

To Keep Long Distance Lines Clear—

PLEASE SEND YOUR HOLIDAY GREETINGS

by MAIL!

The eager voices of our men and women in uniform, calling home at Christmas and New Year's, will crowd the wires again this year. Help to make sure that every one of these calls goes through... that all those on duty away from home hear the voices of their loved ones. Please send your greetings by mail—some one in the services will be grateful. (And please send them early—the postal people have a big holiday job on their hands, too.)

Giving Things To Words

"OF THINGS TO COME"

Tannis Murray, recent appointee to the CBC Talks and Public Affairs department, looks over a script for the "Of Things to Come," series with Neil Morrison, CBC Supervisor of Talks and Public Affairs. During December the topic, "Canada—as a nation," will be discussed, opening with a citizens' forum on "What is a Canadian," which was heard last night, Dec. 5th. Mrs. Murray, who formerly lived in Winnipeg, is now making Toronto her headquarters. She is in charge of arrangements for the "Of Things to Come," programs, a series of round table discussions on the vital topics of the day as they affect Canadians.

HORNBY

The Orange Hall was filled to capacity last Tuesday evening on the occasion of a farewell party in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robertson and son Harold, on the eve of their departure to Guelph. Progressive euchre was played for about two hours, then lunch was served, followed by a few minutes spent in community singing.

Mr. Stanley Hall, M.P.P. took the platform, and after a few introductory remarks, called upon Mr. Frank Stark to read the address; at the conclusion of which Mr. and Mrs. Robertson were presented with a beautiful solid walnut writing desk and chair to match, and Harold was given a lovely smoking jacket and pair of bedroom slippers. Mr. Robertson on behalf of Mrs. Robertson and himself expressed sincere thanks for the gifts and deep regret at severing their connection with the friends of Hornby. Harold also briefly expressed his thanks. Dancing was then enjoyed until an early morning hour. The Robertsons will be greatly missed by everyone in the community which has been their life-long home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and family of Orton, Ontario, moved down on Wednesday last to take charge of the store and post-office. On behalf of all we bid them a warm welcome to the community, and hope they will have success in their new undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left for their new home in Guelph on Thursday.

Miss Jardine and pupils are busy these days preparing the program for their Christmas concert.

We regret to report that Mr. Geo. Galbraith is suffering from a slight attack of pneumonia. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Floyd Downs received the sad news of the sudden death of his uncle, Mr. Wallace Cordingley, of Mimico, on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ropley, of Toronto, spent Sunday last with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Downs and family.

"FOR FRIENDLY SERVICE"

GEORGETOWN

The Women's Association of the United Church are holding their annual bazaar in the Orange Hall on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Beginning next Sunday a joint service for church and Sunday school will be held in the United Church at 2 o'clock p.m. Let everyone plan to attend regularly.

ASHGROVE

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 20th, Mt. Pleasant and Norval Y.P.U. were guests of Ashgrove Y.P.U. at a joint meeting held in the Sunday school room of the church. The program was given by the visitors with Miss Florence Laidlaw of Norval in charge. The worship service was taken by Jim Doane and Richard Van Fleet, after which Mary Marshall sang a pleasing solo. The citizenship topic on "how best to use our talents to achieve success" was well taken by Florence Laidlaw. An appropriate poem was read by Garnet Laidlaw and Bill Laidlaw gave a humorous reading. Games were conducted by Doris Brownridge and Viola Bridgen, and refreshments were served at the close.

On Friday evening, Dec. 1st, the Ashgrove Y.P.U. held their annual closing banquet in the Sunday school room. Rev. J. L. Self, of Norval, was guest speaker and used as his theme "How to Make the Most of Life." Musical numbers were given by Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth, June Clarke and Laisy McClure, of Georgetown. The officers for 1946 were installed by Rev. J. O. Tolton. "Bless to the tie that binds" and the Misses benediction brought a very profitable evening to a close.

Ward Brownridge left on Saturday for his trip to Chicago—the award he won as high man among Halton Junior Farmers.

Miss Vera Kean, of Rockwood, visited with her sister, Emery, for the Y.P.U. banquet and was also a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ruddell.

Betsy Ruddell and Marion Himer attended the leaders' course for the Junior Institute Home-making Class at Milton on Thursday and Friday of last week.

A number from this community attended the Ice Capades at Toronto last week.
