

Poultry Association is Formed in Georgetown

An organization meeting was held in the old Town Hall on October 31st, at which the Georgetown and Halton County Poultry Association was formed. C. E. Herrington is president of the new organization, with the following slate of officers: 1st vice-president, W. J. Alexander; 2nd vice-president, A. E. Walde, Milton; secretary-treasurer, Clarence Spence; executive, B. E. Jones, Milton; N. A. Sinclair, Milton; H. Lealle, Wm. Emmerson, F. Clarke, Fred Kentner, Acton.

This is the first poultry club in the district since 1924, when a club formed in 1920 disbanded. The purpose of the new organization is to promote the poultry industry and encourage better breeding, production and better quality stock. Regular meetings will be held the last Wednesday of each month in the Georgetown Town Hall and it is planned to bring in outstanding speakers in the poultry field to give advice to breeders.

The organization will also affiliate with the Ontario Poultry Federation, a government sponsored organization and through this affiliation it is hoped to have a bigger and better poultry exhibit at the Fall Fair, with a bigger prize list.

The Federation annual meeting is in Hamilton this month. Mr. Herrington, who is a vice-president is judging at the Hamilton and West-north County Poultry Show on November 14th and 15th, which is held in conjunction with this annual meeting.

ALFRED G. GREEN

The sudden passing of Mr. Alfred G. Green at his home on Centre St., Wednesday night, October 18, came as a shock to his many friends. He had not been in good health for some time, but it was not thought that his condition was so critical as he was around and about as usual until the fatal seizure occurred just as he was about to retire.

The late Mr. Green, who was born and raised at Brampton, was a retired teacher. Of his 44 years of faithful and efficient service in the teaching profession he taught for 14 years at Beeton Junction school, and 12 years at Georgetown. He also taught at Pickering, and latterly at Burlington. Despite his very active life as a teacher he found time to give of his services in the capacity of a capable municipal official and also took a keen interest in the welfare of the community in which he lived. In his younger days he was fond of outdoor sports, baseball being his favourite game.

Five years ago Mr. Green took up residence in Beeton, where although retired, he continued the pursuit of an active and useful life, being the town treasurer, secretary of the Red Cross Society, member of the School Board and teacher of the adult bible class of Trinity United Church.

THE CHURCH DURING WAR AND PEACE

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 5:43-48; Romans 12:17. GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called sons of God.—Matthew 5:9.

Everywhere men are talking about the coming peace. They are concerned lest having won a war we may lose the peace through the selfishness or the indifference of men. It is a great problem and one about which we are rightly concerned.

Why is it then that the most important factor in assuring a just and friendly settlement of the problem is left out of men's deliberations? Why is there so little (if any) thought of God and prayer to Him for the needed guidance and wisdom?

We know that there can never be an abiding peace until Christ comes to establish His kingdom, but in the meantime, we should seek to bring Christian principles to bear on the relations of men and nations. We are to show:

I. A Higher Measure of Love (Matt. 5:43-48).

The world has established its own principle of conduct based on selfish advantage. It pays to be polite to those who can favor you, so cultivate their good will by acts of courtesy and kindness. Your neighbor may be able to help you in an hour of need, so do good to him as you have opportunity.

But an enemy—what can you gain from kindness to him? Hate him, and treat him like an enemy.

Christianity knows nothing of such a spirit. Even though it be necessary to fight against wicked men in order to hinder their evil plans, we need not lose our love for them. Even those who spitefully use us may be loved for Christ's sake. "Consider Him that endured such contradiction of sinners against Himself" (and went right on loving them), "lest ye be wearied" in your own love for those who bear the sad name of enemies (see Heb. 12:3).

This is admittedly a high standard, but it is not too high for those who know the love of Christ.

II. A Higher Degree of Loyalty (Rom. 13:1-4).

An intelligent Christian is the best citizen. He knows that all government is based on the power and authority of God, and hence he recognizes the legality and authority of duly constituted governmental agencies.

No matter how much man has perverted or degraded government, yet it is in essence the expression of a ministry of God (v. 4). How deeply ashamed that should make those who regard political office as a means of personal gain and advantage, or who use their authority to permit or promote that which is against God.

Every public official should recognize God as the giver of his authority and seek the Lord's special grace and guidance in the discharge of his duties. Every citizen should highly regard the one who rules as having a power ordained of God (v. 1), for the good of the nation (v. 4).

Here then is the solution of the political problems which are causing upheaval all over the world, namely, a revival of Christian testimony and faith, for it will lead to a loyalty on the part of the people which is quite unknown where Christianity does not bring its true influence to bear.

That kind of love for men and loyalty to government necessarily brings about:

III. A Higher Standard of Patriotism (Rom. 13:5-7).

There is more to real patriotism than flag waving and high-sounding oratory. There must be a conscientious willingness to serve the nation in willing obedience to the command or the request of proper authority.

The Christian gives just that kind of patriotic support to his country (v. 5). His enlightened conscience demands it, and he responds.

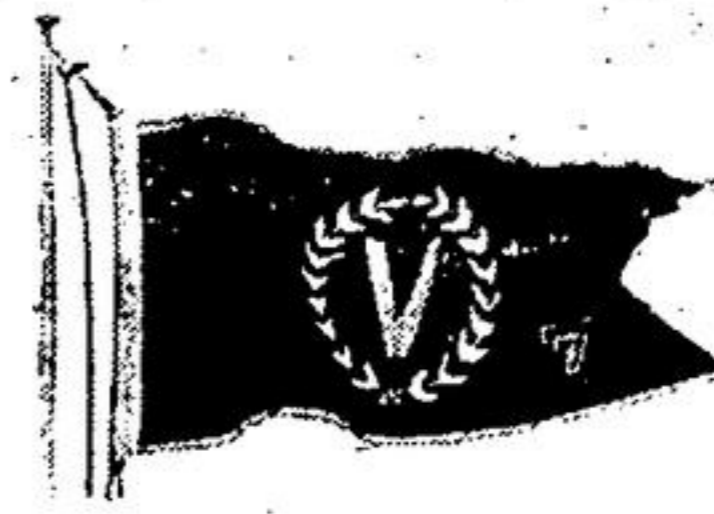

Then too, there must be support of the government by the payment of taxes. Think of the thousands who are engaged in the business of evading their just share of the cost of government.

The Christian has no share in such things, for he is ready to pay his share of the expense of government as a ministry of the Lord (v. 6).

No government can function properly nor long endure which does not have the respect and confidence of those governed. There can be nothing but criticism, discontent, and disobedience in such an atmosphere.

We have said it before, but we say it again—the best thing that could happen to America politically is a revival of Christianity. Our national leaders ought to set the example and encourage the people to follow in repentance, restitution and God's blessing. Read II Chronicles 7:14.

TOGETHER WE FIGHT

A Victory Bond am I, am I,
And proudly the enemy I defy!
Come! get on the ball Canadians all
And put me in sizes large and small.
For Freedom I stand, for Truth and Right,
For Liberty shining clear and bright;
Who ever you be, team up with me
That Canada live forever free!

I stand for the tools of war, of war,
For cannon and tanks, and shells galore;
Our ships on the sea, where ever they be.
Are every one backed by Bonds like me!
Your duty to me, my friends, is plain—
My canvasser must not call in vain!
The planes in the air, that fly over there
Believe it or not, are your affair.

Democracy's Badge am I, am I,
And who will its sacred cause deny?
Yet Freedom's great battle could nought avail
Should the sinews of war relax or fail
One lesson by all should now be learned—
That Victory and Peace must both be earned!
This prize we achieve in no other way—
Together we fight, we work, we pay.
