while upctairs at 10 o'clock the Modern Aires Drchestra will play modern and old wme music for dancing in the Rose

To be a little more specific, we know you'd like to know more about the vaudeville part of the program, which will go on in a continuous show during the evening, in addition to all the other attractions. The well-known "Kansas Farmer and His Hired Help", will provide entertainment, Charles Jackson, comedian, of Hamilton, and Clifford Voysey, outstanding boy singer and accordian artist, also of Hawill win the same wide acclaim as they did at the Lions carnimonth. Some of our own and attractive tap dancers will be on the program, as well as three bands in attendance during the whole evening.

you'll have a chance to hear yourself as others hear you, on a "Recorda-Voice", sponsored by Chinn's Photocraft Studio, Brampton. This attraction was very popular at the Toronto Exhibtion when it was held, and should prove even more so now, when so many people have loved ones far away, who would like nothing better than to hear the voices of the folks back home. Have a record made and send it overseas to your boy. The charge is only 75 cents. It would be as well to prepare your message by writing 200 words or less, just as you would a letter. A record is something you can always keep. Now is your opportunity to have one made for your family and friends. You may arrange for several members of your family to speak on one record.

And who wouldn't like to win that first prize in the Grand Draw-a $50 The second and third prizes are something to be desired too, being $25 and $10 vouchers for merchanise in stores in Georgetown, and immediate district. By entering the arens you are also entitled to a chance for the lucky door prize, a Sully's cast aluminum roasting oven.

Another prize has been offered for the best clown or fancy-firess costume, and also one for the best impersonation for the parade and evening's performance. The parade will start from the town hall, proceed down Main Street and up to the with the three bands playing. The aforementioned prizes will judged by popular applause during the show in the Arena.

The Soldiers' Comforts Committee are having a refreshment booth, and there will be midway games and bingo. Don't fail to take a look at the galaxy of lovely bingo prizes displayed this week in MacCormack's Drug Store window. The dance frolic in the rose room will doubtless prove very popular with the Modern Aires supplying the music.

The general admission to the arena is adults 25c and children 15c. Come one, come all. You can't fail to have a good time.
