Social and Personal

Mr. R. Frust, of Ottawa, and former resident of Georgetown visited several friends in town last Saturday. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert MacNicol back to town, where Mr. MacNicol has secured a position with Federal Sales & Engineering. They have been living in Hull, Quebec.

Bruce Collins has completed his course with the Merchant Navy at Hubbards, N.B., and is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. All Collins, while awaiting posting to his ship.

Mrs. Stanley Allen, Mr. Wilbert Cleave and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Palmer, were among those from Georgetown and Norval who attended the funeral of the late Samuel Craig at Fairport Beach last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyler and daughter Jean have returned after spending a few days in Chicago, Ill.

Patricia and Mrs. Norman Herbert, of Halifax, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herbert.

Sorry to report that Mr. Vic Diggins, President of Federal Sales & Engineering, had an unfortunate accident this week. While fixing some blinds in the office he fell from a chair and fractured his collar bone.

Mr. W. A. Lyons and Mr. W. A. Nelson from Brampton spent Monday in town with Mr. T. L. Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Harris were guests of honour at a surprise party last Saturday evening to mark the anniversary of their marriage. The pleasant event was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harvey Lusty, when all the family gathered to congratulate them and present them with a beautiful night table.

We're glad to welcome back Mrs. R. Waldie, who has moved into her house on McNabb Street, after living in Toronto for the past two years. Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell, former tenants of Mrs. Waldie's house, have moved into their new home on Union Street.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. J. N. O'Neill, who celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary last Thursday. Mr. O'Neill is a veteran Main Street businessman in the garage and wagon business. For the past few years he has been assisted by his wife in the front office. Both are in excellent health and their many friends in town wish them many more happy wedding anniversaries.

St. George's Ladies held a successful Penny Bag Night on Thursday evening. A goodly sum was realized from the Penny Bags turned in and all participated in a very enjoyable program of carol-singing and games arranged by Mrs. W. V. Grant and Mrs. A. H. Feller. Mrs. F. Laws was chairman and Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson, pianist. The evening came to a conclusion with the serving of lunch by Mrs. Sam Walker and Mrs. T. E. Hewson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClure entertained the ladies of the Lorne Scots Auxiliary to a dinner on Thursday evening, November 30th. Rocco Lorusso, recently returned Lorne Scots serviceman from Italy, was the invited guest, and the ladies interviewed him informally about their own sons. Pte. Lorusso had seen many of them and was able to give the ladies reassuring first hand information. About eighteen were present and all enjoyed the dinner and the talk very much.

About seventy neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher last Thursday night to give them a surprise party and presentation on the occasion of their removal from the community to make their home in Georgetown. Messrs. Ward, Russell and Nelson Stark presented the Fishers with an 85-piece set of dinner dishes, while Mr. Wilfred MacDonald read the address, expressing the regret of all their friends upon their departure from the community, and wishing them health and happiness in their new home. A pleasant evening was spent playing euchre, after which the ladies served lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will make their home on Charles Street, Georgetown.

Driver Calvin MacDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. James MacDonald, R. R. No. 3 Georgetown, was honoured by a party and presentation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seward Wilson last Friday night. Nearly eighty friends gathered and presented him with a serviceman's wrist watch. Lorne Bud read the address and Jim Fisher made the presentation on behalf of those present. Dvr. MacDonald is to leave shortly for a new posting. The balance of the evening was spent playing euchre, with Mrs. Nugent the winner of the ladies' prize and Mr. Maynard Patterson winner of the men's.

A dance was held in the Rose Room last Wednesday, sponsored by employees of Federal Sales & Engineering, with the Modern Aires supplying the music. During the evening, presentations of fountain pens were made to Misses Helen Whyte, T. Gray and F. Ryan, who have left the employ of the company and returned to Toronto.

GEORGETOWNERS ATTEND GUELPH LIONS CLUB CHARTER NIGHT

Guelph Lions Club, formed only two months ago, received their charter on Thursday night last at a banquet and ladies' night held in Norfolk United Church assembly hall.

Lions Clubs were represented from three districts including the towns and cities of Kitchener, Galt, Brantford, Woodstock, Paris, Hamilton, Oakville, Georgetown, Brampton, Port Credit, Waterloo, Arthur, Mt. Forest, Harriston and other places. Georgetown was well represented by Mayor and Mrs. Harold Cleave, Mr. Ralph Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Leota, Mr. Ed. McWhirter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carpenter, and Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McElvray.

The presentation of the charter to the Guelph Lions Club was made by District Governor Lou Whittaker, of Welland, and the new officers were duly installed by the District Governor, assisted by the Provincial Secretary, Bruce Malcolm of Toronto. Lion President Ed. Hathaway, received the charter on behalf of the club.

Among the gifts presented to the newly-formed club by the other clubs, was a beautiful portrait of His Majesty from the Kitchener Club, and the flags of the fourteen nations with which Lionism is associated by the four district clubs, Georgetown, Oakville, Brampton and Port Credit.

A delicious cold chicken banquet was served, followed by a program and a dance at the Wellington Hotel. The Guelph Club was sponsored by the Kitchener and Galt Clubs.

The three or four hundred Lions and their wives attending were welcomed by Mayor Robeson of Guelph, and Mayor Service of Galt also brought greetings from his city.

HORNBY

The annual bazaar of Hornby Women's Association was held in the Orange Hall on Wednesday afternoon last December 6th. There was a good attendance of eager buyers. The sale of the various articles offered was highly successful. Afterward all enjoyed a social time together sipping afternoon tea and partaking of the dainty lunch served by members of the Association.

The members of Hornby Orange Lodge held their annual supper, euchre and dance in their hall last Friday evening, Dec. 8th. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Two highly successful auction sales were held in the locality last week, on Friday at the farm of Mr. Thos. Douglas, and on Saturday at the home of the late Mrs. Robson. Large crowds attended and good prices were realized for nearly everything offered. Mr. Douglas has rented his farm to Mr. Nelson Robinson. Last Sunday afternoon there was a good attendance at the first joint church and Sunday school service held
