

It's still a MERRY CHRISTMAS in the Land of the Free!

MAY THIS CHRISTMASTIDE BE THE LAST WHEREIN WE FIND THE WORLD ENGAGED IN CONFLICT.

LOCAL NEWS Social and Personal

—It's pleasant and cheering to see the Post Office clock illuminated at night once more, as a result of the recent lifting of Hydro restrictions. The Christmas displays of the merchants are also very effective with lighting restored.

—A large congregation filled St. George's Church last Sunday evening for their annual Carol Service. The lovely old Christmas hymns and carols were enjoyed by all. Miss Darryl Dawson rendered a pleasing solo during the taking of the offertory. Mrs. W. F. Bradley presided at the organ.

—Oh, Oh—Just 3 more shopping days left!

—With the snowfall in Toronto and other Southern Ontario centres triple what we received here, we might well have considered ourselves lucky as we ploughed through drifts plenty high enough. No vital services were interrupted here, except travel by car. There were a few hours' delay in the small Tuesday morning.

—Mrs. R. K. Kercher held a very successful bazaar of children's and babies' clothing on Friday and Saturday of last week in the McGibbon Block. All articles were made by Mrs. Kercher, and the proceeds will go to several charities. The P. N. G. Club drew the winning ticket from the raffle on the knitting bag, with Mrs. Edna McGibbon the lucky winner.

—Mr. Jack Thompson has opened a new store in the Lane Block, called the Phoenix Gift Shop. Christmas trade has been brisk, and as Georgetown has no store of this type, we wish him continued success in his venture.

—S. S. No. 16 Esqueing, 7th Line, will hold their annual concert and dance on Thursday, Dec. 21st at 8.30 p.m. The Rhythm Rubes will provide musical entertainment.
