

Hockey and Curling Highlight Winter Season Here

Combines Bow to Malton in Intermediate O.H.A. Opener

Fast Hockey and Third Period Rally Feature Game — Joe Schertel Scores Four Goals, Assists on Fifth — Final Score 9 - 6 for Visitors—Guelph Here Friday.

Although the Norval-Georgetown Combines were greatly out-scored for two periods, a terrific burst of speed in the final period, led by big Joe Schertel, gave the large crowd something to cheer about and the Malton team something to think about before another game comes along.

Victory Alcraft led a snappy team, that for two periods kept Richardson in the local net pretty busy. Scoring three goals in the first period to the Combines one, and making it 7 - 1 at the end of the second period, showed just how fast the visitors were travelling. Bus Morton (a former Acton player) netted three of the goals, while Buxton, Markle, Montgomery and Chauvin were responsible for the rest. Nick Ferri scored for the Combines while the team was short-handed. Kitchen had three penalties, Richardson two, Schertel two and Q. Ferri one.

The Combines seemed to get a new lease on life in the third period, and led by Schertel, accounted for five goals to make the final score 9 - 6. Schertel scored four goals and assisted on another, with Len Self netting the last goal of the game. Chauvin and Markle scored for Malton in this period. There were only three penalties, Richardson, McMurray and Bruah.

After such a hectic affair as that third period rally, the Combines should be in excellent form to take on Guelph on Friday night. Looks as if this league may amount to something and some good O.H.A. hockey is anticipated.

Combines—Goal, Richardson; defence, Self, Schertel; centre, N. Ferri; wings, Q. Ferri, McMurray; alternates, Cotell, McMeekin, Clark, Munroe, Ward.

Malton—Goal, Dinsdale; defence, Bruah, Smith; centre, Morton; wings, Chauvin, Currie; alternates, Montgomery, Buxton, Markle. Kitchen Richardson, Quackenbush, Coomber. Referee—Johnny Jones, Guelph.

CURLING NEWS

There is plenty of activity at the Curling Club these days. The Committee have arranged a series of games to run most of the winter and great interest is being shown in the keen competition.

Monday night's play showed the following results: Bob Erwin's team won from Richardson; Wilson from Gibbons; Bell from P. Cleave, and C. Bradley from Mason.

In the MacCormack Cup games Ern Thompson's rink has won two games, but lost out to Bell's rink by a score of 9 - 7 last week. These games are being keenly contested, and no doubt the cup will change hands many times during the winter.

There is talk of having a "social evening" shortly, and here's hoping this materializes. It will help weld this friendly spirit noticed about the curling ice.

The curlers are assured of plenty of fine play, and it is hoped that the large attendance each night will continue. At present there are about forty members and more are expected to join. Thanks to a good-working set of officers.

Georgetown and Oakville Army Teams Vie for League Leadership

Games Drawing Excellent Crowds

Some exciting hockey, with good attendances is marking the Lorne Scots Army Hockey Series. The boys are playing a nice brand of hockey and will no doubt improve as the season goes along.

"C" Company Georgetown have two wins and a tie to their credit, and vie with Oakville for the league leadership.

To open the hockey season here, "C" Company entertained "D" Company Orangeville here last Thursday night. It was an exceptionally fast hockey game, specially in the second period. Play was a bit rugged at times, which added a little extra for the 300 odd fans in attendance.

Georgetown scored twice in the first period, Orangeville once. The visitors pressed hard in the second frame and tied the score, only to have "C" Coy. chalk up two more in the third period. Goal scorers were: Georgetown, M. Grenke, 2, M. Lorusso and W. Bradley; Orangeville, Hackett, 2.

The teams lined up as follows: Georgetown—Goal, L. Brandford; defence, D. Ervin, A. Ritchie; centre, M. Grenke; wings, C. Allan, D. Robertson; alternates, J. McClure, N. Long, D. Rowley, M. Lorusso, W. Bradley.

Orangeville—Goal, Smith; defence, Mathers, Robertson; centre, Morrison; wings, Allen, Hackett; alternates, Cole Nutley.

Referee—W. Richardson; linesman—I. Hill.

On Monday night "C" Coy. won another game, shutting out Support Coy. Brampton 6 - 0. The local team is improving as the players gain in Bradley, Nevilles. Brampton—Goal, Richardson; defence, Nixon, Myles; centre, Daniels; wings, Gibson, Watson; alternates, Coor, Wilson, Potter, Borbell, Toland. Referee—H. Teasdale.
