GLEN UNITED SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT

The town hall was filled to capacity on Friday night for the Sunday school Christmas concert of Glen United Church. Mrs. Albert Presswood was chairman for the evening's entertainment, which included a variety of songs, recitations and playlets by the Sunday school children.

The program began with Christmas carols sung by a mixed chorus with Mrs. Jack Addy as pianist. Jimmy Schenk and Maureen Hepburn then gave recitations, followed by a song by the beginners' class, a recitation by Kenneth Schenk, and a play "Busy Maids."

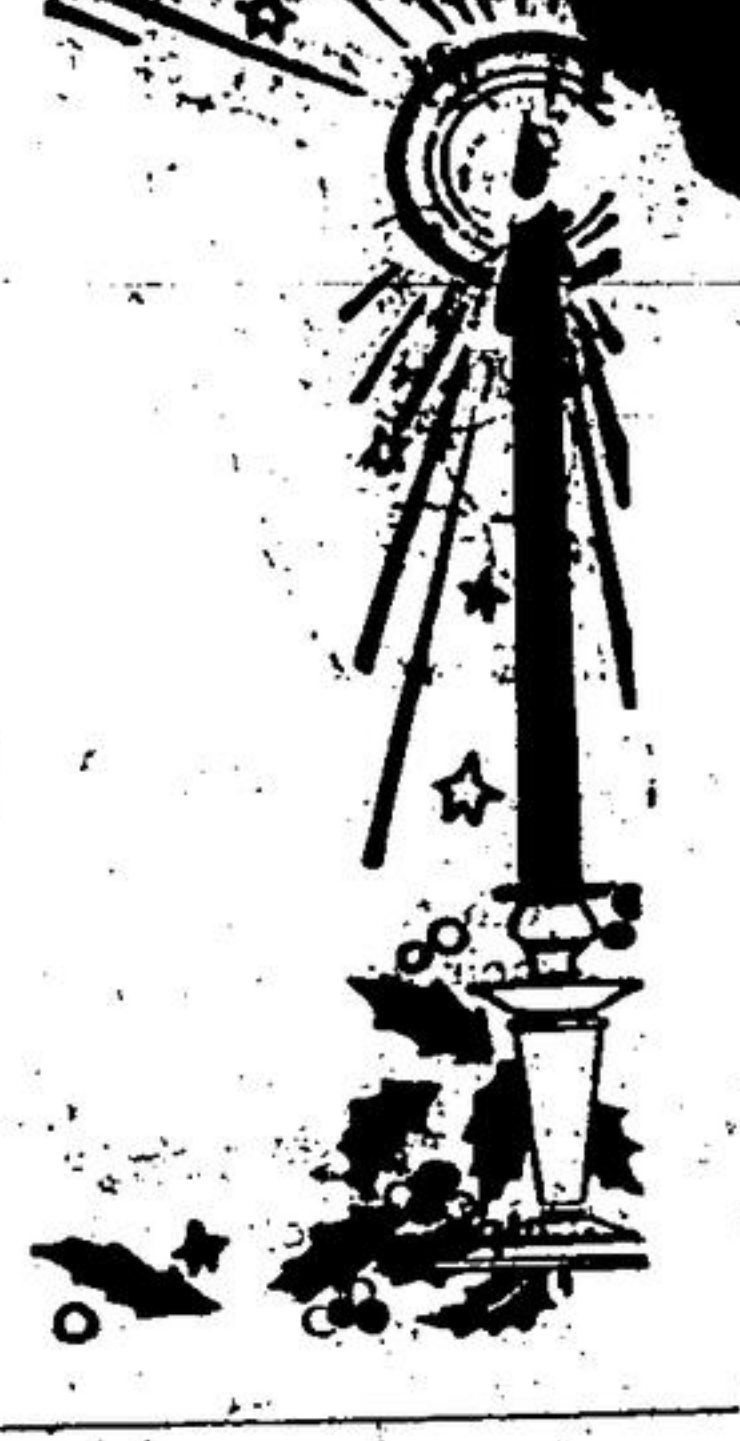

A recitation by Keith Scott introduced the second half of the program, and this was followed by a play "Christmas Episode." The cast was composed of: George Inglis, Kate Hill, Bob Addy, Rose-Marie Robinson, and Ruth Presswood. Gary Cooper gave a recitation, and John Wiggstaffe sang "White Christmas." Recitations by Maureen Gibbs and Dorothy Scott followed, and then another play "The Arithmetic Lesson" with Bernice Gibbs, Carl Schenk, Marion Stamp, Keith Scott and Ruth Presswood taking part. Recitations by Gail Wheeler, Eleanor Schenk, Audrey Robinson and Carl Hill, a song by Eleanor Schenk, recitations by Bernice Gibbs and Marion Stamp, and the singing of Christmas carols completed the evening's entertainment, and then Santa Claus arrived to distribute candy and gifts to the children.
