SLEIGHING AND EUCHRE PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT

The Entertainment Committee at Smith & Stone, Limited, Georgetown, held an old-time sleighing party on Friday, Feb. 9th, for the employees and friends. Due to the unusual amount of snow, this was the first time for many years that it was possible to arrange such an event, and it was greatly enjoyed by all who were able to attend. There were three sleigh loads of merry-makers, numbering about 75, and the route followed down the Eighth Line for quite a distance, nearly to Hornby, and many thrills were enjoyed going down and climbing the hills.

The party returned to the Legion Rooms to join others who had played cards and had a sing-song. The sleighs were supplied and driven by C. Sinclair, O. Murray and Bruce Reid. Lunch of sandwiches, cake, and coffee was served by the Social Committee. The floor was then cleared for dancing and the Rhythm Rubes supplied the music, with Jack Cain calling off for a square dancing.
