CHRISTMAS

Each passing year has its quota of new friendships made and old ones more firmly cemented; this contributes appreciably to the pleasure of doing business, as we like to feel that goodwill is not merely a Christmas thought, but something that is a part of our very transaction during the year.

May your Christmas and New Year Season be joyful and the year 1945 blessed with a victorious peace and prosperity.

Sincerely yours,

W.A. CHRISTMAS PARTY AT MRS. GRANT'S

Mrs. W. V. Grant entertained the members of St. George's W.A. at her home last Thursday evening. The ladies enjoyed a program of games and contests, after which two presentations were made. Mrs. William Bullivant presented a gift to Mrs. W. G. O. Thompson, with appropriate address. Mrs. Thompson then presented Mrs. Fred Laws, president of the W.A., with a gift, and read the following poem, as a tribute to Mrs. Laws' faithful work:

Who is it our W.A. work assigns?
And on our pennies has designs?
Does more than her share and never whines?

Our President,

Who visits faithfully from home to home?
And looks up the stray ones when they roam?
And who deserves a better poem?

Our President,

Who knows all the parishioners ill?
Who has fever? Who has chills?
And even recommends their pills?

Our President,

Who was the saint all this year?
Who put up with the gang assembled?
And was ready with help and a word of cheer?

Our President,

Who do we want to fete tonight?
And to wish the best, honour bright?
For she is just a bit of alright.

Our President,

So a Merry Christmas from one and all,
And throughout the year on your may blessings fall,
And we promise to be a your best and call.

Our President

The contests were won by Mrs. Sid MacKenzie, first, and Mrs. A. H. Feller, second. In the memory contest Mrs. J. S. Hughes was winner, with Mrs. H. C. Barber second. The draw was made for the barrel of assorted apples, on which tickets had been sold. This was won by Shirley Harrison with ticket No. 126. Mrs. Mendenemy was in charge of the sale of lucky tickets. The prizes given to those members selling the greatest number were won by Mrs. J. S. Hughes and Mrs. W. Bullivant.

YOUNG SON OF MR. AND MRS. MURRAY LAIRD, NORVAL, DIES SUDDENLY

The sad death of a young boy occurred suddenly at Norval, on Tuesday morning last, December 12th, when David Ian, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Laird died, around 8.30. The little fellow had apparently been feeling well enough the day and evening before, having gone to school as usual, and did his homework before he went to bed. Pneumonia was the cause of his death. He was aged eight years and two months. David was a pupil of Norval Public School, and the United Church Sunday School. Surviving their only brother are two sisters, Pat and Elaine.

A private funeral was held from the home of his parents, Lot 11, Con. 6, Chinguacousy Township, on December 14th with Rev. F. J. Dunlop in charge of the service. The two favourite hymns of the little boy were repeated. Pallbearers were six chums: Duncan Robinson, Clark Lyons, Lloyd and Bill Laidlaw and Frank McCourt. Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval.

—Have you got your tickets on the big Lions Draw on Saturday for Christmas fowl.
