Training and Education— Doorways to Opportunity

SOCIAL SECURITY MEASURES

In planning Canada's re-establishment program, its framers worked with one principal idea in mind. This was that the only answer to the problem of permanent re-establishment is a job, and that the surest way to get and hold that job is by the skill necessary for it.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Every ex-service man or woman who will be assisted in re-establishment by training is eligible to have it. There is provision for paying fees for all courses and, in addition, the ex-service man or woman may receive maintenance grants up to:

$60 monthly if single;

$80 monthly for a man and his wife, together with children's allowances.

This training is available for the period of service to a maximum of one year, but can be extended beyond that period, if necessary, and if service is more than one year.

EDUCATIONAL TRAINING

This is available to all who are admitted to university within 15 months of discharge and, as in vocational training, fees are paid and there are maintenance allowances up to:

$60 monthly for a single man;

$80 monthly for a man and his wife, together with allowances for dependent children.

These allowances will be continued on a month for month basis of the time in the services, providing all examinations are passed. Outstanding students may have assistance continued to completion of the course.

SOCIAL SECURITY MEASURES

Under the re-establishment program Canada's veterans who, within 18 months of discharge from the services, become ill or unemployed may draw maintenance allowances up to $50 if single and $70 for a man and his wife, together with children's allowances. The out-of-work benefits are for those together with children's allowances. The out-of-work benefits are available, fit and able to work, but for whom there is no work immediately available. In the case of serious illness there is free treatment and hospitalization for any condition in the year following discharge.

As a further security measure, every veteran who enters insurable employment is entitled, after 15 weeks in that employment, to unemployment insurance credit as though the whole period in the services since July 1, 1941, had been spent in the insurable employment.

VETERANS' WELFARE OFFICERS ARE STATIONED IN KEY CENTRES THROUGHOUT CANADA. THEY ADVISE AND ASSIST EX-SERVICE PERSONNEL, AND SHOULD BE CONSULTED ON ALL PROBLEMS.

MEMORIALS DEDICATED AT ST. ALBAN'S

St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams, was filled to capacity on Sunday afternoon at half-past three. The people of the Glen and St. George's, with many former parishioners of St. Alban's gathered for a service at which were dedicated several very beautiful Memorial gifts. The Bishop of the Diocese, Right Reverend L. W. B. Broughall, was present.

After the hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," and the National Anthem, Evensong was sung by the Rector and the 26th Psalm was used, and the Lesson was the twenty-first chapter of the Revelation. The second hymn was "We Love the Place, O God." After the State prayers, the Rector requested the Bishop to dedicate the memorials, which he proceeded to do. They consist of Altar Rails—"To God's Eternal Glory, and in loving memory of Elizabeth Eason, who died July 12th, 1943, aged 82 years," and Altar, Reredos and paneling with this inscription: "The Altar, Reredos and Sanctuary Paneling are erected to the Glory of God, and in loving memory of Joseph Beaumont, born Dec. 2, 1862, died July 26, 1943; a founder and benefactor of this Church. Lord, I have loved the habitation of Thy House, and the place where Thine honour dwelleth."

These memorials are all lovely, and most suitable, built and carved by The Valley City Manufacturing Company of Dundas, and enhance the beauty of an already beautiful church. The hymn of dedication, "Great man of the Post Office staff, Acton, and Rod Downes, a nephew of Guelph. Relatives and friends from a distance who attended the funeral were from Guelph, Toronto, St. Catharines, Aylmer, Hamilton and Aris. The many beautiful floral tributes testified the esteem in which the deceased was held and included a wreath from the Halton Branch of the Rural Mail Couriers Association, in which Mr. Webster has been quite active. Free Press.

God, to Thee our hearts we raise in joyful adoration" was then sung. The second verse is:

To Thy great glory, Lord, we place, Within Thy shrine most holy, These hallowed gifts, Thy courts to grace.

With thankful hearts and lowly. Accept, we pray, these works of love, And seal them Thine for ever:

Thy gracious unction from above Four Thou on gifts and giver. The Bishop then preached from the 121st Psalm, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

The recessional hymn, after the benediction had been pronounced by the Bishop, was "The day Thou gavest, Lord, is ended." The Vesper, was:

Into Thy care, Lord, all who fight for Thee, All those who work, or plan—and those who mourn— These we commend, and rest in Thee our cause. Save Thou Thy world, and grant an holy peace. Amen.

STEPHENS-MEEK WEDDING IN TORONTO

Trinity United Church, Toronto, was the scene of a wedding on Saturday, October 14th, when Harriet Agnes Meek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meek, Alton, Ont., became the bride of John Hillary Stephens, son of Mrs. J. F. Ardill and the late Mr. D. J. Stephens, Rev. Arthur Organ officiated. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were used in decoration and the wedding music was played by Mr. A. J. McKnight and sung by Mr. Ernest Shildrick.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a loganberry crepe gown, matching feather hat and corsage of Joanna Hill roses. Mr. Harry Knights and Mr. Clayton Connell were ushers.

The reception followed in the church parlor where the bride's mother, gowned in pale delphinium crepe and wearing a corsage of Briarcliff roses, received. Assisting was the groom's mother wearing a black lace gown and corsage of Tallman roses. The couple later departed on a trip to Muskoka.

GIRLS' GARDEN BRIGADES MADE EXCELLENT DISPLAYS AT LOCAL FALL FAIRS

At both Georgetown and Milton Fairs one of the most interesting displays in the respective hall exhibits was that staged by members of Halton Girls' Garden Brigades. At Georgetown only four young ladies exhibited, but the quality of the displays more than compensated for the lack of numbers. In the Milton Hall twelve young ladies staged the best garden display held in the County in recent years. At both points the quality of the vegetables and the attractiveness of the arrangement of the respective displays brought forth many complimentary and enthusiastic comments from those fortunate enough to have visited the hall exhibits. Some 26 Halton young ladies enrolled in Garden Brigades last spring and the prizes awarded are based on the aggregate score taking into account their respective gardens, canning, note books, displays at the fair, written tests on preparation of vegetables, canning, etc. The winners were as follows:

Georgetown—1st Annie Snow; 2nd Doreen Ferguson; 3rd Margaret Beebe; 4th Josh Somerville.
Milton—1st Marjorie McCready; 2nd Frances Cripps; 3rd Ruth Wilson; 4th Mrs. Clarence McCready; 5th Irene Mitchell; 6th Edna Aitken; 7th Mae Wingfield; 8th Betty Ruddell; 9th Mrs. H. Switzer; 10th Beattie Reid; 11th Marion Currie; 12th Margaret McPhail.

DEATH OF MRS. S. H. WEBSTER AT HER ACTON DISTRICT HOME

The entire community was indeed shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Harold Webster early Monday morning, October 9th, at her home R. R. 4 Acton.

The late Mrs. Webster, Enid Sylvia Bennett, was born in Brookbury, Quebec, April 3rd, 1891, the only daughter of the late Lewis and Laura Bennett. 36 years ago she was united in holy matrimony to Samuel Harold Webster, then of Bury, Quebec.

The late Mrs. Webster with her husband and family came to Acton 24 years ago and since that time has resided at her late residence, Lot 22, Concession 7, Esqueping.

Mrs. Webster was a charter member of Dublin Women's Institute in which she has always taken a keen interest and an active part. At the time of her passing she was District Convener of "Citizenship" in the Halton Women's Institute.

The funeral on Wednesday afternoon was largely attended by relatives, friends and neighbors. A service was held at the Johnstone & Rumley Funeral Home and from there to St. Alban's Anglican Church of which the deceased was a member. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Besides her sorrowing husband Mrs. Webster also leaves four sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of a devoted mother, Maxine (Mrs. J. L. Ellerby), Lawrence, Signs (Mrs. Rodgers Barr), Clifford (with the Canadian Army in Italy), Verna, Lewis and Raymer. One half-brother, Chester Colley, of Brockton, Mass., and four grandchildren, Allan Ellerby, Wayne Webster, Bruce and Donald Barr also remain. One son, Howard was killed in action in France August 15th, and the other half-brother, Hassen Colley, predeceased her nine years ago.

The bearers were Messrs. John Locker, Wm. Brycken, Willard Britton, C. W. Woodhall, and C. Lath-
