

Lemon Juice Recipe Checks Arthritic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from arthritis, rheumatism, or neuritic pain, try this simple, inexpensive home recipe. Get a package of Ru-ex Prescription from your druggist. Mix it with a quart of water, add the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy and pleasant.

You need only 2 tablespoonful two times a day. Often within 48 hours—sometimes overnight—splendid results are obtained. If the pains are not quickly relieved and if you do not feel better, Ru-ex Prescription will cost you nothing to try. Your money refunded if it does not help you. Ru-ex Prescription is for sale and recommended by MacOrrmack's Drug Store and other leading druggists.

JOAN-YOUNG BRIDE OF STEWART SIMPSON

A pretty wedding was solemnized at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in Norval United Church, when Joan Winnifred Young, eldest daughter of Mrs. Young and the late J. H. Young, became the bride of Stoker I Stewart Simpson, H.M.C.S., "Storont" son of Mr. Isaac Simpson and the late Mrs. Simpson, Stewarttown. Rev. F. J. Dunlop officiated.

The bride wore a two-piece navy crepe suit; white lace blouse and maids flower hat. Her corsage was of red roses, and she wore a gold brooch and earrings, gifts of the groom. The groom's sister, Mrs. Roy Smith, of Stewarttown was the bride's attendant, wearing a purple dress with lime accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mr. Douglas Lawson, Stewarttown, was groomsmen.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the immediate families was held at the bride's home.

A very successful social under the auspices of Ashgrove W.I. was held Tuesday evening, Mar. 20th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Graham. Despite the inclement weather over seventy people gathered and enjoyed the progressive euchre and crokinole. Prize-winners were as follows: euchre—Mrs. H. Bird, Mr. John Bird; travelling prize—Mr. Graydon Chester, Mrs. Bruce Bridgen; crokinole—Billie Wilson.

On Friday evening, Mar. 16, the Ashgrove young people were entertained by Milton Y.P.U. The Ashgrove Society led in the worship service, after which Milton Society conducted games. A delightful lunch was served and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close.

The Ashgrove Y.P.S. held their regular meeting Sunday evening, Mar. 25, at the home of Ward and Doris Brownridge. It was the citizenship meeting under the direction of Marion Currie. During the worship service, Jessie Wingfield read the Scripture and Mae Wingfield read an appropriate poem. John Bird led in prayer and the worship story was read by Edith DeForrest. Mr. Fred Wrigglesworth gave the young people a worthwhile talk on the "Duties to the Laws of our Country." The young people made further plans for their annual Easter Sunday evening service, when Rev. J. Dunlop, of Norval, will be the special speaker.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at a well-attended church service last Sunday morning. A service is being held during Holy Week on Wednesday evening and special Easter services will be held on Sunday to which all are invited.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Walter Brownridge is able to be home from the hospital.

Easter at St. George's

HOLY COMMUNION
7:00 a.m.
and 11:00 a.m.
EVENSONG
7:00 p.m.

JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN TODAY, ALLELUIA!

The glorious Feast celebrating the Victory of our Blessed Lord over death and the grave, and our victory through Him. Ancient and beautiful hymns, anthems and Scriptures. Let the old Church be thronged with grateful-hearted worshippers.

HORNBY

The crokinole social held in the Orange Hall last Friday evening under the auspices of the W.A. of the United Church was largely attended and highly successful. There were thirty-two tables of progressive crokinole played. Mrs. A. J. Ruddell won the ladies' prize and John Stark was winner for the men. Next on the program was a musical contest, with Mrs. Clifford Wrigglesworth reading the story, and Mrs. Totton playing the various musical selections on the piano. Several couples tied for first place as winners of a perfect score. A basket of fruit and candy donated by Mrs. Gordon Bridgen was auctioned off with Mr. Ollie Brownridge acting as auctioneer. Harold Bailey was the lucky buyer. A dainty lunch of sandwiches, tarts and coffee was then served by the ladies, and a very pleasant evening brought to a close with the National Anthem at 12 o'clock.

Passion Week services are being held in all three United Churches during the week as follows: Tuesday night at Hornby; Wednesday at Ashgrove and Thursday night at Bethel.

Choir practise will be held after each service. A change in the order of services of Hornby United Church will take place next Sunday. Sunday school will meet at 11 a.m. and the church service will be held in the evening at 8 o'clock. The Easter service and Communion will be combined. Let all plan to attend.

A neutral visiting Berlin was curious about the food situation. He asked one of the natives, "Is it true that you Germans are eating horse meat?" "Ah," reminded the Nazi, "Those were the good old days!"

REGISTER NOW for FAMILY ALLOWANCES

Family Allowances will be paid every month for every eligible child under 16 years of age. First cheques will be mailed in July, 1945. Family Allowances are being paid to help parents in the care of their children, to help pay for medical, dental and nursing services—for better food, clothing and shelter, and to assist in equalizing opportunities for all children.

Registration forms have been mailed to every family. Fill in your form as soon as received. It is very simple—only seven questions—and information is given below to help you complete the form accurately. Do it right away in the interests of your children, as cheques can only be mailed to those eligible families which have completed and returned the Registration Form.

If you do not receive a form through the mail, please ask for one at the nearest Post Office.

QUESTION 1. PRINT IN BLOCK LETTERS (LIKE THIS) the names of your children under 16. Write out the month of birth, then give day and year. Write name of place where each child was born. Complete each line by stating your relationship to child and if father and mother are applying, fill in both "relationship" columns.

QUESTION 2. Here the father and mother must both sign if father is at home. Then give the address to which cheques should be mailed. PRINT THIS IN BLOCK LETTERS (LIKE THIS), under your signatures. The mother should not sign her husband's first name. She should sign her own name, such as Mrs. Alice, Mary, Joan, etc.

QUESTION 3. If only one person has signed under question 2, state the reason why the other signature cannot be given. Give details—don't say Father or Mother is "away"—state where and for how long.

QUESTIONS 4 and 5. If the answer is "Yes" to questions 4, 5 or 6, state details giving name of child, or children, if any, under 16 who are living with you, list their names, give the reason and the complete address where they can be visited. If the answer to No. 7 is "Yes," give details.

INCOME TAX: If no one will benefit from both Family Allowances and a full income tax deduction for their children, the income tax deductions for children will be reduced by the amount received from Family Allowances. Parents, therefore, have the choice of claiming—or not claiming—Family Allowances. Those uncertain as to whether or not they will benefit are advised to apply for the Family Allowance.
