SMITH & STONE NEWS

Don't forget the next Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic, which will be held on February 7th. In Georgetown, as everywhere, the great need is for new donors, and we would ask everyone to think it over. A mobile clinic can only come to town every so often, when conditions are suitable, therefore it is necessary to have as many as possible attend when the clinic is here, in order to do our part. Let's have a good number on the chart this time for S. & S.

Our mail bag last week contained only two letters, one from Harold (Larry) Ritchie in Italy and one also from Dick Forster in Italy. Both the boys are well, and Larry Ritchie told us he had visited with Sgt. Bill Collier, Don McPhail, Bruce Harley, Pete Root and Len Rayner during the holiday season. In his letter written Jan. 28 Dick Forster says they brought in the New Year over there in a big way. About ten minutes to twelve the boys in the artillery pounded on brass shells with a piece of steel, they could hear it being carried from one outfit to another, and this took the place of bells.

We are glad to have Irl Ritchie back on the job again. Hope she and Bill enjoyed their holiday.

Jean Miller and Jean Whaley recently left S. & S. They were employed in the Assembly Dept., where they will be missed by their fellow employees.

Dorothy Clarke and Doris McDonald of the Assembly Dept. are attending the District Council of the U.E.W. Union in St. Catharines.

We welcome back another ex-employee of the company in the person of Miss Doris McAllan, who has returned as a member of the office staff.

The oft planned skiing and tobogganing party for the office girls seems ill-fated. It was postponed before because the weather was too warm, and last Friday was postponed again as the weather was too cold. Maybe the weatherman will hit it right yet. Last week's temperatures were quoted as anything from 19 to 30 below. That's just too cold.

Last Wednesday afternoon M. Frank, A. Shorill and J. Harley of the Punch Press Dept. were going home from work when they decided to take a short cut across the frozen creek from the CNR subway to Dayfoot's. The first girl got over with a wet foot, the second went through the ice to the hips, the third didn't get started. Better stick to the road in future girls, that ice is only safe for the youngsters to adventure on.

Echoes from last week's presentation party: Did you get the view of Charlie Rue shaking hands with Mr. Stone at the party? He had to use his left hand, as he had sprained his thumb on the right hand. We understand that he had been trying out the good old winter sport of skiing. What do you think of it, Charlie? We heard the office girls doing a little singing on their own after the party was over (not bad either). How about a little contest girls? Office vs. Punch Press at the next social evening.

John Holden of the Bakelite Dept. has been forced to take a few days off with a sprained wrist. We hope it will soon be better.

Pottery Pieces: Blanche Culp spent the week-end at her home in Erin. We are sorry that her twin, Bernice Culp, is not well again. She was back to work for a few days but was advised by her doctor to rest for a while. We join in wishing Bernice a speedy recovery. This week we have lost a young member of our fettling department, Audrey Beerman, who is leaving to learn a trade at the local shoe factory. Best of luck, Audrey, we're going to miss you. We are pleased to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Ray Salter and son, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bickle and daughter are making their homes in our town. Mr. Salter is a Time Stacey Officer, and Mr. Bickle is Office Manager at the plant. We hope they will be happy in their new location in Georgetown. We welcome two newcomers to the Bakelite this week, Roy Bruce and Glenn Robinson. Roy is a brother-in-law of another bakelite worker, Jack Harlow, and Glenn is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Henney, both employees of the firm. In the Fettling Dept. at present are two girls from Mofat's Limited, Miss Violet Mason and Mrs. Ruby Kay. We hope these ladies are enjoying their visit to Georgetown and S. & S.

HOCKEY NEWS

Space does not permit much hockey news this week. However, on Monday night 'C' Company were defeated by Orangeville 3 to 1, and will play Brampton here on Thursday. Norval Combines take on a team from Toronto University in an exhibition game next Tuesday night. This team is coached by Reg Hamilton of the Toronto Maple Leafs. The Norval - Malton playoffs will start in about a week's time and we understand some new faces may be seen on the line-up.

Mrs. Paul Barber recently received word from her husband, Lieut. Paul Barber, that he was in Belgium. Overseas since June, 1941, Lieut. Barber has been stationed at a large camp in England as a physical training instructor. Paul wrote that eggs were a precious commodity in Belgium, selling for 60c a dozen.
